A Victory for Decency.

Governor Patterson of Tennessee has been at the feast of Belshazzar too long...

Patterson invited all of this when he pardoned the murderer of former Senator Carmack...

Republicans, together with decent democrats of Tennessee, deserve much credit for moulding and maintaining this sentiment against this governor...

Korean Ministers and Japan. Most of America's interests in Korea are missionary. It becomes a matter of trite interest, therefore, to this country what ultimate effect the annexation of Korea by Japan is going to have on foreign missions...

The fact is this, according to some accepted authority: Many Koreans had strangely counted on some vague influence of the Christian missionaries to prevent annexation by Japan...

The Ballinger Committee. So far as the public is concerned, it probably would not matter one way or the other what the Ballinger-Pinchot investigating committee reported...

Whether any satisfactory report could have been made under the circumstances, or not, it does seem that a satisfactory method of making the reports could have been agreed upon...

Is it a Disfranchising Amendment?

Entering the discussion started by The Bee as to the impending constitutional amendment, endorsed by the republicans and rejected by the democrats...

Persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens conformably to the laws of the United States, and are at the taking effect of this amendment, voting, may continue to exercise the right of suffrage until such time as they may have resided in the state five years...

According to the Journal this establishes the plain intent of the amendment to be that no present foreign born voter shall be disfranchised by itself until he is eligible to enfranchise himself by becoming a full-fledged citizen...

Interpreting the Signs. A Nebraska sepher blew the water out of a well forty feet deep, but the supply was immediately renewed. The dries claim that the men is favorable.

Hardened Old Sinner at the Fore. Strangely as it may seem the great insurgent victory in New Hampshire is in no small degree due to the work and influence of one of the most distinguished members of the Ananias club—ex-Senator William E. Chandler.

The Very Latest Language. The very latest thing in universal languages appears to be "Veltling," a prospectus of which was received in Washington a few months ago.

Our Birthday Book. September 12, 1910. Francis E. Clark, affectionately called "Father Endeavor" Clark, founder of the Christian Endeavor society, was born September 12, 1831.

Around New York

Stipples on the Current of Life as Seen in the Great American Metropolis from Day to Day.

Samson's call to the citizens of Omaha to prepare for the coming of Ak-Sar-Ben festivities is timely and should be heeded.

Nothing Doing. James J. Hill found there was nothing to do but send his corps of trained governors back home.

TOO MUCH WORK FOR COURTS.

Hobbled with Technical Rules and Red Tape. Chicago Record-Herald.

Prof. Pound's conviction address on the "Law and the People" is full of pith and suggestion. It will repay analysis.

Will the Hub Shift East, West or South? World's Work.

Lines to a Laugh. "I think I'll send a ton of coal to every widow in the district. How is that for a scheme?"

Why She Won't Wear It. W. D. Nesbit in Life.

PERSONAL NOTES.

On the hottest day in the year New York authorities received bids for the removal of snow.

A special Carnegie medal is due to two members of the Volunteer Life Saving Corps of New York, who risked themselves in a half-mile swim in East river to rescue a wooden Indian from drowning.

It is the desire of Mrs. Ann Roberts, who for a year acted as the foster mother of King George of England, to go to her home in Poutney, Vt., to England to pass the remainder of her life there.

Los Angeles is to have a home for young women, to be built by William A. Clark, the copper magnate, formerly United States senator, as a memorial to his mother, Mary Andrews Clark.

"Do you think a memory for dates helps a man?" "Sometimes," replied Frank Tomel, "but not when you're selling corn chickens."—Washington Star.

"I don't see how you can manage to keep these women together as long as the present style of hair dressing continues." "What has hair dressing to do with the unions?" "It makes all the places where women work rat offices!"—Baltimore American.

"The sale of the high priced and high powered car had been duly effected. The purchaser hesitated a moment. 'Are you going to open something?' he presently inquired. 'Certainly,' he replied. 'And he opened the throttle.'—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"I'm afraid," said the friendly adviser, "that your speeches haven't enough girth in them." "You are mistaken," replied Senator Sorghum. "The trouble is that people have become so used to highly spiced remarks that they don't notice mere ginger. What they want is cayenne pepper."—Washington Star.

Hopefulness in the Awakening of West. George Harvey in North American Review. The American people still have the power. Theirs also is the responsibility.
