ALDRICH PAYS HIS RESPECTS

Republican Candidate for Governor is After Dahlgren.

IS CAUSTIC IN HIS CRITICISM

State Fair Continues to Draw Big Crowds—Douglas County Again Wins First for Collective Exhibit.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—Senator Burkett and C. H. Aldrich, candidate for governor on the republican ticket, spoke at the auditorium at the state fair this afternoon, the occasion being republican day. Chairman Husemeyer of the republican state committee presided. While the crowd which heard the democratic candidates yesterday was much larger, the enthusiasm of the crowd which today listened to the republican candidates was much more intense.

Senator Aldrich defended the plank in the republican platform endorsing county option; held up the legislation of the 1907 legislature as a sample of the way the republican party keeps its pledges and argued with his crowd that to elect Mayor Dahlgren governor would be to take Nebraska back to the frontier days. He told of the good work of the state railway commission and of the benefits that had been received by the people who had appealed to this commission for relief from the wrongs of the railroads. He digressed considerably from his set speech and once during his remarks, speaking of Dahlgren's announcement that he would veto a county option bill, paraphrasing Shakespeare, he said: "On what has this man fed that he hath become greater than all the people?" "On brewer's," yelled someone in the crowd.

"Yes," replied Senator Aldrich, "Schultz, Panst and those other good patriotic American names."

Threat Against University. On another occasion Aldrich accused Dahlgren of having threatened the state university unless the professors kept out of politics.

"Keep the professors out of politics and let the brewers run the state. I say the professors should lose their jobs unless they do fight. They should fight and keep on fighting."

Senator Aldrich insisted that county option would affect no county unless a majority of the voters in that county desired to vote it dry. If a majority of the county favored saloons, then the Slocumb law applied. A great portion of his speech was devoted to an endorsement of county option and an argument in its favor, together with a review of republican rule in the state. Senator Burkett talked on national issues, holding up the record of the republican party of the past as a guaranty of what it would do in the future.

Fair Still Draws Crowds. Another immense crowd visited the fair today and saw the races. Some complaint was made because the Burlington railroad refused to sell special fare tickets to the grounds, but insisted that the purchaser should buy a round-trip. This forced the purchaser to return by train or lose his nickel. There was also complaint at the way the crowds were handled at the gates by the Burlington, one trainload leaving the cars next to a train load which was pulling out for the grounds. However, no one was injured.

President Shapes of the traction company helped his men at the grounds yesterday and did his part toward packing the cars full and seeing to it that the signal to start was not given until every inch of the running board was crowded and the space between the seats was jammed.

Douglas County Again Leads. This was the day when many awards were made at the fair. Douglas county again won the prize for the best collective exhibit in the eastern division. Franklin in the central and Brown in the western division. The awards were as follows:

Eastern Section—Douglas, first; Pawnee, second; Richardson, third; Lancaster, fourth; Butler, fifth; Nemaha, sixth; Saline, seventh.

Central Section—Franklin, first; Kearney, second; Webster, third; York, fourth; Fillmore, fifth; Antelope, sixth.

Western Section—Brown, first; Frontier, second; Red Willow, third; DeWitt, fourth; Keya Paha, fifth; Thomas, sixth; Sioux, seventh.

How Filipino May Vote. A native of the Philippine islands may become avoter in the state of Nebraska by declaring his intention to become a citizen of the United States and in due course of time may become a full-fledged citizen without renouncing allegiance to any prince, potentate or power. This is the dictum of the federal bureau of naturalization as expressed by Theodore F. Schmucker, chief of the Denver division.

At the late primary a Filipino attempted to vote in this city and was denied that right, though he had been allowed to exercise the franchise in an adjoining county. He at once applied to Theodore H. Berg, deputy clerk of the district court, who has charge of naturalization matters in this county. The man stated that he had supposed himself a citizen and that it would not be necessary for him to take out naturalization papers. He was willing, however, to pursue the latter course if required.

Mr. Berg was not clear on the matter and wrote the department for information. If it was necessary for the man to take out papers, he wanted to know from whom he was to renounce allegiance. He has just received an answer from Mr. Schmucker in which the latter says:

"I have never had a Filipino in this district under consideration. Section 99 of the naturalization act seems to cover his case. He should make a declaration on the regular form, but is not required to renounce allegiance to anybody. That portion of the declaration can be left blank or reference made therein to section 99, act of June 25, 1906."

The section referred to reads as follows: All applicable provisions of the naturalization laws of the United States shall apply to and be held to authorize the admission to citizenship of all persons not citizens who own permanent allegiance to the United States, and who may become residents of any state or organized territory of the United States, with the following modifications: The applicant shall not be required to renounce allegiance to any foreign sovereignty; he shall make his declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States at least two years prior to his admission; and residence within the jurisdiction of the United States, owing such permanent allegiance shall be regarded as residence within the United States within the meaning of the five years residence clause of the existing law.

F. W. Brown Resigns. F. W. Brown, member of the city park board, has resigned his position. Mr. Brown said he was willing to give his time to the city but he could not afford to give his business also, as he said he would have to do under a ruling by City Attorney Flansburg.

Mr. Brown is in the lumber business and several contractors who do business with the city buy of the Brown Lumber company. The city attorney ruled that Mr. Brown's corporation could furnish no material for the use of the city so long as Brown is a city official. So the former mayor resigned. Brown said he would sell no lumber to the park board as he would Bee Ahead of Travelers. O. M. Stonebraker and Mrs. Stonebraker have just returned from a tour of Europe, having spent several weeks across the ocean.

