VOL. XL—No. 12.

OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 4, 1910.

SINGLE COPY FIVE CENTS

Bennett's New Stocks Answer "Ready" to Every Requirement for the Fall and Winter

Black Petticoats --- New Ideas

New style innovations in the fall lines. Newer tallored effects, rich, silky, mercerized garments and so cheaply priced Righ Grade Fetticoats—Three styles of flounces, tucked and shirred, with dust ruffles, special $1.00

Black Petticoats—Of brilliam fabric, cut very full flounce of self strapping and hemstitched ruffles, at $1.25

Feathersik Petticoats—Extremely light and silky, with 18-inch shirred and tucked flounce, for $1.75

Heatherbloom Petticoats—Elisborate circular shaped flounces, some with tailor straps and hemstitching, superb styles, really great values at

Newest Corsets for Fall $1.25

The styles of the hour, Corsets designed to heighten the figure effect on newest and most fashionable lines. Its a large quantity of fine $2.00 garments-two styles.

Durable Coutil Corsets with an extra long skirt over hips and medium bust with shirring string. Another model is of batiste in medium high bust and medium long hip for average figures. Both lines are richly trimmed with lace or embroidery and have full hose

Newest Silks and Dress Goods Adorn the Bennett Counters

ious autumnal hoes, in the old time Palsley or shawl patterns. They are distinctly new this season and are worn for waists, for whole costumes or in combination with plain messalines in harmonizing colors Their rich color combinations are the admiration of all. They have a soft finish, and a beautiful glace surface that wins one's instant favor. See them tomorrow—the yard—

Plain Weave and Panama Serges, Etc.—Also self color stripe fabries, in all prevailing shades: 44-inch to 54-inch goods, at. yd. $1.00

Greatest Values in Domestic Goods

	4 00000
Timely h	ousehold nead	ls at
Bleached Table D
$1.15 values	inch; 8	39c
Cream Table Dam finish, 68 inch, at.	ask, heavy nat 50c values   6	ural Napkins, all linen size, $1.25 qualitat.
Bed Spreads, ft	ill size, hem	med
Marseilles patter	ns. $1.75 @1	.35
kind
Blankets, heavy gr	rey, tan, and w	hite,
11-4 size, worth	$1.25, for (	180
DRIT.		JOL

t	actual savings for Monday.
Ü
ĺ	Sheets, full bed sizes, heavy, durable
	75c values 50e
0
1	E SELECT CONTROL SECURIOR AND
	muslin, worth 24c for 1	Pillows, all feathers, 5 pounds to
1	pair, regularly $1.50 a 50c
	erings: 72x78 in., $1.59 $1.25
,	kinds at

Pure Thread Silk Hosiery at $1.50

The well known McCallum quality thread silk goods, double slik top and lisle sole; in white, black, sky, pink, gray, canary, brown, tan, champagne, green, navy, etc.—extra fine values to-morrow, $1.50.

SILE HOSIERY-With lists top and sole; black, white, sky and 89c canary, $1.25 values, at ......

Something New in Coat Sets Striking novelties for fall, satin collar and cuff, with Persian piping and white knife pleated lawn and lace ruffle edge; shown in red, blue, green and

Pays to Order Your Winter Coal Now

The strike situation at the coal mines may send prices up any day. A coal famine is not at all unlikely. It's wise to place orders now. We have today ample supplies for all immediate business old prices. Let us have your order now. We make careful deliveries, guarantee accurate weights and the best kind of treatment,

Best Illinois Coal, lump or $7.00

Silver Springs Coal, Weston, $7.00

for to Rock Springs, ton... $8.50

Scranton Anthracite, high-est grade mined, per ton. $10.50

Introducing Tomorrow the Smartest New Modes for 1910 in Women's Tailored Suits for Fall

> Bennett's are again right in the forefront with the broadest array of new models, typifying the advanced ideas

> We have avoided the extremes and the freaks-they are short-lived. But you'll find plenty of the inconspicnous, practical styles which bespeak quiet refinement so dear to the average woman.

Every foreign note is reflected but modified to meet the wishes of American femininity.

Then, again, Bennett prices are fair and reasonable as always. Just to illustrate:

At $35 We show half a dozen superb suit models, in heavy diagonal serges and broadcloths. Some have straight pleated skirts, others have the modified hobble effect with broad self band at head of flounce. A number are richly trimmed with heavy wide silk Hercules braids. The coats are the nobby 32-inch lengths.

