CAST MY

Boss of the Establishment His Happy Boyhood Days.

STERF SAMERE MAN Let's go over to Staten island for dia-dead for

r," suggested the wife of the Boss of the tablishment.

Nelli-answered by lord, for once unmoved by the name of the favorite suburbull reflightent: "States island is too far." Then let's fook through the Where to Dine' column in the evening paper and find some place we've never been in and try it. pursed the lady, who was conclains of an exployer, wastronomically speaking, and was give ve application over her discoveries. This ingrestion met with a more favor

But the Boss' ever wantlered to the ca cursion advertisements, and suddenly an expression, that iningled daring and delight, overspread his two.

Til tell you what we'll dor he exclaimed. Let's take the night boat up to Athany: You've always said you wanted to see where I lived as a boy, where I went school and where J got my first job; Now's your chance, young woman't We' got just an hour to eateh the boat 1soon can you get reads " from the depths of her bedroom, where she was already throwing haptomard garments into a traveling bag ove think that will be perfectly wanderful. How did you ever appen so think of anything so lovely?" 'Oh, a don't know " Maybe I wanted to

Already in his mind's eye the Boss saw to stagnate in a small fown while he had en wresting fame and fortupe-or at least a salary that he could live on-from the After a while Mr. Hobbs permitted the great city. How gird they would be to see dat of dropping may his hostely for disappeared.

at the finie, but perhaps as he looked back, called out: there was more an H than he thought Poor girl, she was still unmarried. The trip up the Hudson was uneventfully you arrested?

muneystike those fellows in New York " rejuctant recognition. theroughly imbued with the 'back-to-the- coursed as Juliet from the balcony. farm, apprit of her lord. So much so that "Living in New York now, are you" Well

The Boss nodded across the dining room rapturous recognition, and that they would city of cold greed. fall forthwith into each other's arms.

hotel deak, did not disenchant her.

But the rapture was long in coming. fact. the expression on the hotel man's face told the story of his thoughts to its least petty suspicion.

"If that fellow thinks he's going to work win one-of-these dazzling smiles, replied any phoney checks on me by that game, the figure fangthouse. Hobbs reflected. But the Boss arose, and, striding down himself shaking hands with his boyhood the room, made bimself known to his old trickeds the fellows who had been content school fellow, who, more or less reluctantly, let himself be taken to the Boss' table and Introduced to the Bora' wife.

After a while Mr. Hobbs permitted the coursed during their meal of the number was Bill Hoobs. Bill was keeping of men from the city who, had "stuck him for bills. But just before the Boss" hotel and they must certainly make a check was brought Mr. Hobbs discreetly

His spirits a little dashed, the Boss led Then there was Namie Jones, who still his wife to the home of his boyhood. It leed next door to the home of the Boss was cheerless and tenantiess. Flowers and What a sweet girl Nannie was, weeds rioted in the formerly well kept pard. the Boss remembered that his sisters nosegny to keep forever in honor of the to tease him about Nannie and say occasion when suddenly a window in the not she cared for him. He had laughed next house went up and a shrill voice "Bon't you dare to pick them flowers:

I'm in charge of that-house and I'll bave Glancing up the boss beheld the mummi-It'll be good to see some real people fied likeness of his beybood sweetheart.

nos more," the Boss said. "Fine hearty, "Howdy do, Miss Nannie!" he called, and friendly-muls that value a man on his own after five minutes' explanation wrenched metit and not for what he is worth in from the mummy in the window a rather The Boss wife modded. She was now She did not offer to come down but dis-

the eight of a big, bloated dull-eyed crea- some folks like it. When are you going ture, pointed out as Skill Hobbs at the back?

The Boss glared

Daughters of Famous Men

ALICE MAG GOWAN

ing in military comend of the district, and accessible to another, until a very few years ago.

of the Compertund, and author of several monographs on war, subjects, and lest

SWEET BELLS JANGUED

bells of the village.

Well, he certainly did ring the Miss Alice MacGowan, who, like her behind him a collection of documents and sister. Mrs. Grace MacGowan Cooke, has books concerning the civil war which have to Charteneoga while it was still oc- branches of the service, duries, letters, cupied by federal troops, her father be- memoranda that would nave been in-lived in the locality where her new story. So conscientious has she been in her

"The Sword in the Mountains," is laid quest for local color that in 1890 she rode Directly after the war there was from Roan mountain in North Carolina exceety shelf a thing as a school to be to her home in Chattanooga, covering the instruction in 186, in that Haptist church Miss MacGowan is a woman of great where the midnight court murtial in "The charm and marked ability. Of late years swird in the Mountain" is represented as she has fived at Carmel-by-the-Sea. She suthering was known as the Post Chapel Skinner's tragedy, "Davie, which was

Her further was a member of the army the Forest theater in Carmel-by-the-Sea.

had, but Mass Mactiowan remembered her distance of 1,000 miles in eight weeks.