"The only Nebraska news we received during the trip," said Mr. Stonebraker, "was through The Bee. I got copies of it in the reading room at Edinburgh, Paris, London and Berlin. When I saw The Bee at Berlin it was only nine days old. It certainly looked good to me. I saw no other American papers except from mNew York, but they had no Nebraska news."

Echo of Press Fight. Fred Ludwig was reminded of a visit he made to Reno, Nev., July 4, when he received yesterday a nice purse, which he left in the night city, it having been abstracted from his pocket by some needy person.

Every card and piece of paper in the purse then was taken and returned with it and everything was in first class condition. In the purse Ludwig had his Shrine card and it was through the Shrine that he got it back. The sender said he had found it in a patch of weeds where it had been thrown evidently by the person who stole it.

"There was no money in the purse when it was taken. I had just a short time before taken my money out of the purse and pinned it in my clothing. I had the purse in my hip pocket and had on an overcoat buttoned up close. I realized when the purse was taken, for I felt some one raise my overcoat and get into my pocket, but in the crowd I was unable to protest myself or do anything. I could not even raise my hands. The pickpockets worked everywhere in gangs and when they crowded around a person that was the end of it."

It is said that every person from Lincoln or at least five of them had their pockets picked. One party paid his hotel bill and had $7 in gold left in change. He kept this money in his hand and his hand in his pocket. That is, he kept the money about fifteen minutes. His hand was yanked from his pocket and the money came with it. The money was gone before the victim could even give a warwhoop. One Lincoln man had his pockets picked twice, though he lost no money, having taken his money out of his purse previous to the raid.

More Pay for Custer Officials. BROKEN BOW, Neb., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—Most of the court house officials are looking happy over the county census results. As Custer county has increased in population over 25,000, so have a number of official salaries increased accordingly. In the county clerk's office the increase is $500, making a yearly salary of $2,500. The county treasurer gets the same raise in his department, while in the county court the judge draws $2,000 a year, a $1,000 that he does if the difference can be collected. He is also allowed a deputy out of the general fund. The $1,000 salary of the district court clerk is augmented by $1,000, making a total of $3,000, and he is allowed to draw from the general fund to make up a deficiency. The register of deeds gets $2,000 a year, a $1,000 that he does against a previous $1,000, while the sheriff, whose salary has been $1,500, receives an additional $200, bringing it up to $2,000.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—At the resumption today of the trial of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen and Ethel Clara Leneve for the murder of the former's wife, Public Prosecutor Humphreys introduced evidence to establish the claim of the crown that the parts of the mutilated body found in the Crippen home, once formed a part of the person of Belle Elmore, the missing wife, and to strengthen what has been popularly regarded as the missing link in the chain of circumstantial evidence against the accused.

The first witness called was Mrs. Adeline Harrison, whose acquaintance with Belle Elmore had extended over a period of twelve years. Mrs. Harrison was asked to examine strands of hair found when the dismembered body was uncovered, and having done so, she swore that she recognized the exhibit as similar to that worn by Belle Elmore.

A torn bit of feminine underwear also discovered by the searchers in the cellar was next introduced and the witness declared that she had seen Belle Elmore clothed in undergarments of a like texture. Testimony had been offered before showing that the lower part of the body bore a scar, the result of an operation. Mrs. Harrison testified that she had seen a similar scar on the body of her friend.

The accused were seated in the dock within whispering distance and the doctor was given an opportunity to speak to the girl. Miss Leneve presented a well-begone appearance and did not seem anxious to converse. Crippen, to whom his spectacles had been returned for the first time since his arrest, appeared as the Crippen of early photographs. He spoke to the girl anxiously and she replied in monosyllables.

In his cross-examination of Mrs. Harrison Arthur Newton, representing Crippen, deconstructed somewhat from the strength of the evidence and incidentally indicated what is believed to be the line of defense.

In reply to Newton's question, the witness said to the suggestion that the hair, the portion of a woman's vest and the curling iron found in the Crippen cellar were not only similar to those worn or used by the missing woman, but also "resembled thousands of others."

When Mrs. Harrison left the stand the prosecution called the chemist who claims that he sold hyacinth, a deadly poison, to Crippen. The witness testified that the doctor purchased five grains of the drug on January 15, explaining that he required the poison for use in homeopathic practice. As is required of purchasers of poisons, he signed the registry book of the store, making this inscription: "Munyon's, per H. H. Crippen."

Inspector Dew, who arrested the fugitives and brought them back from Quebec—re-entered the witness box today and read a lengthy statement signed by Crippen when the police first asked him to make an explanation of his disappearance from London after his arrest. The statement against him. The girl's salary was $200 and had already been covered by Prosecutor Humphreys in his opening address.

Inspector Dew also testified regarding

THE SCHMOLLER & MUELLER PIANO COMPANY

THREE Piano Stores CLOSED OUT

THE REASON
We were compelled to close these branch stores and turn over the territory covered by these stores to our Wholesale Department, because we have 171 small dealers in Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota and Colorado, who buy all their pianos and organs from us. It would not be fair to them to go into their territory and sell pianos, so the president of our company, Mr. Wm. H. Schmoller, who is in Europe now, cabled us to close the Plattsmouth branch, Dow City branch and Denison branch, move every piano in these branch stores to Omaha and then sell them regardless of cost.

A REAL OPPORTUNITY
We are not offering a lot of ancient, worn out pianos as an inducement of bait to get you to our store. The pianos included in this sale are all fine, high-grade instruments of quality and we must sell every one of them because we must have room. Careful, discriminating buyers will soon pick out the best, although every one is a most desirable piano, and a real bargain, because a $1,000,000 firm, established 51 years, guarantees to stand back of these pianos and every piano they sell.
