

REVIVAL OF THINGS SOCIAL

With the Opening of September Society Takes On New Life.

FALL FESTIVAL COMES FIRST

Sojourners at Sylvan Lakes and Mountain Resorts Are Fast Returning to Their Home City for a Stay.

Vacation's Over. Alack! It is back to the books! Away from the spray of the brooks. We turn to the lore with troubled and anxious looks. Yes, children dear, I greatly fear the time has near for you to hear in accents clear the words of cheer That call you back to study.

SEPTEMBER BRIDE

MRS. EDWIN MILROY SUNDERLAND - FORMERLY MISS FLORENCE ERFDY

Poppington had eight guests: Miss Miriam Patterson, four; Hal Brady, four; John Redick, six, and E. M. Fairfield, five.

At the Field Club

Many dinner parties were given last evening at the Field club. Colonel and Mrs. J. M. Banister entertained at one of the larger ones, in honor of Colonel Gray, who has arrived to be chief surgeon of the Department of the Missouri, relieving Colonel Banister, who has been retired from the service. Covers were placed for General and Mrs. Frederick Smith, Major and Mrs. Omar Bundy, Captain and Mrs. W. T. Wilder, Dr. and Mrs. Henry B. Lemere, Colonel and Mrs. J. M. Banister, Mrs. Henry Van Giesen, Miss Eva Smith, Miss Harden of Indianapolis, Miss Gertrude McCarthy, Colonel Gray, Captain Christie, Lieutenant Brooks, U. S. N., and Mr. J. M. Banister, Jr.

Miss Nannie Page gave a dinner at the Field club last evening, complimentary to her house guest, Miss Margaret Ellison of Kansas City. Places were laid for Miss Ellison, Miss Mildred Rogers, Miss Nannie Page, Mr. Harry Koch, Mr. George Engler and Mr. Taylor Belcher. Mr. and Mrs. D. J. O'Brien entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Casletter of Blair. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Casletter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur English, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Edinger and Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien. J. E. Megath had six guests, H. R. Redinger, seven; Charles G. McDonald, six; H. O. Steel, four; E. J. Sunderland, six; H. O. Edwards, seven; Henry Kruger, four; W. T. Page, six, and R. R. Huntley, four.

In considering the plans for this early fall season it is important to understand that the plans of the Omaha people hinge to a large extent upon the Ak-Sar-Ben, that is, "after Ak-Sar-Ben" is prevalent way of indicating when society will do this or that.

As an instance the plans for debutantes, receptions, teas, luncheons and dinners all are listed as "after Ak-Sar-Ben." Again fall trips to eastern cities are postponed until "after Ak-Sar-Ben." Bridge clubs, too, are many of them planning not to resume play until after the fall festival.

More immediately Ak-Sar-Ben influences the gown question. Though the invitations to the attendees at the Ak-Sar-Ben will be the middle of this month, gowns for the season's great ball are already receiving attention.

Another significance of the R in September is being vividly illustrated just now by the return of many of the Omahans who have spent the summer at Sylvan, lake or mountain resorts. This week has been most interesting in its illustration of the power of September to call people back from summer haunts.

From some of the summer places the entire Omaha colonies have returned. Balleys, Colo., for instance the following Omahans have returned this week: Mrs. H. B. Lemere and children, Mrs. Fred Rustin and daughters, Mrs. Henry Van Giesen, Mrs. E. H. Howland, Mrs. Joseph Polcar, Mrs. J. H. Butler, Miss Mildred Butler, Mrs. H. G. Kraus and children, Mrs. George Hammer and Miss Ruth Hammer, Mrs. Sherman Pinto and children, Mrs. G. N. Rohrbough, Rt. Rev. Arthur L. Williams and Mrs. Williams have returned from Richard's Landing, Ontario, where they spent the summer. Mrs. Nathan Merriman, who has been visiting in the home of Mrs. W. R. Millard near Richard's Landing, returned yesterday. Mrs. Millard and sons will return September 15. Miss Minnie Silver, Mr. Milton Darling and Mr. Cleo Clayborne are now visiting in the Millard home.

