Mrs. O. D. Oldham, president of the local organization of the Women's Christian Temperance union, has returned from a two month visit to Oklahoma City, she was accompanied by her grandson, Justin Gilbert.

A. H. Spicker, who is in the county jail unable to secure a bond for $1,000 to assure his presence in the district court after the grand jury investigation, has had his bail further added to by the application of his wife for a divorce. They were married here six years ago and have one child. Spicker is an Illinois Central switchman, who was arrested on Saturday in connection with a general roundup of freight car-loaders.

Mayor Maloney, while on his way to St. Paul to attend the annual meeting of the League of American Cities, delivered his address as president of the O. C. H. which was held in the city hall last evening. Mayor Maloney prepared his speech with great care and the report indicates that it was a well prepared scholarly effort, dealing in Irish history and the work of the organization in America and other countries.

At least one Council Bluffs woman "has found out what the tariff is." Her daughter, who has been in Canada with her husband, sent her three pairs of stockings by mail, of the quality that retail in the stores here at any price between 25 cents and three for a quarter. The stockings came in a rather musty-looking package yesterday afternoon, with a polite note from Postmaster Hazelton announcing that there was duty of 10 cents on each pair and 2 cents ad valorem duty. She did not think to examine the stuff before paying the duty.

A refined, handsome and well dressed couple from Lincoln applied for a marriage license at the county court house yesterday afternoon and when told upon inquiry that the marriage licenses were daily published in the newspapers declined to take the license unless Clerk Hardesty would guarantee that their names should be kept from the newspapers. Upon his statement that he was unable to give them such assurance they left with the remark that they would continue their journey eastward until they found a county seat where there were no daily papers.

Matthew W. German, a market gardener and fruit farmer residing on North Harrison street, began suit in the district court yesterday afternoon against A. A. Clark & Co., and A. A. Clark, claiming an interest in a series of financial transactions that cover the period between April 1, 1909 and August 1, 1910, and the purchase of real estate. The transactions involve the borrowing of money on the customary chattel loan plan and the purchase of real estate. The amount involved is a balance of $488, and the plaintiff recalls loans aggregating $100 and payments thereon exceeding $1,000. The attorney for the plaintiff is Thomas Q. Harriott and the attorney for the defendant is financial computations that are difficult to comprehend.

Y. W. C. A. WORKERS WILL MAKE REPORTS TONIGHT

Miss Howlette and Miss McAnaney to Address Meeting of Young Women at Y. W. C. A.

Miss Howlette and Miss McAnaney, the young women delegated by the organizers of the new Young Women's Christian association in Council Bluffs to go to Geneva, Wis., and attend the national meeting of the association, will return this afternoon. As has been previously announced a special meeting of the workers and promoters of the local association has been arranged for to be held this evening at the Young Men's Christian association building to hear the report the young women will make on their mission. It is expected that they will have a lot of valuable information to give.

Another feature of the meeting fully as important is the purpose to have all of the members of the soliciting committees representing the different organizations present, to make their final reports. There are quite a number who have failed to comply with the urgent request of the president, Mrs. Paek, to send in their reports. The list of membership cards so far reported approximate 62 names, and the belief is that when all of the workers are heard from the list will be swelled close to the 100 mark.

As special features of the meeting tonight Mrs. Mullis and Mrs. Hammill have consented to sing and Miss Hetch will give a recitation.

All of the clergymen of the city have been invited to attend the meeting for the purpose of catching some of the unusual spiritual spirit of enthusiasm animating the young women and which may lend additional ardor to the work of the churches on the first Sunday in September, which has been designated as Young Women's Christian association day in all of the churches.

Workmen Come in Great Numbers to Lake Manawa

Southwest Iowa District Session Held—Many Left at Home by Cancelled Train Order.