Lymanville worsteds suits, in navy, brown and At $29.50 black, lined throughout with Susquehanna satin; velvet collar and button trimmed 32-inch coats. The skirts have cluster pleats at sides or front panel, also a big line of gray worsteds, full tailored.

Black Herringbone, unfinished worsted suits, At $25.00 lined with Skinner satin, made with slik flounce and slot pleats, skirt has plain panel front and inverted pleat back. New 30-inch coat.

Striped worsteds and Venetian suits in solid col-At $15.00 ors, gray, navy, black, brown—32-inch satin lined coats. The skirts have a flounce with inverted pleats, giving just a suggestion of the hobble idea. Exception-be resumed tomorrow. Saturday nights we close at 10 o'clock as usual. The regular 6 o'clock closing hour will,

WE HAVE JUST OPENED OUR NEW ARRIVALS Perfect Biue White DIAMONDS

Bennett's have one of the finest Dia-mond displays in Omaha. They are guaranteed perfect gems, very bril-liant and sparkling. Diamond experts in the department give special attention to those in-terested.

We give written guarantees with each stone; also guarantee to re-fund in cash within 10 per cent of purchase price, or to allow full val-ue when applied on a purchase of a

Monday Bargains on the China Floor

White and Gold Ewer and Basin, very heavily gold trimmed, regularly $2.50, at, per set ..... $1.50 FRUIT JARS AND SUPPLIES, for ECONOMY JARS, with large open-

FRUIT JAR EUBBERS, 2 dozen 50.

$3.50, $4, $4.50, $5

FREE SPENDERS RAISE PRICES

Conditions as Now Found in Europe.

of Americans.

WASTE WOULD FEED OUR POOR

Sessions of International Laws Association Most Interesting.

FEASTING HAD IMPORTANT PLACE

Line of Gossipy Notes Concerning People and Places, with Wise Observations on Scenes, Customs and Incidents.

the Editor of The Bee: It is difficult to turn, even for a short time, from the curative processes and enjoyable delights of this astonishing place, to perform a promised duty, but I recall my pledge to you ple hall, given by the Honorable society of a notable occasion. its twenty-sixth conference the first week in August. The meetings of this great body, composed of leading jurists of all the civilized powers, have been held every two years and it has accomplished much good, looking especially to peace among the nations and the settlement of all controversies by an Buffalo, the year that I was president of the American Bar association, and the two conventions of the international and American bodies made a very interesting occasion. I then promised the president of the international that when it held its next meeting in England I would attend and self-imposing duty to the desire for improved health and restored vigor, I came August 1, the first day of the conference.

at Denver. On arrival at Plymouth, acpanied by Mr. Baldrige, we took train and unique dishes.

tive caravansery, the Hotel Savoy, where we spent a week, leaving there for this with rheumatism, gout and kindred discars both in England and on the continent over what I found there a few years ago. greater than with us. This is my fourth OF EVERYTHING BOOSTED it is worthy of observation that the cost of everything good, whether to eat, to wear, or to enjoy is greatly increased. I Most Apparent Cause is Extravagance think one fertile cause for this is the money spending proclivity of the spend-thrift American. He fills the best hotels, frequents the best shops and with wife and > oor, and without its expenditure here the old countries would be impoverished. the mastery. The English long ago form.

said to possess souls. law Reid, given by his excellency the United abroad, sailing on the Hambury-American the association, for in the evening a ban- and many other notables. I give these to ship Cleveland and reaching London, quet was given at the famous Guild Hall show the standing that the profession has On the good ship, as pleasant traveling The toas:master was the lord mayor, who to make the conference one to cherish. was an interested and important member of president being Lord Alverstone, who is more than a passing reference.

