

FOR BRIDES AND DEBUTANTES

Society Realizes that the Fall Season is Near at Hand.

NEW FACES WILL BE SEEN

Considerable Interest Attaches to the Large Number of Young Women to Be Presented at Society This Season.

In Due Season. For touring in summer, though many a summer, I never put hands to the wheel, and this is the reason: I like things in season. And mine is an autumn-thing. —By F. Maxon in Lippitt's.

Social Calendar. MONDAY—Ladies luncheon at Country club; children's dance at Field club; Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kennedy, theater party. TUESDAY—Ladies day at Field club and Happy Hollow; dinner-dance at Happy Hollow. WEDNESDAY—Ladies day at Country club; midweek dancing party at Field club; Mrs. E. W. W. W. club at 104 and 4th club. THURSDAY—Ladies day at Happy Hollow and Field club; dancing party at Field club and Gun club; Mrs. Frank Roberts, afternoon for Miss Carolyn Conklin; B. M. club, Miss May Ross. FRIDAY—Omnibus dinner-dance at Happy Hollow; Mrs. Frank Roberts, afternoon for Miss Carolyn Conklin. SATURDAY—Pi Beta Phi luncheon at home of Mrs. Bryce Crawford for Miss Margaret Phillips; Mrs. East Landon, afternoon for Miss Conklin; week-end dinner-dance at Happy Hollow, Country and Field clubs; dancing party at 104 and Gun club.

Trustworthy prophets declare that autumn is coming. Asked to give their reasons for this belief they assume a judicial air and declare that they find it in the charts of the temperature for the last few days and—in this what cheerfully interests the feminine world—in the society notes; the charts show that a touch of autumn chill has given warning to the wise; the society notes announce numerous wedding engagements, and this, like the weather chart, is a sure sign of the approach of October. The engagement announcements this fall have been exceptionally numerous and interesting. The dates for the weddings have, for the most part, not yet been definitely announced, are only anticipated. The events for the autumn brides, however, have begun and furnish a large part of the social activity. Sharing with the brides the anticipatory interest of society, are the debutantes. Again, this fall promises special interest in the personality of young women who will be formally launched upon their social careers. Some of those for whom plans are already being made, though the date of the debut is still indefinite, are Miss Nannie Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Page, who finished school in New York at Miss Spencer's school a year ago and last winter took a post graduate course in music and languages; Miss Louise Dinning, who attended Notre Dame in Indiana last year, and Miss Dorothy Stevens, who spent the year in New York attending Miss Sample's school; Miss Elizabeth Pickens, who was graduated at Mrs. Somers' school in Washington, D. C., in June. Another graduate of this school was Miss Helen Cudahy, but she will probably continue her studies another year. Miss Mildred Rogers, who attended Ogontz school, spent last season in Europe with her mother, Mrs. Warren Rogers, and will be one of the season's debutantes this year.

The return of the Omahans who have found comfort this summer at the lakes, mountains or across the sea, is giving impetus to the entertaining at home, both because the returning voyagers bring with them refreshing enthusiasm and because those who remained at home enjoy making opportunities to hear all about the jaunts.

With the opening of the second vaudeville theater society's thoughts turn theaterward and plans for this week include not only attendance upon the opening night—for many society people were unable to secure reservations for the opening date—throughout the week every night will be "society night." The opening of the season for the stock company means moreover a revival of the matinee habit.

At the Clubs

At the Country Club. At the Country club last evening, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee McShane entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Mearse, Mr. and Mrs. E. Edna Jensen, whose marriage to Henry Raabeke will take place Wednesday evening, September 7. There were thirty guests present. Mrs. Jerome Mearse was hostess at an informal bridge party Saturday at her home on South Thirty-eighth avenue in honor of Miss Ruth Burley of Chicago, guest of Mrs. John L. Kennedy. Three tables of players were present. Miss Alice Cary McGrew was hostess Friday afternoon of the meeting of one of the bridge clubs whose members include the debutantes of last year. The guests of the club were Miss Nannie Page, Miss Carolyn Barkalow and Miss Myra Breckenridge.

Mr. W. S. Wright and Miss Ada Wright entertained at dinner Thursday evening at their home on West Dodge street in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lawton of St. Louis, formerly of Omaha. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lawton, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter L. Thomas, Miss Marion Brown, Miss Ada Wright, Miss Dorothy Wright and Mr. W. S. Wright.

An interesting musicale was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Benjamin S. Baker in honor of her house guest, Mrs. William C. Burleson of Webster City, Ia. The program was given by Mrs. A. I. Root, contralto, and Mrs. Margaret Crumpecker of La Porte, Ind., reader. Twenty guests were present. Mrs. Baker plans to entertain at several informal musicales at her new home during the coming season.

