GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Prices Go Up Trifle from the Recent Fall.

TRADING CAUSES AN ADVANCE

Corn Prices Were Easy, Owing to Fine Weather in Corn Belt and Liberal Receipts — Wheat Prices Expected to Fall.

OMAHA, Sept. 19, 1910.

Wheat values have advanced some from the late decline, with some show of strength on the part of country dealers who are being rather dull. It is very evident that a decided reduction in the primary receipts and a more active cash trade is necessary to sustain values.

Fine weather over the corn belt and fairly liberal receipts with increased selling on the part of country dealers gave the corn market an easy tone.

Wheat was choppy and nervous, ranging a trifle higher, with demand fairly good. Conditions are generally conceded to be bearish and no permanent advance is anticipated at this time.

The decline in corn continued, due to very favorable news concerning the new crop which is practically safe now from frost damage. Cash demand was rather slow and samples were bid in 1c under Saturday.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,064,000 bushels and shipments were 720,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 1,300,000 bushels and shipments of 321,000 bushels.

Primary corn receipts were 732,000 bushels and shipments were 386,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 602,000 bushels and shipments of 300,000 bushels.

Clearances were 8,000 bushels of corn, none of oats and wheat and flour equal to 71,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed ½d to ¾d higher on wheat and ½d to ¾d lower on corn.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on the Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Professional speculators worked mainly on the buying side in wheat today and boosted prices materially, but the close was at a reaction and left the market unchanged to ¼@¾c below the final figures of Saturday. Absence of export business formed the dominating influence in the latest dealings. Corn finished 2@2½c down to ¾c up, oats unchanged to ¼c off, and hog products varying from 7½c loss to 1c advance.

Covering by short sales, especially those of a southwestern operator, gave the wheat market its direction to a large extent. Some of the incentives were a decrease in primary receipts, the smallness of the visible supply, and an increased estimate of the crop in France. World's shipments, too, showed a big falling off.

What wavering there was in the market occurred chiefly in the first hour, or near the end of the day. December fluctuated between 99¾@99¼c and $1.00¾@1.00¼, and closed weak at $1.00@1.00¼, a net loss of ¼@¾c.

Summer temperatures in the corn belt and free selling of both new and old corn to arrive made a weak market for corn. December ranged from 52½@53¼c, closing steady at 52@53¼c, a net loss of ¼@¾c. The cash market was easy. No. 2 yellow closed at 54@54½c.

Oats were down with other grains early, but rallied. Spot was relatively weaker than the distant months. December sold from 35¾@35½c to 35¼@35¾c and closed unchanged at 35¾c.

Support from packers was necessary to boost provisions, latest quotations showing pork 7½c off to 2½c up, lard unchanged to 12½c higher and ribs ranging from Saturday's final figures to a raise of 15c.

Leading futures ranged as follows:

Total clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 91,000 bu. Primary receipts were 2,864,000 bu., compared with 2,180,000 bu. the corresponding day a year ago. The visible supply of wheat in the United States increased 909,000 bu. for the week. The amount of breadstuff on ocean passage decreased 1,228,000 bu. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 119 cars; corn, 507 cars; oats, 162 cars; hogs, 12,000 head.

Pine weather, the selling of corn, December started unchanged to ¼c off at 55¼@55¾c, and declined to 55@55¼c.

Liberal expert sales of old corn occasioned covering by shorts and turned prices upwards. The close was steady, with December at 55¾@56c, a net loss of ¼@¾c.

Provisions showed no energy. First transactions were at a loss of 5c, with January pork at $19.75, and October ribs at $11.30. There was nothing doing in lard.

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT

Little Change in Temperature is Expected in This Vicinity.

OMAHA, Sept. 19, 1910.

Generally fair weather has prevailed everywhere west of the Mississippi river during the last forty-eight hours, except that light showers occurred within the last twenty-four hours on the lower Rocky Mountain slope. Rains have fallen in the Ohio valley and lake region and falls exceeding one inch occurred at points in Ohio and Indiana. Light rains also occurred on the west gulf coast. Generally cloudy weather prevails this morning in the Ohio valley, Lake region and throughout the eastern states. There has been no important change in temperature in any section since the preceding report. It is slightly cooler along the Atlantic coast and in the upper Mississippi valley and upper Lake region, and is slightly warmer in the upper Missouri valley and the northwest. The indications are for continued fair in this vicinity tonight and Tuesday, with not much change in temperature.

Sugar Stocks Drop on Account of New Suit for Dissolution—Reopening of Rate Hearing is Important.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The stock market showed nothing so clearly as the insistent determination of speculators to mark time and await events. The net changes at the end of the day proved inconsequential.

Immediate events had little effect on the market in view of the importance attached to the outcome of affairs in the more distant futures, especially the elections and the supreme court decisions on the trust cases. There was a drop of two points in the shares of the American Sugar Refining company which was ascribed to the new suit intented for its dissolution.

The reopening of railroad rate hearing at Chicago is looked upon as starting an important stage in that proceeding which may define more clearly the scope of the task confronting the Interstate Commerce Commission in shaping a method for fixing freight charges. It is expected that a weight will remain on speculative activity in railroad securities until more light is obtained on the outcome of the rate inquiry.

A rise in copper in London was an incident of the day. Street trade advices were not altered in tone, the expectation persisting that lower prices for finished products will be shortly announced.

The small competition manifest for the week's arrivals of gold in the London market had a quieting effect on money markets. Last week's loan expansion of the New York banks is said to have been for account of southern financial centers and obviously represents preparation for possible contingencies in the cotton bill controversy with foreign bankers.