The annual convention of the Southwest Iowa district of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and the Degree of Honor, the women's auxiliary, was in session at Lake Manawa yesterday afternoon. About 1,800 delegates from every lodge in the district were present, and had it not been for the disappointment occasioned by the cancelling of an order for a special train by the Rock Island it is asserted that another thousand would have been added to the attendance. The chief portion of the delegates had arranged to reach the city via the Rock Island and were to reach the main line in all directions in time to take the special train arranged to be started from Atlantic. Complications compelled the abandonment of the train and many of the delegates, disappointed, refused to take the regular trains and did not come.

The also caused a disarrangement of the plans for a general parade at between 9 and 10 o'clock. As the last Rock Island train did not arrive until after 11 the parade had to be abandoned, although about 500 members marched through the streets. Several of the big street cars, filled with delegates and carrying brass bands, passed over a portion of the city lines before taking the tracks for Manawa, but the majority of the delegates were met by committees and sent directly to the lake.

The unexpectedly chilly weather and the unreasonably stiff and cold wind from the north interfered greatly with the pleasure of the program arranged for at the lake. The principal speech of the afternoon was made by Congressman Walter I. Smith, who is a member of the order. Base ball games between teams from Shenandoah, Missouri Valley and several other towns were features of the afternoon sports. The teams played for a $5 purse.

There are 324 members in the Council Bluffs lodges and all of the arrangements for taking care of the visitors devolved upon them. At the conclusion of the amusement program the business sessions were held, continuing the work into the evening, although it was completed in time to permit the majority of the delegates to return to their homes on the late evening trains. Among the state officers here were Mrs. Ella A. Branson of Shenandoah, grand chief of the Degree of Honor of the state, E. B. Evans of Des Moines, master workman for the state of Iowa; B. F. Rahlkopf of Des Moines, grand recorder for the order in Iowa, and Dr. Murray Wildman of Fort Dodge, state medical examiner and Grand Foreman T. G. Harper of Burlington.

Coal Prices Soar; One Dollar Higher For Schools' Use

Board of Education Opens Bids and Finds Additional Sum Must Be Paid for Fuel.

The school board held a special meeting last evening in the office of President Tinsley, largely for the purpose of receiving the coal bids for the season's fuel supply. There was an unusually large number of bids from local dealers and one from outside. All of the offers submitted ranged from 75 cents to $1 per ton higher than a year ago, and the bidders submitted figures that were very close together.

Indians Gather For Convention

Over Two Thousand Will Attend Annual Religious Gathering of Episcopal Church.

MITCHELL, S. D., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Over 2,000 Indians from the reservations at Sisseton, Standing Rock, Cheyenne, Crow, Rosebud, Lower Brule, Big Creek and other reservations gathered at Mitchell, S. D., for the annual religious gathering of the Episcopal church, over which Bishop Johnson will preside. One of the sad features will be the absence of Bishop Hare, who has been meeting with the Indians in their annual convocations for the past three years, and it is probable that a ceremony will be held in memory of the deceased bishop, who was loved and esteemed very highly by the Indians. The session begins Friday morning and will last until Monday.

Engle Divorce Case Appealed

NEWTON, Ia., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—The Engle divorce case, perhaps the most sensational central Iowa has ever known, was today appealed to the supreme court. Because of the prominence of Dr. and Mrs. Engle, the case, when it was tried in the lower court a short time ago, attracted wide publicity. Dr. Engle was formerly state senator from this county. His wife, Mrs. Mary Engle, was a rich widow before Dr. Engle married her. She brought suit for alleged unfaithfulness. Dr. Engle countered with a petition charging cruel and inhuman treatment. The court denied both petitions and now Mrs. Engle has appealed.

CARNIVAL RIVALS VENICE

Hundred and Half Water Craft Please Big Crowd.

FIVE THOUSAND SPECTATORS

George Aulabaugh's Plan of Making Venetian Carnival Real Thing is Very Popular with All Concerned.

The Venetian carnival given last evening at the Rod and Gun club surpassed in effectiveness all previous water pageants produced on Carter lake and furnished a most beautiful aquatic display for more than 5,000 spectators who lined the banks and docks and applauded enthusiastically. The night, with its decorated, brightly lit boats, was ideal for the fete; not a breath of air stirred and the absence of moonlight provided a perfect background for the display.