"Right away!" he said, explusively. And to his old friend expecting of course, that turning to his wife he led her to a street an expression of bewilderment on Mr. car. Clence to the failured station and Hobbs' face would be followed by one of thence by the fastest express back to the (Copyright, 1810, by the N. Y Herald Co.)

MONDAY -- After the rest of Moille's p guests had gone she made me stay a few days longer. Mrs. Deering gave a ball the following Saturday night and begged me to spend the week end with her. She said she had some very attractive people staying there, and although Tom was not going. promited to be great fun. She motored for me Priday aftern I knew right away that I was going to en-Joy myself immensely before we had gone a mile. She had brought two of the men over with her, and she and I sat in the back with the most attractive one between us. He was English, and not so very good looking, but had such a fascinating way of taking it for granted that you liked him a great deal, and as I did like him immediately, we got along beautifully to-

BOOK SAYS UNSCREW

PULL ME OUT.

WIFEY. BEFORE

I'M ASPHYXIATED

match; and I had a wonderful time. It was moonlight and the plazzas looked falrylike, with magic lanterns bung around that gave a soft greenish glow to everything. Though my gown was so narrow are und the bottom that I just managed to THE EFFECT WAS VERY STRIKwalk camfortably I felt quite old-fashioned compared with one or two dresses that gether. I wore my pale green satis the night of the dance, with the slippers to were there.

being held, which was then called the bas considerable ability as an amateur the back, that almost, if not quite, came sitting and reminded me that I had said the back, that almost, if not quite, came atting and reminded me that I had said to her waist line. It was tight fitting to I would take a walk in the moonlight with to her waist line. It was tight fitting to I would take a walk in the moonlight with ment there acted as teacher to a number. Miss MacGowan recently took part in her knees and still tighter below them and him.

ESTING DISCUSSION ABOUT EYES."

If the efficient endired and the little an open-air performance of Constance was first-colored silk of some nort from I had known Jack Crawford in New York, mean things, so I never feel that I must down. He insisted.

A Summer Girl

The DIARY of DOLL

ING.

a moment and flatly refused to introduce the following evening, though, and made it One woman had a sect of princess effect Sam Turner to her. She had her hair ar- all right. The trouble with him is that he ranged in the latest thing, th a sort of tight believes everything you say to him. turban effect that bound her whole head nearly and was awfully becoming. Old count. Mr. Deering, who doesn't know a thing Tom siwars seems to know when I don't about the fashions, said he thought she was a stonning looking woman, but it was a pity that she evidently had such a bad headache she had to have her head all bound up.

Molite and Mrs. Decring, who simply cannot bear one another, and never agree upon anything, almost felt fenderly toward each other after they had discussed how disgracefully she looked, and how terribly she made up. Sam had managed to get introduced, and he and Mrs. Deering were being very kind to her, and trying to give her a splendid time. I sat out one or two dances with the Englishman I had come over with in the machine on Friday. He was named Craig, and had been to India and Egypt a lot, and was remarkably entertaining to talk to. Besides being able to talk about those places, he could converse about ever so many other things, too, most intelli-"SHE EVIDENTLY HAD SUCH A BAD gently. We were having such an interest HEADACHE." ing discussion about eyes when a man In black, that was cut down to a point in named Crawford came up to where we were there down. The effect was very striking and though he would be delightful to walk be unnatural with him and only say what from a little distance. She certainly was with under any circumstances, I felt at that I mean.

SAY, JOHN, WE

WILL NEVER

He said I had promised, and was fearthing we didn't want him to hear, but, anya little stroll around the garden with him At times he is very trying on that ac

ESTING DISCUSSION ABOUT EYES.

Things You Want to Know

The final official lawn tennis tournament promipent men throughout the world as in North America for the season of 1916 will the game of tennis, unless it be golf. The take place tomorrow in Mexico City. Mex. whole world is familiar with the "tennis under the auspices of the Mexico Country and in Europe the game has been equally club. This meeting was to have been the well patronized by kings and potentates. opening number of the season, but was The late king of Portugal was one of the later postponed to be the final event. This enthusiasts of the game, and there are season has been one of incident, and has many pictures extent showing how well be marked the highest point that tenns has handled the racquet. Few games require ever reached in popular interest. Both in such a constant strain on the part of the regard to the number of players in the vari- player. Once the ball is put into play, it ous events recognized by the national or- is a case of keeping everelastingly at it for ganization, and is the number of people nearly two hours as a rule. In many of who have constituted the galleries at these the great tournaments the principle contesmeetings, unprecedented interest has been tants undergo periods of training almost

One great international event on the cal-America will send a challenging team to skilled markeman, the good tennis player Australia in an effort to reclaim the cup-This trophy is to the game of tennes what steady nerve, and no form of dissipation the America's cup is to the yachting world, will permit a man to retain these qualities It was presented by Mr. Dwight Davis in 1900 to be contested for as often as there win it back.

