LINCOLN TURNS DOWN INVITE

Commercial Club Says Members Are Too Busy to Accept.

MANY EDITORS ARE ON HAND

Characteristic Letters of Acceptance from Many Scribes Have Been Received Saying They Will Be Here with Bells On.

Samson's invitation extended to Lincoln Commercial club for the annual business luncheon at the den Monday was given a cold turn down and Samson's friendly intentions received a bucket of cold water.

The Commercial club sent a telegram of regret saying its members should not be present owing to the "pressure of business incident to the greatest state fair in the history of Nebraska."

Nebraska editors, to whom invitations had also been sent were well represented at the den last evening. The following letter is a fair sample of the way most of the newspaper men of Nebraska feel toward Ak-Sar-Ben.

It is from Albert E. Quimby of the Plattsmouth News-Herald, who says: "Samson, Most Noble Lord: Your royal commands have been received and strict and implicit compliance will be made on our part."

We shall arrive in your most beautiful city on the day and date set for your most pulsant majesty, and we will travel incognito like the common rabble may not know we are heading for your stronghold. That you may know us upon our arrival, and you alone, know then, we will wear upon our face a clean shave and upon our body one clean shirt, borrowed from a friend.

The ink spots upon our nose and hands will be erased and a few other distinguishing marks will be concealed by the absence of hair to them, most noble lord. We start upon our long walk this day in order that we may not be late for the grand revels."

School Teacher is Cut by a Lad

Phillip Mitchell Has Knife Up His Sleeve, Which He Proceeds to Use.

Phillip Mitchell, the colored terror of Highland school in South Omaha, was brought before the juvenile court Monday morning charged with having resisted punishment by using a big pocket knife on his teacher, Miss Burt.

The boy had been called up for some minor offense. Up his sleeve he carried the open knife and when the teacher started to punish the boy he dropped the knife into his hand and slashed at his instructor. He did little damage, Miss Burt's only injury being a slight scratch.

Judge Sutton sent the boy to the detention home for two weeks. If he shows further signs of insubordination he will be promptly sent to the Kearney industrial school.

Bound Body of Man in River

Strangely Wired and Weighted Corpse is Taken from the Water.

Wired heavily and with two brake irons tied on it, a body of a young man was found in the Missouri river near Bellevue Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The body was that of a white man, about 30 years of age, five feet eight inches in height, weighing 180 pounds, and smooth face. He was dressed in a dark suit, and a white soft shirt with tie of the same material, and new shoes, size seven or eight.

The county coroner of Sarpy county has taken charge of the body. As yet no clue to the mystery has been found.

TEXAN DECLARES HIS STATE WILL SURPASS CALIFORNIA

Frank Hough Tells of Area Over Subterranean River Irrigated by Great W-11s.

"The south plains of Texas form a region which in potentiality surpasses southern California. Our country, within a few years, will be greater than the newly opened imperial valley, and it is only a question of time before, when the water now planned, carried to completion, it will have left behind in importance the orange groves of California."

Frank Hough, a real estate dealer of Plainville, who lies seventy-five miles south of Amarillo, Tex., made this statement Monday at the Merchants hotel.

"By this development," he continued, "the middle west will benefit. The south plains lie over a subterranean river, and getting water is only a question of being. We are opening wells at Plainville after going thirty feet. The first, giving 14,000 gallons a minute irrigates 100 acres. Over at Portales fifty-one such wells are running now. Near Plainville, one five-acre tract this season yields 500, and that's but a sample. Much of the middle west's development lies in the south."

NEW BOOKLET BOOSTS OMAHA

Said to Be the Handsomest Ever Published to Advertise the City.

The handsomest booklet ever printed about Omaha has just left the presses. The booklet has been prepared at the instigation of the publicity bureau of the Commercial club and a limited number will be given away here by that institution. Others will be used outside for advertising purposes.

The booklet is noteworthy because it includes many views not heretofore printed in such a publication. An artist has caught a remarkable good view of the Bee building, the city hall and the Brandeis building, the fronts of all three showing clearly. Another good print is of the city skyline from Fifteenth and Douglas streets.

Other views are of the Field club, a sale day in front of the Thomas Kilpatrick store on Douglas street, a group of residences, including George A. Jostlyn's, Mrs. Ben Gallagher's, Dr. A. F. Jonas and J. H. Millard.

All of the photographs, taken mainly by Schoenfeld & Unversandt, are new, and several of them have been copyrighted. The booklet is printed by the A. I. Root company.

Gets Big Check and Then Arrest

John T. Murphy of Denver Cashes a Check Intended for Another Murphy.

If your name were John T. Murphy and some morning the mail man brought you a letter addressed to your address and containing a fat check made out to your order would you cash it and appropriate the proceeds or would you start out on a diligent hunt for another John T. Murphy for whom the letter and check might be intended?

John T. Murphy of Denver, to whom such a letter actually came, chose the former of the two alternatives, and as a result is now languishing in jail in Omaha charged with taking from the mails and cashing a check belonging to another man. Unfortunately the letter in this case was intended for another John T. Murphy. The man was taken by United States Marshall Warner Saturday in South Omaha and had his hearing Monday before United States Commissioner Anderson.

He was ordered confined here until Judge W. H. Munger returns to the city and issues an order for his removal to the jurisdiction of the Colorado courts.

NEGRO HOLDUP Man Arrested

Detectives Get James Peterson, Who Held Up Restaurant Friday Night.

Detectives Davis and Patallo and Policeman Regan, Monday morning, arrested the negro who held up and robbed the Metropolitan restaurant at 1518 Capital avenue, Friday night. The prisoner gave his name as James Peterson, 1268 Burt street. He was identified by the proprietor as the one who had committed the robbery.

Love of Bicycle Causes Downfall

Youth Who Cannot Leave, Them Alone Goes to the Industrial School.

Roy Gill's longing for a bicycle has landed him in the Kearney industrial school. One week ago he was taken before the juvenile court charged with stealing a bicycle, but as the bicycle was returned to the owner in good condition, the boy was given another chance. Monday morning he was before the court again on the same charge and he admitted having stolen a second bicycle. The lad is only 15 years of age.

MOTORMAN'S FOOT CRUSHED

Slips as He Steps on Car and His Foot is Caught Beneath the Wheel.

R. W. Anderson, who is employed as a motorman by the street railway company, and whose home is just north of Florence, was the victim of a street car accident on Monday afternoon. Anderson was attempting to board a car at the corner of Thirtieth and Pierce streets when his foot slipped and before he could recover his balance, the car wheels passed over his foot, mangle it terribly. The injured man was taken to St. Joseph's hospital.

Occasionally You Break Your Glasses

You need them all the time. Bring the pieces to us. We will duplicate the broken lens, no matter where the glasses came from. We can make a new lens exactly like the old, with only the old pieces to go by. Many times the work can be done while you wait. But you can always have them the same day. This is a point worth remembering if you wear glasses.

BRIDGE MAN LEAVES FORTUNE

News Comes that Charles Hedberg, Bridge Carpenter, Who Was Thought Poor, Died in Fall—Heirs Get $500,000.

Four Nebraskans, three of them Omaha residents, are heirs to $500,000 apiece through the discovery of the death of an uncle in New York City. The lucky four are Mrs. Jennie Smith, 323 North Thirty-sixth street; Mrs. Carrie Perry, 231 Cass street; Charles Hedberg, 360 Brown street, and John P. Hedberg of the town of Paxton. A fifth co-heir is Rev. V. E. Hedberg of Minneapolis.

These five are nephews and nieces of Charles Hedberg, a New York bridge carpenter, who met his death by falling from a bridge at Yonkers. It was supposed by his fellow workers that Hedberg left nothing but a reputation for making speeches on slight provocation, but his effects revealed little deeds to a great deal of real estate worth, at a conservative estimate, $500,000.

The property includes a large farm near Lakeland in Florida, four building lots in Lakeland, Westchester county, New York, and extensive tracts of school land in Texas. Besides this, according to the New York Sun, he had a "great deal of money" in the bank.

Hedberg came as an orphan to this country and had little communication with his relatives, who know, nevertheless, that he was in America. That he left so much property was as much a surprise to them as to anyone else. Hedberg lived quite simply—almost miserly, in fact—and aside from his property, to make speeches, was in no wise distinguished from fellow bridge workers.

The fall which killed him was only twenty-five feet, but he fractured three ribs in the region of the heart, and broke his leg so badly that it had to be immediately removed at the knee.

Attorney Alvin F. Johnson represents the heirs and will soon leave for New York to prove up on the estate in behalf of his clients whose claims are undisputed.

How one man fooled his wife

She had been using her "favorite" baking powder. Wouldn't think of trying anything else, because "mother always used it," or some similar excuse. Hubby said she was prejudiced. He figured if Calumet, the new baking powder, selling at a moderate price, could be so successful, there must be some good in it. So he took a hand, and bought a can of Calumet, emptied the can containing her "favorite" baking powder and filled it with Calumet.

That evening, unsuspecting the trick, Wifey prepared and served some of her famous biscuit—piping hot, temptingly browned and puffed up to airy lightness, they were even more delicious than usual. Hubby, after considerable difficulty, succeeded in convincing her that the basis of the improvement was Calumet Baking powder. And so an everlasting friend for Calumet was made.

This truthful little incident simply proves that the housewife is oftentimes prejudiced against all baking powders except the one she has been using for years. She imagines that no other kind can possibly be as good. This is a mistaken impression. A trial of Calumet will prove that it is purer, more reliable; it has a greater leavening power than any other baking powder made. And it is moderate in price.
