MERE MAN NEAR HIS FINISH

Notable Demonstration of Endurance in Dancing, Swimming, Horseback Riding and Climbing.

Women are doing some quite respectable stunts these days. One writer who has got a little list of some of these achievements submits it as proof that the phrase "the weaker sex" will have to be declared obsolete, at any rate as a synonym for woman.

"It is the custom when a Polish couple is married," says this writer in the Housekeeper, "to have a big wedding dance. The bride is expected to earn her dowry herself. She dances in a mad, carefree whirl with every man present until each man tires and quits. On stopping the bride wishes to tire out as many men as possible, for each man represents $1. At a recent wedding celebration in Illinois Rosie Zapawa won $250.

Household Activities. "The average housewife who looks after her own home and children expends as much physical energy as the average husband in his routine of business.

Walking and Motoring. "Woman has always been minding of step as accepted thinking tells us, but with all that she has established records that make the greatest male pedestrians nervous.

Horseback Riding. "Another New York woman who has established a record for strength when engaged in social pleasure is Miss Edith Colford, who is one of the most daring cross-country riders in America.

Slashed with a Razor. "A woman who has been abandoned by her husband and is seeking an advertising scheme to help her boarding house business might do well to copy the following taken from the Tunkhannock (Pa.) Republican and New Age.

NEW RULES FOR CATHOLICS

Text of Decree Governing Reception of First Communion.

AGE FOR CHILDREN REDUCED

Seven Years the Minimum Fixed by Church Authorities—Some Practices Criticized and Forbidden.

Much interest is felt in Roman Catholic circles regarding the decree recently approved by Pope Pius X, reducing the age at which children may receive first communion. The decree was drafted by Cardinal Ferrata, prefect of the sacred congregation of the discipline of the sacraments. It has not been promulgated officially in the western diocese as yet, but was read in all the Catholic churches of Philadelphia last Sunday.

Children and the Sacraments. After reviewing the various enactments of the early church which permitted children to receive holy communion at the same time they were baptized, the pronouncement of the decree now in vogue regarding the approach to the sacraments by children of various ages.

Admit Children to Confession. Again, the sacred college, discussing the question of permitting children to approach the sacrament of penance, makes this strong declaration: "The custom of not admitting children to confession, or of not absolving them, is absolutely condemned.