Skimming about, darning here, there and yonder through the darkness, circling and cutting all kinds of capers in the black waters were dozens of crafts decorated with Japanese lanterns and festooned with colored paper.

A most picturesque scene it was as the canoes and boats in their gala attire, manned by its two and three and the soft dul colors of the lights danced and flitted as they were reflected in the water. A short distance from the shore was anchored a pivot boat decorated with willows and moss and draped with the national colors. Many colored lanterns hung from every available place about it and red torches glared from the ends. Thirty of the clubmen decked as Venetian fair ones reclined in the cozy nooks, lending an air of the far-away east to the scene, while Italian songs and solists drifted across the water in clear and resonant tones. The Union Pacific band, also stationed on the boat played many numbers and the rich tones floating over the lake, now soft and low, now loud and clamorous, stirred the crowd into marked appreciation.

One Hundred and Forty Craft. There were in all sixty-five row boats, thirty canoes, twenty-five motor boats and seven sail boats on the water, circling about the barge and passing before the spectators. The canoes, lying low and snug in the water and beautifully gotten up, moved slowly and noiselessly about, while the sail boats, lined side by side, formed an excellent background for the scene, with their riggings, which extended high in the air, lined with lanterns. The motor boats, which were especially tastefully gotten up, cut through the water speeding about over the lake and encircling the pivot boat.

With the water reflecting the iridescent colors, the lights from the shore and the boats, the little fleet of phantom ships fairly pierced the darkness with their illuminated outlines. The air was filled with the glare of red torches from the far side of the lake, and the display of fireworks from the shore and merry bombardment of roman candles from the boats, all comprised a magnificent and unusual spectacle. The grounds of the Rod and Gun club were illumined with strings of colored electric lights, while the cottages, which line the banks were festooned with dozens of Japanese lanterns. The whole place took on a gala air.

The fete, which is an annual affair, occurring the last Thursday in August of each year, was different from the pageants of the past. The change was the idea of George Aulabaugh, who conceived the plan of giving a Venetian carnival similar to those given in Venice. The committee which consisted of M. Loftis, J. W. Gilmore, Geo. Aulabaugh, A. G. Knight, Gus Windham and D. H. Christie, have for some weeks been engaged in making preparations for the celebration, and the results of their work was plainly visible last evening. The club members and outsiders to whom cordial invitations were extended all were highly pleased with the new arrangement.

Prizes Are Rewarded. Prizes for the most beautifully decorated craft were awarded as follows: Sailboats: First prize, $5, to the Hamilton and Gibbons owners; second prize, $3, to Crew, Campbell owner; honorable mention, Chalmers, the surgeons. Motor boats: First prize, $5, to Pickett, Young and Bloom owners; second prize, $3, to E. W. Guernsey, honorable mention, Tognay, Vancouver owner. Canoes: First prize, $3, Baby Blue, George Aulabaugh owner; second prize, $2, to Bertend owner; honorable mention, Silver King, Ruffner owner. The cottages of Joseph Hughes and R. N. Burdick were chosen as the most tastefully decorated.

Following the fete a dance was given in the club pavilion and a great number of dancers took part. The band of twenty pieces played excellent selections and the evening was suitable for dancing purposes.

Indians Gather For Convention

Over Two Thousand Will Attend Annual Religious Gathering of Episcopal Church.

MITCHELL, S. D., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Over 2,000 Indians from the reservations at Sisseton, Standing Rock, Cheyenne, Crow, Rosebud, Lower Brule, Big Creek and other reservations gathered at Mitchell, S. D., for the annual religious gathering of the Episcopal church, over which Bishop Johnson will preside. One of the sad features will be the absence of Bishop Hare, who has been meeting with the Indians in their annual convocations for the past three years, and it is probable that a ceremony will be held in memory of the deceased bishop, who was loved and esteemed very highly by the Indians. The session begins Friday morning and will last until Monday.