alleged cure-all for whoseever is afflicted own, and most adults of the better class prepared and debated were, "Internationa languages. On the continent you meet Voyage," forcibly to me today when I talked here in time Contracts," General Average," General Charles F. Manderson on but the sleeping cars are an abomination Calabad with the president of the Credit bility of Ships in Foreign Ports on Claims compared with our Pullman cars and the Alstadt, a bank on which is my letter for Personal Injury," "Jurisdiction in cost of travel, first-class, both for passage of credit. He spoke English with perfect Divorce." "Criminal Procedure," "Rules of and sleeping accommodations, is much fluency, and was able to talk in twelve the Road on Land," "Bills of Exchange," trip to Europe in the last thirty years and business, for all nations seem to come ments" and others of less general import during the season to Carlsbad. Another matter that is of interest to Americans is the extended use of mait and vinous liquors at table. Spirituous liquors are little used, and the cocktail is a beverage unknown. At all these luncheons children galore constitutes Europe's best found at every plate, and during the meal and dinners six to eight glasses would be crop. The money so lavishly spent by our everyone would be filled and usually ountrymen would feed and clothe all our emptied. There was no evidence of intoxication at any of these functions, and, indeed, I have not seen a drunken person on The session of the International Law as- this trip. True, I did not visit the lower sociation was most interesting and instruc- parts of London, as in former years, when tive, and the rivalry between the food for I saw many drunken men and women. If the brain and the viands for the body with us we could abolish spirits and subwas interesting to see, and one was stitute good vinous and malt liquors it tempted to enter both lists and compete would accomplish a great temperance re-learned the lesson that the way to man's Friday was the last day of the conferbrain was through his stomach. So let me ence, and after the adjournment of the constart right with you and tell you first of ference there was a garden and house party the feasts before we experienced the fasts at beautiful Cam House, given by the CARLSBAD, Austria, Aug. 15, 1910 .- To incident to the flow of soul-if those of us honorary president, Lord Alverstone; the who are of the legal profession can be president, Lord Justice Kennedy, and Sir Phillimore, ex-president. The house and Monday, August 1, started the gastro-grounds were beautiful, and with the large that I would write and tell your readers the Middle temple. Tuesday morning a re- I have thus given the social functions. especially of the meeting in London of the ception by the Lady Mayoriss to the ladies believing they would be of interest to your International Law association, which held who accompanied their husbands or fathers readers generally as showing the position men's luncheon by the Honorable Society and before taking up the matters incident of Gray's Inn. Then, after the afternoon to the business meetings, will simply add session, a garden party in Gray's Inn that the reception committee was comgarden, followed in the evening by a dinner for men by the Law Society of Chan- men of Great Britain, among them the its hall, given by the Honorable Society of House of Commons, the lord mayors of Courtney, Swaythling, Govell and Daven-States ambagsador. This was a magnificent of Commerce, the president of the Instiaffair and largely attended by prominent tute of the Bankers, the chairman of the calling. English people. The American who follows Chamber of Shipping of Great Britain, pro-Mr. Reid as our representative at the fessors of Oxford and Cambridge, the secre-English court will have a sorry time of it tary of Lloyds, the principal of the Uniparticipate in its functions. Joining this unless he is a multi-millionaire with lavish versity of London, the legal advisors of the foreign office and of the Indian office, the Thursday was the great social day for chairman of the London common council by the Corporation of the City of London. in Great Britain and how much was done for London, going to the great and attrac- That which strikes the American most that which is simply rhetorical or oratorical, who is to produce him in court next week.

forcibly is the knowledge possessed by but gives instead convincing argument. Europeans of languages other than their The matters treated in papers carefully understand and speak the three main Arbitration," "The Doctrine of Continuou "Workman's Compensation," many polygiots, and the fact was called "Limits of State Interference With Marilanguages and used them all here in his "Stock Exchange Law," "Foreign Judgance. The proceedings, when published, will be a most valuable contribution to the law governing all the civilized nations of the earth. Of course, I could not escape participa tion in some of the speech making at the different functions, and I declined whenever it was possible, but at the banquet given by the Honorable Society of Lincoin's Inn, in their ancient hall, I found my name on the printed program to propose a toast to Lincoln's Inn. I was relieved somewhat to have the toastmaster give quite a history of this ancient-of-days, and when I spoke I first made general reference to the mother country, from which we derive our common law, of the respect borne by all Americans for the English bar and jurists and said that the name of Lincoln's Inn was dear to every citizen of the great republic, because it was the name of our chiefest citizen, who rising from the lowest strata reached the highest, became a renowned lawyer, winning fame for integrity and ability, led his fellows in the political field, was the president of the United States during the severe nomic ball by a dinner in the Middle Tem- attendance of distinguished people, it was won distinction that made him world re- signal for various hospitalities at the castle and strengous years of the great war and of the late monarch, and this will be the nowned and caused the name of Lincoln to in the course of which King George will be one of the greatest in the world's his assemble around him a succession of guests, tory. The allusions to Abraham Lincoln drawn partly from the diplomatic and ofto the conference was followed by a gentle- occupied in England by the legal profession, and the applause given to his honored friends. Shooting will proceed in the Cranseemed to please the large number present ficial classes, and partly from his intimate name was exceedingly gratifying to every American present. Men of all nations held evening relaxations in the private drawing him in high esteem, but in no foreign coun- room, but no presentations of stage plays. try is he held higher than in England. I These cycles of guests, in fact, will take would fain tell of many other interesting place of those which at the same season cery Lane. Wednesday, dinner for men in lord mayor of London, the speaker of the incidents of this gathering of the world's King Edward was accustomed to command the settlement of all controversies by all its hall, given by the Honorable Society of international court of arbitration. During its existence it has held two conferences in the United States. One was held at 10 me was held at 10 me was held at 10 me with the united States of the specific of the spec lawyers, but time and space forbid. I left to Sandringham in the early weeks of Nothose who practice law. May every lawyer, preference for daylight traveling. Queen realizing and appreciating that power, so bear himself as to be a credit to his night so that there were portions of her CHARLES F. MANDERSON.

