COLONEL ROOSEVELT'S TRIP.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, during his present trip, traveled 5,500 miles. He has one month to engage in New York politics before making a southern tour of 2,300 miles. Seven months later he makes a southern and western trip, not entirely scheduled at present, of approximately 10,000 miles. Upon his present trip he has made eighteen formal speeches and 150 informal addresses. A conservative estimate of the number of his auditors is 500,000 persons. His largest audience was at St. Paul, Minn., 50,000. The greatest crowd gathered to watch him pass through the streets was at Denver. On his trip he has met and talked with seven governors, twelve United States senators and more than twenty congressmen. In his addresses he has been received with enthusiasm by citizens of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming, Kansas, Minnesota, North and South Dakota and Wisconsin.

BURKETT OPENS LOCAL CAMPAIGN

Senator Addresses Large Gathering at Washington Hall on the Campaign Issues.

WHERE DEMOCRATIC PARTY FAILS

Record of Accomplishment Blank on Its Good Side.

WHAT REPUBLICANS HAVE DONE

Public Good Conserved by the Party While in Power.

PARTY OF PEOPLE AT ALL TIMES

Prosperity Follows Laws Enacted by Republicans in Pursuance of the Policy by Which Party Exists.

Old Washington hall resounded Saturday night with the kind of vituperation that used to characterize the republican platform in the halcyon days of long ago. It was filled with citizens, not all republicans by any means, desirous of hearing United States Senator Burkett discuss the matters of political interest now urgent in the public mind.

Senator Burkett was in good trim and made a earnest, cogent and impressive speech. He had the close attention of his audience all through. Their good will for the speaker himself was no less evident than their enjoyment of his eloquent argument and keen analysis of the conditions prevailing in the country today. He took for the republican party the credit to which it is entitled on the record, and directed particular attention to the fact that, as always, the democratic party today is banking on negative acts; on carrying faultfinding, irresponsible damming and gratuitous denunciations for success; that it has no achievement of positive character to appeal for support, but stands on the ground that the strict construction of the constitution will permit the congress, the president or the nation to take one single forward step along any approved line of progress.

Canalejas Much Perplexed Over Petticoat Rule

Mother of Queen of Spain Declares that She Will Leave the Country.

MADRID, Sept. 11.—(Special Cablegram.)—One of the most curious developments in the conflict between the Canalejas government in Spain and the Vatican over the religious orders is the reception given at the Spanish capital to the report that the queen mother may show her disapproval of the tactics of the premier by abandoning the country and taking up a permanent residence in Austria.

It is thought extremely improbable that she will carry out this threat. If ever it was made, there is no attempt to disguise the belief in ministerial quarters that Alfonso's mother is there responsible for the special bitterness of the dispute—and that if her personality were removed from the picture, an amicable solution might be brought within range. From the outset, it is said, she counseled the king to override the ministers and to throw himself on the side of Cardinal Merry Del Val. It was her pleading, says the same account, that caused the long delay of Alfonso in signing the speech from the throne at the opening of the Cortes.

Canalejas is described as "more perplexed by royal petticoat influence than by all the red hats in Europe." He charges Maria Christina with misrepresenting him as a politician and seeking a willful provocation to the Vatican instead of being, as she claims to be, a strict constitutionalist.

Indiana to Mark the Years of Men Killed in Battle

Monument Erected on the Battlefield of Antietam to Be Dedicated.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Indiana, the Hoosier state, September 15 will put lasting tribute to the brave men who fell in the battle of Antietam, when Governor Marshall and other state officials will consecrate the monuments erected on the memorable battlefield to the Indiana dead. The dedicatory ceremony will be elaborate. Captain J. P. McGrew of the Capitol police, and Captain William Meredith of the Treasury department, are arranging for special trains to the battlefield from this city and Baltimore, to accommodate Indiana residents of the two cities and others who may go. Governor Thomas R. Marshall will be the chief speaker. Meredith Nicholson, the Hoosier poet, will read a poem of his own written in honor of the Indiana dead. All Indiana veterans of the war have been invited and special arrangements will be made for their comfort.

