THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE: SEPTEMBER 18, 1910.

Omaha Business Men Who Scorn the Auto and the Trolley Car Alike

MAHA has ever clung closely to quite unusual to me to ride to town," the practical aide of every- Just how the Omelin walking club origination thing, religiously estimated is a mainty which history has clouded that which might be established with modes realish. One story is to the efas fenciful or superficial fect that a well known chitern, being in Oftentimes the simplest way is physical decline, applied to his declar for . the best, and in demonstration of this relat axion, when the average man of affairs, a "Wall," said the doctor bit jaded by too close application to office. "I finds himself in need of exercise, he walks, man "I am not able to walk," retorted the

He might employ a physical instructor, he "Yes you are you are able to walk from might indulge in heavy outlay for private your home to your office every micruing. symmasium equipment and he might put the doctor urged, "and if you will follow dmself through all of the fancy movements my advise, you will soon observe a vast known to the art of physical culture. improvement in your comit:

He could if he would, do all of this, for taking the avarage Omahan as a type, he straws, the man walked to town the next has ample means to defray all expenses incident to the luxury-but after all, he walks.

Walking, the doctors may, is the very best form of exercise. That is why, perhaps, the Omaha man profers walking to the man, "I wonder why the doctor doesn't the more fancy mathods such as are llius- try it himself? I'll just ask him that questrated in the health magazines.

If a correct consus were taken of Omaha. men of affairs who every working morning the doctor, whereat that worthy marely of the week walk from home to office, the smilled and remarked that it is the doctor's result would be a numerical surprise. If business to give medicine, not to take it. there be skeptics who doubt the genural So the man kept on walking. That was prevalence of the walking habit in Omaha, nearly ten years ago. He is still walking - in the Omaha "who's who," you know that they will see for themselvas scores of promi- just as though the sun were shining. nent citizens swinging their way along on Others from time to time, one by one,

Still sheptical, but willing to grab at morning. As he nwung into Farnam street at the intersection of Thirty-sixth street he naw his doctor whizzing by in a big red automobile which at that time ras a novelty in Omalia.

Julian Olseen

' If walking is such a good thing, mused m. It's a poner for him

Later in the day, the man interrogated

let them journey out on West Farnam, that is, he walks from his home to his Lieutenant Governor -E. G. McGilion is Park avenue or any one of several other office every morning. Sometimes there is coming. He walks like the history writers prominent thoroughfares any morning an early rain, but on these occasions out say Abs Lincoln walked-that is, he incaralong about 8 o'clock, or a little later, and comes a big rain coat and the man walks thes off a pard or more of distance ever! time he steps.

C. G. George lives in Dundee, and as dropped thto the "walking down" habit, miles are measured, Dundes 's a consider-Casper E. Yost, president of the Nebranka Some prefer to say "walking up town." able distance from from the heart of things npany, an Omaha ploneer who Perhaps it would be correct linguistic ell- in Omaha. Yet, rain or shine, Mr. Ceorga

Jno.C.French

Casper E.Yost

N.B.Updike -E.W.Westbrooke Judge Ben Baker Judge Cockrell has helped for many years to make local mination to simply "walk to town," omit- traverses the ground on foot every working C. H. Pickens, whose name has for years and others who deal in the product of the rived from systematic pede-triavism is H. B. Hover, but to be a good in found in the experience of John C. Whart n. once agreed to take up the walking habit, been indefinity linked with things commer- rich farm land tribuary to Omaha. elub. It is called the "pedestrian club" un-officially, because it is not really a club so far as formal organization is concerned. Mr. Yost, now well along in the afternoon clerk whose $15 pay envelope comes around Mr. Yost, now well along in the afternoon clerk whose $15 pay envelope comes around in the future his enthusiasm will feach fatty symptoms well along in the afternoon clerk whose $15 pay envelope comes around in the future his enthusiasm will feach fatty symptoms well along in the afternoon clerk whose $15 pay envelope comes around in the future his enthusiasm will feach fatty symptoms well along in the afternoon clerk whose $15 pay envelope comes around in the future his enthusiasm will feach fatty symptoms well along in the afternoon clerk whose $15 pay envelope comes around in the future his enthusiasm will feach fatty symptoms well along and do clerk whose $15 pay envelope comes around in the future his enthusiasm will feach fatty symptoms well along and do clerk whose $15 pay envelope comes around in the future his enthusiasm in pedestrianism. in the future his enthusiasm in pedestrianism in pedestrianism in pedestrianism. in the future his enthusiasm in pedestrianism in pedestrianism in pedestrianism. in the future his enthusiasm in pedestrianism in pedestrianism in pedestrianism. of a busy life, has made a practice of cover- every Saturday night whizzes by on the ing the distance between his will prompt him to walk all for threw a fright into the mind of Mr. legs every merning and evening. Ing the distance between his non-of to the lure of a big automobile, a point that will prompt him to walk all for threw a fright into the mind of Mr. legs every merning and evening. Each menth or so a new recruit joins the street home and the Bach menth or so a new recruit joins the office on foot for ten years or more. He husiness, however. He has no gouty swell- quick time, Mr. Resewairr thinks as he of mornings townward bent, Mr. Playens he is content to journey a part of the way yet time for application of the remedy aniking brigade, and thus for the joiners. and that the aforesaid restedy was walking, have much more than overbalanced the Perise: United States Senator Joseph H. So Mr. Wharton not only acquired the habit backsiders. If Theodore Roosevelt, the are weighed and determined in highlind very data there is a logil Millard is prominent among the older mem- of walking to town, but he goes the other stremmus, were an Omahan, he would find problem on the way down town. He rarries bers of the predestrian club. He lives on pedestrians one better and arises about 5 company a-plenty on his rambles, and if "I have found walking down town of looms up over the crest of the Farnam Charles C. Reservater, general manager a big umbralla, rain or shine. He is one South Thirty-eighth in the '500' block, and o'clock each morning for a ramble before that far-famed theatrical troupe which rag-mornings to be of great physical benefit." Street hill, the tallest man in Omaha. You of the Bee, is also a member of the best walkers in the city. it is his custom to walk the greater part breakfast. Sometimes he covers eight or time song history declares had trouble in as of the time to and from his bank. ten miles between the hours of 5 and 7 transit from Schneetedy to Troy had had pever have been written.