The Omaha people who have been sojourning at Mackinac this summer were recently entertained at a delightful afternoon tea by Mrs. Joseph Cudahy on board the yacht Sea Fox, owned by Mrs. Cudahy's uncle, Mr. Joy Morton of Chicago. The Omaha guests who enjoyed Mrs. Cudahy's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cudahy, Miss Florence and Miss Alice Cudahy, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wattles, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kountze, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Eastman and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Burgess.

Real enthusiasm for the game of tennis or an unconscious expression of the youthful spirit of imitation caused the young friends of the players in the Junior Tennis tournament at the Field club last week to assume all the airs of a "tennis gallery" and display real devotion to the game as played by their friends. On the days when the weather permitted the games were followed with appreciation for the good plays and real enthusiasm for the outcome of the matches. There were luncheon parties, and also the other events similar to those which attended the national meet.

One day of the meet Mrs. Luther Kountze in behalf of her son, Harkness, whose tenth birthday it was, entertained ten of the young tennis devotees at luncheon. As most of the guests were players in the tournament, luncheon itself was just an incident in the excitement of the day.

At the Clubs

At Happy Hollow. Several small dinner parties were given at Happy Hollow last evening. Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. C. George and Mr. and Mrs. George D. Tunnelliff. R. A. Stewart had five guests: Miss Lyon, fourteen; H. H. Culver, four; J. A. McDonald, eleven; Dr. C. W. Pollard, five; C. S. Stebbins, three.

At the Country Club

One of the larger dinner parties Saturday evening at the club was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon W. Wattles in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bidwell of Hollywood, Cal., formerly of Omaha. Covers were placed for eighteen guests. Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Davis gave a dinner party in honor of their guests, Mr. Clark-son Millspaugh of Topeka and Mr. Bartlett of St. Joseph and for the guests of Miss Ruth Hammer, Miss Marion Sonntag and Miss Mary Walker of Evansville, Ind. Eighteen guests were present. Mr. W. S.

Personal Notes from Gotham

Duke Franz Josef of Bavaria is Now the Occasion of Much Fluttering of Feminine Hearts Around Newport—Roller Skating Comes to Stay Among the Really Smart Folks—Morgan Buys Another Bit of Beach.

BY MARGARET WATTS DE PUYSTER. NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—(Special to The Bee.)—Feminine hearts have been fluttering in New York over Newport, over the reported utterance of Duke Franz Josef of Bavaria that his infatuation for American women had grown so since his arrival in this country that he might—be might possibly; you understand—choose an American girl for a bride. Perhaps the duke is over-pressed in the social colony, perhaps they were sold after the corks had been popping merrily and perhaps he didn't say them at all. But he is accredited with saying them and he is too polite to deny anything.

Duke Franz Josef would make an ideal husband for a little hunting girl. He is extremely wealthy and his title is an old and honorable one. He is very young and quite good looking and amiable. The duke has taken a great fancy to Vincent Astor, the son of John Jacob Astor. They have been together much in Astor automobiles, and the duke is always pressed himself in terms of his admiration for the great garage maintained by the Astors.

Roller skating, which started some two years ago at Newport, was thought to be only a passing fad, but apparently it has really come to stay. Monday is now put down on the social calendar of the summer colony as well as the all-around-the-year Newporters as skating day. The training station furnishes the rink and the music and admittance is only by invitation. Captain and Mrs. Hourigan of the navy preside and for the last two weeks everyone seems to have been wheeling. It is the only form of athletics which admits of duffty ruffles as well as severe simplicity in costume. Even hobble skirts are much in evidence, but which naturally are seldom tried more than once. Mrs. Robert Goetz, who is a recent addition to the skating colony, is always simply gowned, as is always Mrs. Drexel, Mrs. Regle Norman and Mrs. Kenneth Castelman, who lead in the beauty show lists of Newport.