Some thirty members of the Sigma Nu fraternity were present last night at the first annual banquet of the Omaha Alumni chapter of the fraternity, held at the Home hotel. The banquet hall and table were profusely decorated in the fraternity colors black and white and gold, and the fraternity flower, the white rose, was prominent in the decorations. After the banquet had been served, a number of impromptu toasts were given. Dr. R. S. Hart acting as toastmaster. Among the most interesting of these was a talk by R. D. Rutherford, who graduated from Virginia Military Institute in 1870, and was a member of Alpha chapter of the fraternity at that school. Those who were present included both alumni and student members of the fraternity and men were present from ten chapters. The guests included: Messrs. R. D. Rutherford, J. Dow Sandham, Dr. R. S. For the Future

A theater party will be given Monday evening at the opening of the new American Music Hall by Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kennedy, complimentary to their house guest, Miss Ruth Burley. The invited guests are Miss Ruth Burley, Miss Ruth Hammer, Mr. Hal Yates, Mr. George Pritchett and Mr. Harold Pritchett.

Wedding Bells

Mrs. M. Remillard announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Adeline, to Mr. Dennis C. Latham. The wedding will take place the latter part of September. Mr. and Mrs. John Mach announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edith Mach, to William O. Harrison. The wedding will take place early in September. The wedding of Miss Edna Jensen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Jensen, to Mr. Henry G. Haaspe, will be celebrated Tuesday evening, September 5, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 437 Douglas street. The wedding will be a quiet one, and only the immediate relatives will be present. The marriage of Dr. Edwin Norris Robertson and Miss Min Ben Sawhill of Concordia, Kan., will occur September 6, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Sawhill, at Concordia. Dr. Robertson graduated from the University of Nebraska and the Omaha Medical college, later having a post graduate course in surgery in New York City, and has been practicing medicine in Concordia for two years. The wedding of Miss Margaret Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Phillips, to Mr. Frank Wilkins, will take place at in Canada and a fishing trip to the Thousand Islands. Dr. and Mrs. Harold Gifford, Miss Anna Gifford and Mr. Sandford Gifford are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Millard at Scott St. Marie. Mrs. Roy Douglas and children, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Moorhead, left Thursday for their home in Pittsburg. Mrs. M. C. Peters left Friday for an eastern trip which is to include a tour of the Great Lakes and a trip up the St. Lawrence. Mrs. Joel W. West and daughter, Miss Alice West, who have been spending the winter and summer at Los Angeles, Cal., and paid her ardent and constant attention while she was waiting for her case to come to trial. The divorce colony laughingly to Mrs. McKim, and it was thought that both might be married as soon as the decree was granted. Mrs. McKim will doubtless make an attempt to regain her old position in society. She is still very young and her beauty has been the occasion for remark wherever she has been. Alfred G. Vanderbilt was reported to be very attentive to Mrs. McKim.

Personal Gossip from Gotham

Mr. Smith Hollis McKim Expected Back from Tokio to Resume Her Social Conquests in Spite of Her Reno Divorce—Millionaire Work Takes Back the Daughter Who Has Had Much Matrimonial Experience. BY MARGARET WATTS DEPEYSTER. NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(Special to The Bee.)—Mrs. Smith Hollis McKim, former leader of the younger Newport set, who secured a divorce recently, is on her way to Japan and it is believed, her return to New York will be signalled by the announcement of her engagement to a member of a rich Nevada mining family. The same is a secret, but the rich young man followed Mrs. McKim to Reno where she resided long enough to get her divorce. He engaged a cotillion near that occupied by her, and paid her ardent and constant attention while she was waiting for her case to come to trial. The divorce colony laughingly to Mrs. McKim, and it was thought that both might be married as soon as the decree was granted. Mrs. McKim will doubtless make an attempt to regain her old position in society. She is still very young and her beauty has been the occasion for remark wherever she has been. Alfred G. Narragansett Pier has been passing from one scandal to another. Gambling and illegal liquor selling together with a reform instigated by the governor of Rhode Island is bringing the fashionable resort to virgin purity—perhaps. Mrs. John H. Hannan of New York and Newport, who was caught playing roulette with a crowd of men in the first gambling raid, says she will never again return to the game. Mrs. Hannan was unfortunate because her name had been known. Other wealthy and fashionable women were luckily enough to keep their identity hidden. Although the pier is a "no license" town, liquor of every kind is sold openly at the Casino. Governor Pothier is determined to reform the place.

staff, all the members of which are strangers in Washington. The diplomatic list has a different appearance with the Carbo, formerly accredited to Ecuador, absent. The former minister and Mme. Carbo have three beautiful and interesting daughters, all of whom were presented to society during the last three seasons, and their two sons were first and second secretaries of the legation. They will continue their residence in Washington this season. The interesting Gude girls, daughters of the late minister from Norway, and Mme. Gude, widow of the minister, will be greatly missed. They are again in their own country, and Mr. Gude's successor has been appointed in Mr. H. H. Bryn, who was counselor of the Norwegian legation in Paris. He has not arrived here. Frank Hitchcock, Leading Member of the Dancing Cabinet, to Be a Shining Light in the Affairs of Capital Smartness—Many Changes in the Diplomatic Corps for the Season—Interesting Bride from Russia. BY CONSTANCE CARRUTHERS. WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(Special to The Bee.)—Postmaster General Frank Hitchcock, who is a member of President Taft's "dancing cabinet," and who denies that he is wed Mrs. Jacob Sticney, is going to be one of the leading social figures in several important ways during the coming season. Mr. Hitchcock is not going to retire from President Taft's cabinet and I learn that he is making arrangements for an aggressive social campaign. Mr. Hitchcock is a very aggressive man. The manner in which he gained political recognition indicated that he will shine brightly in society. The London rumor that Mr. Hitchcock and Mrs. Sticney were to marry was denied by the former, although Mrs. Sticney has had no word to say about it. Mrs. Sticney, when in America, lives at Bretton Woods, N. H. She is very wealthy and her real estate holdings alone total $15,000,000. She is now abroad. When the postmaster general was in London he was very attentive to Mrs. Sticney. She is taking the cure at Bad Kissingen and will shortly return to this country. Every September she entertains a great number of guests at her New Hampshire home. thrown open for the reception of his daughter, Mrs. Francis Burke-Roche, the divorced wife of Aural Batony, the society whirl. Lacking but nine years of the century mark, and desiring to have his daughter and her children with him, the millionaire banker, reportedly, threw open the doors and announced that they would be welcome. When his daughter married Batony, the aged banker declared that he would have nothing to do with her further. He kept his vow, but after she secured the divorce he desired that she return to him. Since their separation he had been living alone, except for a man and woman servant, Maurice and Francis, the twin sons of Mrs. Batony, in a fashionable boarding house in Newport. Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs purchased 1,500 packages of cigarettes, which she donated among the sailors of the North Atlantic battleship fleet while it was at Newport last week. The Newport cottagers subscribed $10,000 which was used to entertain the officers of the fleet. The sailors on shore leave looked with astonishment upon the splendid places in the resort and the splendid cottages. Mrs. Adolph Ladenburg has become a polo player. The other day she appeared at a Casino in Newport with a bruised cheek and a black eye. She had been playing a vigorous game with several of the club players when her horse bolted and threw her. Aside from the facial disfigurement she was not injured. Mrs. Alva Willing Astor, divorced wife of John Jacob Astor, took forty trunks with her to Newport, not to mention numerous boxes and crates and bundles. Apparently she came to America for an exceedingly long stay, although her friends say she will return to England in the autumn.

Whew, How I Hate Heat! Say Mr. and Mrs. Fat. Is it any wonder that the fat people hate hot weather? If your heart and lungs are overworked, you will be bound around with layer after layer of false flesh that gave out a terrible, unnatural heat and that interfered with their normal functions. You will understand the operation of fat people to hot weather. There is absolutely no reason for fat people's staying fat in this age of triumph. We do not advise drugging yourself, dieting, or exercising yourself to death, but there is a method that has been proven successful. It is the famous Marmola tablets which do the work of removing fat exactly like nature intends it should be done. They stop the digestive organs from producing fat. They break up the fat as it lies around the body and remove it at the rate of from 12 to 15 ounces a day. These little tablets are made from the great Marmola prescription and compressed into hard tablets by tremendous power. You may carry one in your pocket and always eat a meal in peace of mind, for your heart and lungs will get you the best results from such a meal. These tablets contain nothing but Marmola, Casarea Aromatic and Peppermint Water, but they do their work so pleasantly, harmlessly, and so fast that you will be surprised they are sold by every druggist, price 75 cts. per case, or if you prefer, $33 Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich. pany. —Adv.

The Little Man Should Be Well Dressed Too. You can't blame the neighbors for accusing the slovenly dressed boy of most of the mischievous pranks. And people will talk, you know, if mother goes to the matinee in a new gown while son Jack comes from school with ripped trousers and shabby coat. Of course your intentions are good. You doubtless spend enough to have the boy look well dressed. But active healthy youngsters are bound to be hard on clothes, and the ordinary kind are not made to stand the racket. Perfection Clothes, first of all, have the quality that makes the foundation for lasting looks. They are cut from choice patterns. Sewed by skilled workers. Made in a factory devoted to nothing but boys' and young men's clothing. And, then, more important still, PERFECTION CLOTHES are stayed and double stayed at every strain point. Have stout canvas interlining. Buttonholes have ingenious supports. Buttons are trebly sewed. And nothing but pure linen thread everywhere. Say "PERFECTION" the next suit you buy.