Steps Looking to Barring the Hindu

Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel Takes the Weather Under Consideration.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Hindu immigration was the subject of an earnest conversation today between Mayor McCarthy and Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel. The mayor of San Francisco submitted an eloquent, broad and emphatic protest against the admission of this class of labor to the state of California, and the port of this city, and was told by the government officials that the latter's overruling of the decision of immigration inspectors barring Hindus from entry to San Francisco, until after his return to Washington. Mr. Nagel stated that he had been in the company of North during his inspection here, and that he had advised North against making reply to the complaints until after Nagel's visit here.

CAMPAIGN IN IOWA OPENS

Governor Carroll is Addressing Meetings in Many Sections.

PORTER WILL BEGIN NEXT WEEK

Democratic Candidate Will Make His First Speech at Sioux City—Neither Party Will Import Speakers.

DEMOCRAT. (From a Staff Correspondent.)—There will be very little speaking in the Iowa campaign, no importation of outside orators, very little use of the literature prepared by the congressional national committee, as little newspaper discussion as possible and generally a very quiet campaign in the next six weeks in Iowa. This has been decided on, or rather forced upon, the two state committees. Neither the republicans nor the democrats are moved to any exciting or exasperating political activity at the time. The candidates themselves seem to prefer that it shall be each one for himself and in his own way.

The democrats will formally start with Claude Porter at Sioux City a week from Thursday, and it is planned that he will have a number of other speaking dates. In fact the demand for him comes from every part of the state and he will do as much talking as possible. He will use the same speech, with some slight modifications, which he used four years ago.

Thaw Will Again Seek His Liberty

With Attorneys, Slayer of Stanford White is Preparing Writ of Habeas Corpus.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—In the Mattewson State hospital for the criminal insane, Harry K. Thaw is making elaborate preparations to fight for his liberty.

The slayer of Stanford White is working several hours every day with a staff of legal experts, under the direction of Clarence J. Shearn, and within two months it is expected he will be taken from the asylum on a writ of habeas corpus.

Ballinger Has no Idea of Quitting

Learned from Executive Office at Beverly that Secretary Will Attend Next Cabinet Meeting.

BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—President Taft announced today that he will attend the funeral of Lloyd W. Bowers, solicitor general, in Boston, Monday. It was learned at the executive offices today that Secretary Ballinger will attend the meeting of the cabinet September 21, and there is no expectation that he will resign. There will be several meetings in Washington that week, the members of the cabinet being guests of the president at the White house.

More Contraband Opium is Located

Federal Officers at San Francisco Find the Stuff on the Steamer China.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—The federal authorities made another effort to break up the opium ring today by confiscating a large quantity of opium found concealed under the plank in the engine room of the Steamer China, which arrived today. A number of arrests will be made. Frank Smith, a quartermaster of the same vessel, was arrested for attempting to smuggle silk ashore.

PROPERTY VALUES INCREASE

Assessment Roll for Nebraska Ready for Publication.

HOGS WORTH A MILLION MORE

Figures Jump Fourteen Millions as Compared with Nineteen Nine—Automobile Values Larger—Carriages Decrease.

LINCOLN, Sept. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—The grand assessment roll for 1910 has been made up and the copy is now in the hands of the printer that it may be published in the biennial report of State Auditor Barton. The total assessed value of all property in Nebraska is $12,138,067, against $238,358,313 for 1909. The assessed value is one-fifth of the actual value.

While cattle show a slight falling off in the total assessed valuation, hogs show an increase of approximately $1,000,000, due to the increased number of hogs, but to the increased valuation. The value of horses has increased nearly $2,000,000. Notes secured by mortgages have increased over $700,000. Money on hand and deposit has increased over $200,000. The assessed value of automobiles has increased almost $300,000, or, in actual value, almost $2,000,000. The value of carriages and wagons has decreased over $2,000,000, indicating that the automobile is coming into its own. The value of wheat on hand is slightly over $300,000 more than was the wheat on hand a year ago. The value of oats is worth increased, while corn and rye on hand in value is below that on hand a year ago. The value of potatoes on hand is also very much below the value of this product a year ago. The value of poultry returned is more than $100,000 greater than last year.

The patent right has been working a little this year, because the value of patent rights has been increased $143. The value of repressing machines has decreased over $7,000.