The fad seems also solidly established at Narragansett Pier, and in Washington during the winter skating is indulged in every week. J. Pierpont Morgan has purchased 117 acres of ground at Great Head, about six miles from Bar Harbor proper. The tract includes the only sand beach of any proportions on the island of Mount Desert, and has been presented to Mr. Morgan's daughter, Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Satterlee will arrive at Bar Harbor and will go over the property to find the best situation for a villa, which they will build there next year. Mr. Morgan has some over the property. He made the trip in his yacht Corsair.

Western people seem to take it for granted that Mrs. Smith Hollis McKim will marry Ray Baker, the Nevada mining man, upon her return from the orient. Tongues are still wagging in the divorce colony at Reno and in San Francisco. Mr. Baker is the second man whose name has been linked with that of Mrs. Smith Hollis McKim. Gossipers in this city were busy through the spring whispering that Alfred G. Vanderbilt would marry Mrs. McKim when she was legally free.

I have at hand the following interesting report from Reno: "Mr. Baker is the son of the late George W. Baker, an attorney with a wide practice in this state and in California. His brother, Cleve Baker, who married a daughter of Senator Perkins, is at Creighton, Neb. From there she will go to Dallas, R. D., for a visit with her brother, Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reiney and family have returned from a three weeks' visit at Chas., Colo. Mr. L. W. Wakeley and his two sons, Tompison and Morton Wakeley, have returned from Wisconsin with Mr. Arthur Wakeley, the eldest son, who leaves shortly for Cornell college. Mr. and Mrs. J. Ziegler have returned to the city after an extended vacation, and will be at home to their friends on and after Sunday, September 4, at 204 South Thirty-seventh street. Mr. Charles Metz and son, Philip, leave Wednesday for New York where they will spend a few days before going to Massachusetts, where Mr. Philip Metz will enter his junior year at Andover college. Miss Margaret Riley, who have spent the last year a half in Seattle and on the Pacific coast, returned Friday. She was accompanied by Mrs. George England, who will be her guest until the holidays. Mrs. Laurie J. Quiby has returned from Lake Okoboji, where she was the guest of Mrs. C. S. Andrews. Miss Elizabeth Quiby has returned to her home at Dayton, Ky., after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Quiby. Lieutenant Rogers H. Williams, U. S. A., who was graduated from West Point last year, leaves Sunday for Pasadena, Cal., where he will spend several weeks before sailing to join his regiment in the Philippine islands. Captain J. D. Hutchison, of the Sixth cavalry, U. S. A., who was formerly stationed in Omaha and who has been ill in a hospital in Washington, D. C., reported for duty this week at Fort Des Moines, where he is now stationed. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Brown, who recently returned from China and who have been visiting with relatives of Mr. Brown in Teunash and Chester, are now at the home of Mr. George G. Wallace, 240 Charles street, for a two weeks' visit. Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Baird of Lincoln have been the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Thomas D. Crane, and Mr. Crane the last week at Rosemere, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Crane north of Florence. Mrs. Nancy Almira Stanton, who has been visiting Mrs. Samuel Rees and Miss McKoon, left last week for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will spend the winter. She was accompanied by Miss McKoon and Miss Harriette Rees, who will spend two weeks in the west. Mr. Arthur Metz and party returned Friday morning from a four month's trip in Europe. They visited in Italy, Germany, Switzerland and France. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Metz there were in the party their two children, Olga and Louis, and Mrs. L. Torche and her two daughters, Helen and Gertrude. Mrs. J. M. Keys and Miss Keys have returned from Lake Okoboji and are entertaining at a house party Mrs. John J. Mescham and a small son of St. Louis, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Stone and Miss Richard Mendell of St. Joseph, all of whom spent the summer at Okoboji. Mrs. C. L. Baum and her daughter, Mrs. Carson W. Smith, will arrive this week to be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Keys. Mrs. N. P. Fell, Miss Anna Fell and Miss Charlotte Rosewater have returned from Bemis Point, Lake Chautauque, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Fell and Miss Fell are at the Hamilton apartments, and will shortly take the house at Fortieth and Cass streets now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Eppner. Mrs. Fell's mother, Mrs. Edward Rosewater, and Miss Blanche Rosewater will reside with them this winter.