history, is nominally dean of the Pedestrian ting whether it is "down" or "up." Waiving morning of the week.

lives at Thirty-minth and Davenport streets ing to reduce, and besides, if he prefers to walks, and many questions of importances rushes by leaving only a streak of pasaline on the street car. and his office is at Eighteenth and Douglas go townward by trolley, there is none with are weighed and determined in his mind vapor as a taunting defy to the club. streets. It is surprising how easily he clips right to object.

Along about 5 o'clock every morning there sactum. off that space. says Mr. Yost, "and it is also a pleasure can see him blocks away, bis easy, swingleg trian club. He lives on Dawey avenue and Ne's Epdike studies the grain problem as of the time to and from his bank. ten miles between the hours of 5 and 7 transit from Schneetedy to Troy had had which I would regret to surrender. I have striking suppleness of limb and prefers an early morning walk to an auto- he drills along Likewise. Edward S. West- Perhaps one of the most striking ex- o'clock. Then, after breakfast, he walks the Omana walking spirit, the song would been at it so long now that it would seem case of respiration. Then if you are versed mobile ride any time.

ChasWLinstrom's

Car-Second Prize

C.C.Rosewater

brook, John A. Ruhn, Frank S. Cowgill amples of the physical benefits to be de- to his office,

Automobile Procession at York Calls Up Pictures of Days Gone By

ried the mind back to that not very fur cutbuildings, the pretty little city with its of their attractiveness.

HE business men of York are lowed by the freighters who gave way in finally decided to give the first prize to going about in the right was time to evilization and the locomotive. Mrs. Herman liehling, whose car was done to take care of their local Thus the red man, the hunter and trapper, in flowers in purple and white, and pretrade. One of their plans is to scarcely less savage, the planeer, the gold cented a most lovely sight. The second provide their customers with secker, the pledding freighter, the railroad prize was awarded to Mr. Charles W. Linprovide their customers with entertainment of a rational sort. Recently an automobile race was made the order of the day. All of the automobile owners within the neighbor-hood of the prosperous city were invited to take machines were in line whon the secker the piedding freishter, the railroad prize was awarded to arr that we will do and the automobile have figured in the strem, who drove file own car and who was panarama surgrested by the process on of thought by man? to be entitled to first saily decked automobiles that passed in place. The third prize was given to the sathered in the city of York to make a floar it had on exhibition. This was a modern holiday. This picture of the mutations of time is spiendidly executed design and attracted a to take machines were in line whon the decked machines were in line when the not more vivid than that presented by York great deal of favorable commont as it procession moved along the stream. It county and the city itself. The beautiful passed along. Many of the other cars were was a most remarkable spoctacle and car- farms with their handsome homes and deserving of the highest praise by reason away time when the processions along the business blocks, the brick and stone of its. York is now planning another great enway were those of the migrating indians well kept streets, its parks, its lights, its tertainment in the way of a corn show. with their hardy ponies, squaws and pan- every evidence of material prosperity seems which is being looked forward to by every posses, or the war party, naked and be to have spring up as at the touch of a farmer in the county. It is proposed to daubed, slipping stealthily along the trail, rairy's wand from the wilderness itself. make this the largest and best corn show Another procession that has passed this. The most arduous duty of the day de- of its kind hold in the state. The Comway was that of the prairie schooner, the volved upon the judges who were called mercial club of York, which is a live wire arsonauts of '49 making their way to the upon to select the most attractive from in everything, is back of the undertaking gold fields of the New El Dorado beyond among the large number of beautifully and proposes to see that success is the mountains. These in turn were fol- decorated automobiles on parade. They achieved.

Mrs. Herman Behling's Car Purple and White - First Prize

Nelson Auto Company's Float - Third Prize

From the Story Tellers' Pack

A Costly Difference. drum. This is it:

laborer!

farm assistant

B5 centres -

'I know another litled man. Judge Greene, ENATOR JOHN TILDEN MUR- " Are you, sir, I once asked him. 'a PHY recently evolved what he United States judge of a circuit court considered to be a fine conun- Judge?

' i ain't neither,' he replied. I'm à judge "What is the difference be- of hors racin'." -- Philadelphia Record. tween a druggist and a furm rus answer, so Senator Murphy says, is: Robert Lincoln O'Brien, editor of the "One is a pharmaclat, the other is a Boston Transcript, is a great admirer of the thrift of the Vermonters, but thinks The other night he strolled into a drug sometimes they carry it too far.

Carrying Thailt Too Far.

store in his district to get a prescription O'Erich was up in Vermont last summer filled, the chief ingredient of which was and went to dinner with a friend who has boras. He propounded the conundrum to some political aspirations. As they came in his drug friend. After a slight montal the door he heard the lady of the house struggle the clerk "gave it up" and was say to the hired girl:

prescription was filled and the price was tare down to the cellar and bring up three stnall ones."-New York Sun.

"Tranks," said Senator Murphy, "I can understand the la cents, but what is the so Talked Esperante in understand the la cents, but what is the so When Mr. Smith-your intimate friend that is the difference between the pliarma. arceied by his wife with this:

missioner of weights and nicasures, advo- me," cates the sale of bread strictly by weight -1 just couldn't make it all out, but it

who wore a placard, saying, 'I have only and through its agency he must have made two years' silences a or $7 a day.

placard, in Los Angeles in 1969. "Why, you ought to be ashamed of body before."

ing that five years ago. Well,' growled the bergar, 'it ain't my last."

fauit, is it, if the doctors make mistakes? -New York Timos, met a general who not his title neither by to kies her. The bridegroom did as diyou could mention.

Empty Titles. our American fondness for titles.

come by this title of yours, anyway? in the flour trade and for twenty-suven would charge only half the usual fee."years wan a general miller."

told the answer, and in duty bound. 'I see Mr. Jones has somebody with laughed heartily. A few minutes later the blm to dinner. Take these two big pola-

"Oh, that," replied the druggist binnely, Smith-awoke the other morning he was cist and the tarm assistant. -Philadelphia "M: sweet boy, do you know you came borne tast night and you talked in your 22002217

Not it is Foult. "Great Scott. No. did 17" said Smith. Clement J. Driscoil, New York's com- badly agitated. "What did I say? Tell

"Some bakers oppose this idea," he said wounded like ante-up-jack pot stake." the other day. "ancy prove that is better toth, yes, yes, yes, my dear, I was reciting for the poor to trust to the baher's gen- a little esperanto that a friend was teacherosity than to pin him down, as grocars ing may a intended to tell it to you when "Well, it seems to me that these takers are as illogical and absurd as the beggar who were a placed, sector of the beggar six months to live. He was a robust George Ade, at a dinner at Hazelden beggar, but the pincard touched all hearts, farm, his indiana residence, said of his

True, to Life.

"You ace, I am thinking up original and A Putladelphian who had helped the readenic toras. And for my heroine I've beggar liberally in Philadelphia in 1935 hit on a remarkable good thing. "It's so came across the fellow, wearing the same shaple and so true. It's a wonder it never yourself," the Philadelphian crieft. Only . "What is it?" a guest asked, esgerly. six months to live, forecosh! You were say- "My hereine," said Mr. Ade, "Is a bruneite in the first act and a blonde in the

A Cierleal Retort.

At a certain church it is the custom at a marriage for the clergyman to kiss the William Jennings Bryan once joked about bride after the ceremony. A young woman who was about to be married in the You all know of the colonel," he said, church did not relish the prospect, and "who got his litle by inheritance, baving instructed her prospective husband to tellmarried Colonei Brown's widow. But I once the clergyman that she did not wish him inheritance, nor by service, nor by anything rected. "Weil, George," said the young woman when he appeared. "did you tell "General," I said to him, 'how do you the clergyman that I did not wish him to "Oh, yes." "And what did kiss mer 'Why, sir,' said he. 'I pansed my youth he say?' 'He said that in that case he London Vanity Fair.