NOT PUNISH BANKER

St. Louis Man Wanted as Witness in New York Remanded to Custody of Counsel.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 1.-Breckencompanions, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. delivered the address of welcome, which And now let me take up briefly a few of ridge Jones, president of the Mississippi Baldrige, who went with me to London, and president of the conference; the honorary time and space will not permit me to give home at Cagenonia on a bench warrant is- was never much between them. lord chief justice of England. There were The inaugural speech and valedictory adness in a telephone suit, was taken before seen on several occasions, but had never most generous one, with many toothsome were models. The educated Englishman punish Mr. Jones for contempt, but dis- morning determined to have another try for Beaton Drug Co. sets the proper pace by not indulging in charged him in the custody of his counsel, this monster before his sister was about.

COURT IS AWAY TO NORTH

London Official Circles Quiet Because of King's Absence.

HALF MOURNING IN NOVEMBER

George Will Revisit Some of the Scenes of His Youth, Among Them a Stream Where He Fished.

BY LADY MANDARING. LONDON, Sept. 3 .- (Special to The Bee.)-

The migration of the court into the north has caused a lull in London officialdom. But it is now possible to form a reliable estimate of the king and queen for the remainder of the present period of mourning. They are likely to stay in the north until the middle of October. There will be some comparatively long motoring excursions into the Grampians, as far as Speyside in gowrie in the other. But there are not to be any visits to shooting-boxes, under the formal conditions which have reigned at Tulchan and elsewhere in recent years The return will be made direct to Windsor. and it is quite expected that their majesties will go into residence at the castle. Half Mourning in November. The court will change into half-mourning a few days before the birth anniversary bourne coverts, and there will be some Victoria did the most of her traveling by domain that she only saw by gas light.

King's Fishing Exploits. When King George and Queen Mary arrived at Baimoral, his majesty had an opportunity to renew his fishing dueis with the princess royal, who is staying with the duke of Fife and her two daughters at Mar Lodge. When the king and his eldest Dickens, and who showed his appreciation to continue their canvass the result of tha slater were younger they were very keen of his junior by overhauling his first litrivals, and both could cast a salmon line with considerable skill. They were in the dearment, called her "Dorrit" and, when strict of the official canvass of Douglas Greene, who went direct to Bad Nauheim was responded to with a capital speech the important subjects upon which papers Valley Trust company. St. Louis, who was habit of having friendly wagers as to whom his pathetic story of the Marshalsea came for medical treatment, and Mr. H. H. by Lord Justice Kennedy, who is the were read and debates had, regretting that brought here yesterday from his summer could catch the heaviest fish, and there to be written, the little friend of his youth sued because he fafled to appear as a wit- There was one huge salmon that both had Just as he approached the reach of the river that the fish usually frequented, he was disgusted to see the present princess WHYHE DID NOTRUN BEITER royal coming towards him with her rod over her shoulder and a ghillie close be his back.

