

Fall Real Estate Number

Own a home.
It doesn't matter what your neighbor says.
He may prefer to rent. Maybe it is better
that he should rent.
Certainly there should be renters, and for them
there are plenty houses built.
But you—you should live in your own house.
There is inspiration in owning a home.
The thrill of life is browsing there.
Take hold of it.
Feel its power.
Let the thriftiest impulse that ever beat its wings in the human soul fly into yours.
Let it in now.
The captains of Omaha Real Estate have full sway in this section of The Bee.
It is devoted to them.
They will tell you more of value in a few words of this issue than experience can teach you in many years.
They have taken the pains to go over the situation today, and prepare lists that you should not fail to see.
You cannot afford to miss them.
Future generations will stand upon the foundation that you are building now.
Think!
