Nebraska Teacher Tells of the Sterling Worth of the Omaha Superintendent.

In the September issue of the Nebraska Teacher it pays a fine tribute to the Omaha schools and especially to Dr W. M. Davidson, superintendent of instruction of the Omaha public schools A Good Record.

Omaha's new high school building is nearing completion. When finished it will be one of the finest school buildings in the country. But Omaha s building other fine buildings besides the high school. Several of the best grade buildings anywhere have been built in the last two or three years. And Omaha la doing more than build good schools. The salaries of the principals and teachers have been raised to a point where compare very favorable with the very best cities of the whole country. There has been progress in every line as a result there are better buildings, better course of study, better teachers and of course better schools. There is one dominating force behind all these things. It is the supern-tendent of schools. He has the confidence of the Board of Education and of the people.