Royal Train is Heavy. It is believed that the special train by which their majesties made the journey to Scotland is the heaviest and longest of GOT RIGHT LINIMENT TOO LATE its kind that has ever left a London ter minus. It was made up of twelve coaches, feels More Kindly Toward His Feltimated weight 375 tons. In additions to two brake vans, the royal special consisted of his majesty's saloon, two new saloons for the use of the Princess Mary and her two attendants and the equerries; a saloon for the royal children; and four saloons for the use of the royal servants and railway officials. Queen Alenandria's saloon was not occupied. The train was drawn by two entirely new engines, the "George " and the "Queen Mary." The new saloon, which is intended for the use of the queen, is similar in general arrangement to that of the king. All the rooms are in white enamel, blue being the one direction, and perhaps down to Blair. predominating color; but the effect is lightened with brocades and a soft shade of pink to tone the electric lights.

God Bless the Duke of Argyll. The duke of Argyll has just celebrated his sixty-fifth birthday. The duke of Argyll is a man of many honors. He holds seventeen peerages, is chief of the Clan Campbell, bears the celtic title of MacCailean Mhor, and is also hereditary master of the royal household in Scotland. His recent book on memoirs has excited much interest. and he is a composer as well as an author having written the score of an opera, "Dairmid." Fond of country life, he shoots and is a good golfer. Not long ago he bought an acre or two of land at Haudelt, near Boulogne, where he intends to build a small i Sweetheart of Dickens. Mrs. Mary Ann Cooper, who is nearing her ninety-seventh year and who is still links the nineteenth and twentieth centur Who, looking at this venerable old lady, would think of imagining that she was Charles Dickens' sweetheart. Yet it is perfectly true.

As a little girl she lived with her parents in Johnson street, Clarendon square. On state canvassing board, went back to Linthe opposite side dwelt the Dickens family, and between the future novelist and little abstract of the Douglas county vote in his Miss Milton, as she was called then, grew pocket. The members of the county canup a great friendship which issted many years, and which might have been cemented by marriage had the fate so willed.

such gained the approval of Miss Milton's This action puts the members decide erary endeavors. Dickens, as a term of enhind her bearing the fish triumphantly on Governor Shallenberger Tells of His Lame Knee.

low Men Since He Has Found the Remedy to Cure His Lameness.

Governor Shallenberger's lameness was noticeably absent when he came to Omaha Friday. The governor wrenched one of his knees severely a month ago while racing his accustomed impetuous way. "I see your lameness is disappearing governor," remarked a member of the Omaha Roosevelt committee.

"Yes, it is," said the governor, as his face straightened out with the memory of past pain and he carefully patted the pet knee. "I've had a horse doctor working on it lately; or, rather, a liniment given me by State Veterinarian Juckiness. His mother had used it for years in fixing up hurts of her children and neighbors, so I tried it. It works splendidly, and I really elieve that if I had gotten this remedy coner I could have made more of a runaway race than the returns indicate. It's good to have the use of that knee again without pain, so I suppose we ought to love one another and be happy. Figures are tiresome, anyway."

Barton Secures Abstract of Vote

comparatively hale and hearty, strangely State Auditor Has Returned to Lincoln, Having Finished His Mission.

State Auditor Barton, member of the coin Saturday morning with a riderless vassing board have removed all strings from their abstract and the state board may now go ahead with the final canvass Certainly there were sweethearts, and as regardless of the recount in Douglas county. recount case now in progress will make no difference either way. They have an abcounty from which the stipulation that it is subject to change by recount has been removed and as far as they are concerned the question is settled for good and all.

Judge Troup will hand down a decision in Mr. Joel T. Vaille and his two daughters many hundred present, and the speeches dress by Lord Justice Kennedy were ad- Judge Benton late yesterday. It was been able to hook, though they had tried and wounds are healed without danger of the suit brought against the canvassing were also on the ship. He is one of the during the evening were made in German, mirable and their terms sentences, ad- learned today that at the conclusion of a many times. Prince George as his present blood poisoning by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, board, tieing up the recount in an injuncleaders of the bar of Colorado, residing French and English. The repast was a mirable diction and forcible utterances lengthy hearing the court decided not to majesty then was rose very early one the healing wonder. He For sale by tion, Tuseday morning. Monday is Labor day and a legal holiday and the courts will all be closed. Tuesday will be a regular The Key to the Situation-Bee Want Ads. day of court. Arguments in the case were finished Saturday afternoon. --- 25 5R <sub>1</sub>