WEAK KIDNEYS & THIN BLOOD

Not only is the blood the great nourishing source of our systems, but equally as important is its work of removing the waste of oxodized tis-sues which have been consumed in force and bodily heat. This waste is filtered out through the kidneys. When, however, the kidneys become weak and unable to perform their regular duties, the waste is allowed to remain in the circulation, soon forming uric acid which destroys the greater portion of nourishing elements of the blood and leave it weak and acrid. This imperfect blood deposits into the different muscles and joints the uratic impurity with which it is contaminated. Then the pains and aches of Rheumatism commence. The gritty formation which uric acid causes collects in the joints and produces the aches and stiffness which always accompany the disease. Likewise the muscles are coated and lose their elasticity, while the continual irritation to the nerves produces swelling and inflammation of the flesh.

S. S S. cures Rheumatism in the only way it is possible to overcome the disease; it cleanses the blood of all uric acid poison and strengthens the kidneys so they are enabled to properly filter out the wasten S. S. S. is not only the best of blood purifiers, but a fine tonic. Book on Rheumatism free to all who write.

The Hollys won from their old rivals, the Americans, by the score of $ to 5 at Vinton street pair yesterday. The game was fast and snappy, except for one bad inning. The Hollys went after the game from the start, securing one run in the second and fifth each, had we not and whiffing the strike out of the box in the sixth and pushed six men across the ball. Hickey for the Hollys was rather wild, but pulled out of some bad holes. The Americans secured their runs in the seventh. A hit, a walk and a couple of well placed bunts did the work, but the Hollys settled down in time to save the game.

Falconer's throw from deep center, catching a man at hird, and the playing of Rapp at second were the features. Gibson, the former Holly catcher, caught a good game. Score:
