

Nebraska STATE FAIR MAKES RECORD Each Day Better than Corresponding Day in Previous Years.

BROWN'S ACT CREATES FUROR

Resignation of Ex-Mayor from Lincoln Park Board Cause of Comment -Lyle Abbott on Phone Situation.

(From a Staff Correspondent) LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—At 4 o'clock this afternoon the forty-second annual State fair passed into history. Every day an attendance record was broken and for the week the attendance figures are in a class by themselves.

The fair in every respect surpassed any that has gone before in Nebraska. The weather was ideal from the first to the last day.

More Resignations Due. The resignation of F. W. Brown as a member of the park board necessitated by reason of the holding of the city attorney that it was unlawful for a contractor with the city to buy building material from the F. W. Brown Lumber company as long as he is the head of the company.

Nebraska Farm Hand Kills Himself After Threatening Girl

David Mays of Minden Asks Teacher at Point of Gun to Marry Him, Then Commits Suicide.

MINDEN, Neb., Sept. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—David Mays, a farm laborer in the vicinity of this town, shot himself to death in a pasture after accusing Miss Nina Videne, a school teacher, and asking her to marry him last night.

Finally the farm hand drew a revolver and said: "For the last time I ask you to marry me; if you don't consent right now I'll shoot you."

Miss Videne screamed in terror and started to run. After she had run a short distance she turned back and shot. Without looking back she continued her flight, thinking the man was pursuing her, until finally she reached her boarding house. This morning Mays' body was found lying in the bushes. He had shot himself and had evidently died instantly. The young woman is prostrated by her experience.

Robbers Break Into Barneston Bank, But Fail

Blow Up Vault But Are Frightened and Flee Without Securing Any Cash.

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—Robbers made an unsuccessful attempt to raid the Bank of Barneston, twenty miles south of here early this morning and they were evidently frightened away as they failed to get into the safe after blowing up the vault with four charges of nitro-glycerine.

Mrs. W. Y. Brown and daughter, who are in charge of the telephone station at that place, were awakened by the explosions and were in the act of turning in an alarm when two of the robbers entered the building and fired at them.

Pawnee County Man Ends Life

Lays in Wait to Kill Son and Daughter and Failing in This, Shoots Himself.

PAWNEE, Neb., Sept. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—After threatening the lives of the members of his family and lying in wait for several hours for his oldest son and daughter and a neighbor lad who were at Lincoln attending the state fair and were expected home during the night, with the avowed intention of murdering them, John Kruechi, 51 years of age, living on the old Gene Berry farm in Mission Creek precinct, Pawnee county, fired two charges from a shotgun into his head about 2 o'clock this morning, killing himself instantly.

Kruechi, who was always considered an excellent husband, father and neighbor, had terrorized his family during the day, his threats having been threatened many times. At retiring time Kruechi refused to go to bed, saying that he would remain up and kill his son and daughter and the young man who had accompanied the daughter when they returned home.

The young folks through good fortune, or having been warned in some manner, reached home, and the son and daughter retired without the knowledge of the father, who kept himself afterward.

Kruechi's family consisted of a wife and six children. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of "suicide while in a state of intoxication."

CENTRAL CITY MAN MURDERED

Former Employee of Theater Brought to Death in Missouri.

CENTRAL CITY, Neb., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—E. A. Hayter, formerly proprietor of the Electric theater and now engaged in the electrical supply business here, has just received word of the brutal murder at Maitland, Mo., of James Alberta, who was formerly employed by Mr. Hayter, and who made his home in Central City for several months at different times. It seems that Alberta's body was discovered on a lonely road near Maitland with the features beaten to a pulp so that the only way he could be identified was by letters in his pockets.

Mr. Hayter says that Alberta was not the man's real name, but that it was a stage name he had assumed, having once been an actor. His principal trade, however, was that of journeyman printer, and at that he worked for many years in different parts of the country. When he left here last February he went to Shelton and worked in the printing office there until early last July when he went back to Hastings and boarded there for a few weeks at the Hayter hotel. From Hastings he went down to Missouri, and it is supposed that he fell in with some men who thought he had some money, and who killed him in an attempt to get it.

Alberta always concealed his real identity and his antecedents from his friends and no one knew what his real name was, where he had come from, or what his early history was, as he would never talk about himself, and hence, his life's history has probably died with him.
