

GRAIN MOVEMENT IS BIG

Receipts for the Week Show a Big Increase Over Year Ago.

MUCH CORN IS EXPECTED SOON

Bevasher Grain Company Prepares a Statement as to the Corn Prospects in All Parts of Nebraska.

The first week in September, 1910, at the Omaha Grain exchange, shows a gain of 167 cars in receipts of grain over the similar week last year.

Table with columns for Wheat, Corn, Oats and years 1910 and 1909.

Receipts, particularly of corn, are certain to be big from now on.

A world of corn will break in soon from the country in the Omaha exchange.

Buyers are ready for this stuff, too, and almost nothing, apparently, can prevent the movement.

Many local purchasers of grain are now always keeping a remarkably close tab on the quantity of corn and wheat which is in particular districts of the country.

Dealers Are Optimistic. A feeling of optimism pervades the exchange regarding the business outlook.

Nebraska corn prospects are much better than a week or two ago, and the Bevasher company estimates the crop will be at least 174,000,000 bushels.

The reports figure 87.7 per cent of last year's crop, which was 200,000,000 bushels, according to government figures.

The rains immediately following the middle of August have worked wonders in improvement, it has kept life in the plant and has left the amount of merchantable corn still questionable.

LARGE ENROLLMENT MADE. Six Hundred More Pupils Than Last Year Enter.

BIG TASK CARRIED OUT WELL. Fifteen Thousand Pupils Enter in All and Sixteen Hundred Enter High School—Kindergarten Teacher Threatens to Resign.

Without a perceptible hitch or a delay, 15,333 school children were enrolled in the Omaha schools Tuesday.

It was a much larger attendance than was expected the first day, but the organization was so well planned that nothing was upset.

One noticeable change that is brought to the attention of the officials every fall is the movement of population.

Inexperienced teachers had their troubles with the unexpected arrivals of new pupils. One kindergarten teacher, who is resolute, but rather new at her trade, received an avalanche of sixty 5-year-old infants, who had never been in school before.

Creighton college and the parochial schools also opened. Tuesday at Creighton there were 371 entrants and about thirty more are expected before the month is passed.

Classified List. The following is a list of the Omaha public schools and the number of pupils now enrolled in each.

Table listing school names and enrollment numbers.

High schools are for the first time in history really going to try dry farming as a crop raiser.

Farmers in Nebraska, South Dakota and Wyoming are for the first time in history really going to try dry farming as a crop raiser.

Crop reports compiled by the Burlington road on the reports received from agents along the line, show that the fall plowing which is usually left until very late, has been practically completed in some places and is well on the way everywhere.

Threshing has been almost completed in many places and show a much better record of winter wheat and oats than was expected at first.

Corn is growing splendidly and the outlook is for the 200,000,000 bushel mark this year if the weather will only keep warm, according to the report. Beets, potatoes and all meadows are picking up and very near an average crop of these will be harvested.

Miss Nellie Perry, Who Was Found on Doorstep as Child, Weds' Guy McDonald.

Word received from Chicago of the marriage of Guy McDonald and Nellie Perry made a happy sequel of a pretty Omaha romance.

Nellie Perry was found as a baby on the doorstep of W. A. Antrim, 506 North Thirty-second street and Mr. Antrim took her in, bringing her up as if she had been his own daughter.

None of the Omaha friends of the pair knew of the coming marriage, the fellow office men of McDonald but suspecting anything when he left for his vacation.

From Chicago they intend to take a short trip into Wisconsin, where they will meet Mrs. Antrim and relatives of the young man and will make the trip home together in a party.

Miss Perry is known in southern the theatrical circles as a talented actress, having played in that section all last winter.

REGISTRATION IS VERY LIGHT. Less Than 4,000 Out of 25,000 Appear to Be Enrolled on the Lists.

Tuesday was a very poor registration day and the total number of names enrolled will probably amount to less than 4,000. Since there are more than 25,000 voters in the city this is a poor showing.

The other two days of registration are October 4 and October 23. The registration that was made was generally scattered over the city.

Some were under the impression that a name could be enrolled with the city clerk, but that is possible only when the proper opportunity to register has been neglected.

The council met all day as a board of equalization to hear tax complaints.
