"GETTING IN THE FIRST WEDGE"

It's the start that "sticks" you. The hard job is to get the first wedge in when you're splitting your way to success. Getting in the first wedge in the business world means getting a position where you will have "a chance to work your way up"—a chance to get in the second wedge. To get get such a position today—to get a position where the powers that be can observe your ability and your hard work, where deserved promotion will be prompt. You must be trained to take up the reins of business when you take up the position. Business men can't wait for you to "pick up" this training. You've got to "know how" the minute you accept the situation. You've got to be a stenographer who knows stenography as well as you know the multiplication table—and know a typewriter as well as an expert planist knows the plano. You've got to be a bookeeper to whom every little trick of rapid calculation is as simple as the A B Cs—to whom all modern and time-saving book-keeping methods are as familiar as simple addition. You'e got to be a telegrapher who knows infinitely more than the old-time telegrapher, who started in as a mosenerge boy and "picked up" his learning. You must be a telegrapher to whom both the theory and practice of not only telegraphy, but electricity as applied to telegraphy, is an open book. It is to this kind

BOYLES COLLEGE

BOYLES COLLEGE

Stenographers, Bookkeepers and Telegraphers that the doors of success are always open. Our Civil Service Courses prepare you to successfully pass examinations for positions as Government Railway Clerk, Government Stenographer, Government Bookkeeper or Government Departmental Clerk. It is the incompetent, careless business college graduate to whom the back door of rejection or meager salary is alone opened. We don't want you to take our word for the efficiency of Boyle College Courses, or the superiority of our instructor staff. Take the word of any Boyles College graduate. Take the word of the Smith Premier, Underwood or Remington Typewriter Agencies, which would gladly give positions to twice as many graduates as we are able to supply. Take the word of Omaha's biggest business men and largest employers of Bookkeepers and Stanographers who last year made demands upon us for twice as many graduates as we could possibly produce. Take the word of the great railroad officials and telegraph officials of this section of the country, who know that none other than thorough-going, heady, competent telegraphers are produced by Boyles College. And always keep in mind that it is the bost for you to attend the business college where the best business men and railroad officials have found the best hookkeepers, Senographers and Telegraphers. Pay us a visit any time. We will gladly show you through the only business college building in Nebraska devoted wu...liy and solely to business college purposes.

Or, next best, send for the large free book.

It is the Mission of the

Mosher-Lampman College

to help young people; to give them the training that will enable them to accomplish more in the world. Don't be satisfied with a little job when you can get a big one. You can get a big one if you prepare for it at the Mosher-Lampman college. Mosher & Lampman HAVE HELPED HUNDREDS OF YOUNG PEOPLE TO DOUBLE THEIR SALARIES, let them help you. There are two reasons why students who attend the Mosher-

Lampman college can accomplish so much more than those who attend the ordinary business college. First: EVERY TEACHER IN THE MOSHER-LAMPMAN COLLEGE IS AN EXPERT, WHO HAS HAD YEARS OF EX-PERIENCE IN TRAINING YOUNG PEOPLE FOR THE BUSI NESS WORLD.

Second: There are no side issues to distract the student's attention from his studies. At the Mosher-Lampman college there is no baseball, no foot ball, no dances-nothing, but business. The result is that the head of the Mosher Lampman graduate, is filled with knowledge for which a business man is willing to pay a good salary.

The Van Sant School has the highest average of education among its students found in business schools. Of the seventyfive students now enrolled, 20 per cent have had college and university training, 60 per cent have had high school training, and of the 20 per cent which have had only eight grade preparation, the majority have had from one to eight years' subsequent business experience. If you want EDUCATED, WELL-TRAINED stenographers and private secretaries, call on that school which can supply them.
