

FIELD MASS AT RALSTON

German Landwehr Verein to Hold Three Days' Celebration Here.

OLD SOLDIERS FROM ALL OVER

Veterans of the German Army to Hold Their Annual Session in Omaha

Bishop Scannell has granted permission for the celebration of a giant "field mass" in the open air at Ralston during the time of the grand meeting in Omaha for three days of the Landwehr Verein.

A large temporary altar is being erected at Ralston, where the mass will be held at 10:30 Sunday morning, with Father Sime as celebrant. A male chorus will render the music, the singers being from the choir of St. Joseph and St. Mary Magdalene churches.

Old soldiers of the German empire will hold a three days' meeting in Omaha, with headquarters at Washington hall and the out-door part of the celebration at Ralston. The veterans will begin to arrive Saturday, when the session opens and continues Sunday and Monday.

The Nebraska organization is composed of twenty-four different companies of the Landwehr Verein, and it is expected the meeting will have 5,000 people in Omaha for Sunday and Monday. Large delegations will come from York, Grand Island, Papillion, Millard, North Bend, Columbus, Humphrey, Dodge, and some from Iowa and Kansas towns.

Big Boosters Are Lining Up

More Heads of the Leading Business Houses Will Make the Trip.

On the trip scheduled for October 25 to 28 by the Commercial club trade excursion committee many of the heads of Omaha houses will be in evidence.

It is the fixed determination of the committee to make this trip through northeastern Nebraska a record-breaker in the matter of representation.

Freight bills have just reached the Commercial club for the first consignment of bells to be distributed on the October excursion. When all the bells are on the train ready for the trip there will be two tons of them.

Three hustling representatives of the Omaha Commercial club are now under consideration to put the club in evidence at the great National Conservation congress to be held in St. Paul, Minn., September 5 to 8, inclusive.

OMAHA DELEGATES TO THE CONSERVATION CONGRESS

Commercial Club and the City Will Send Some Hustling Representatives.

BIG CEREMONY TO ATTEND SYNAGOGUE DEDICATION

Cornerstone of New Beth Hamadiah Hagodol Synagogue Sunday Afternoon.

Invitations have just been issued for the ceremony of cornerstone laying of the Beth Hamadiah Hagodol synagogue at Nineteenth and Burt streets Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

BURGLAR ROBS NEIGHBORHOOD

By Looting a Tailor Shop Thief Returns Misfortune to Many Casual Dressers on West Side.

A number of persons living in the neighborhood of 2117 Leavenworth street are lamenting the loss of their Sunday trousers, coats and other articles of wearing apparel, as the result of a burglary at the tailor shop of that address Wednesday night.