At the historic games at Wimbledon, played under the auspices of the All-Eng-Great Britain went to Wilding, a New and the bare hand. The grounds were and Tennis club, the championship of Zealander. In years gone by this cham-shaped something like an hour glass. pionship was proudly claimed by the Enghe will have no right to claim that he is the ditions of racquets have been used. champion player of the world. Larned has The name of tennis is believed to have never lowered his colors to the New Zealander and it is believed by American tennis experts that a match between them would result in the triumps of the American.

A notable feature of the present season championship class, that of the clay court title of "sphairstike." This name was At the February meeting of the United given it by Major W. C. Winfield an offi-States National Tennis association, it was decided to give the supporters of the clay recognized as the father of the modern of conducting this event was awarded to of the Learnington club claim that they the Omaha Pield club of Omaha. Nob. The played it fifteen years before the advent of tournament was voted by all tennis authori- Wingfield's "sphairstike." The first orties to have been a magnificent success. ganized laws for the game were formulated crowd which constituted the gallery was club. At the urgent suggestion of Henry pionship went to a California player. Melville E. Long one of the members of the sitting team which went to Australia last year in quest of the Davis cup. There seems to Men are so tactiess at times in remind- be little question that the clay court chaming one of little things one has said. I pionship has established itself firmly and finally told him that I didn't want to walk will be one of the principle events of future in the territory of the United States Na-

him how thin my slippers looked he seemed been used in all the principle tournaments. that a National Lawn Tennis association determined than before. So I said and it is the hope of most tennis enthusi- was organized in ISSL Although there have if he would get me a pair of heavy boots asts that such courts will remain the favor- been a number of other national organiza-I'd go. It seemed a very safe thing to say, ites in future. The culminating event of tions, this 'one has succeeded in making He went off, and Mr. Craig and I resumed the year is the Newport tournament, where itself the court of last resort in tennis our discussion about eyes, and had just the gallary is made up largely of the mil- matters in America. It now has a membegun an angument about hair when we Bonai e's club, and it is hard to tell whether bership of nearly 200 clubs and the official heard steps approaching, and there was the players constitute more of a show for dates of each season are fixed by it. Its Jack Crawford with an enormous pair of the gallery or the gallery for the players, meetings are held in New York City, and goloshes he had found. And he actually This tournament is fought out on grass most of the business is transacted upon covered courts.

Numerous experiments have been made ing last February, in addition to establishfully persistent about it. Mr. Craig said this year with oil courts, and they have ing the clay court championship, it delow voice that if I did get up and proved popular wherever tried. They pos-cided that America should again challenge go walking with some one else he would sees many advantages, chief among which for the Davis cup; but if properly equipnever forgive me I told him in a lew is their freedom from dust, their springy ped players are not forthcoming it is voice that I didn't want to be rude to Mr. surface and their dark color, which serves doubtful is this decision will be carried out. Crawford, but I wouldn't dream of leaving to prevent the reflection of the sun's rays

Few games afford such advantages as nim sitting all alone there. Jack Crawford from the courts in to the faces of the tennis. The equipment is inexpensive, the may have thought we were saying some players. In Montana, tennis clubs have grounds required are small, two people way, he went off in a great huff. I took ing for the courts, with some success. In as a larger number; at the same time getthis material is applied to the courts it is anatomy. That it is growing in popular at first sticky and unsatisfactory, but a favor is attested by the increasing number few days of sunshine drives it into the of courts to be seen in every urban comearth and puts the ground into ideal con- munity, and that it deserves the favor it dition for the tennis player. Clubs else- is gaining is evidenced by the veedlet of all where have been watching these experi- who follow it-that it is without a peer as ments with molasses and it is probable it a health-giving exercise. will be rather widely used next year. No other gume is so generally played by as strenuous as those of a prefessional boxer. No one who keeps late hours, or ender. This is the tournament in Australia Otherwise violates the laws which make for the custody of the Davis cup, the blue for superb manhood, stands much chance ribbon of the entire tennis world. It has of winning the honors in an important not been determined definitely whother match. Like the man who would be a must have a remarkably keep eye and a

Although the game of lawn tennis is still less than 69 years old, there is much disshould be a challenging team. In that year pure as to its origin. We are told that a America succeeded in winning it. The fol- game closely related to it was played on a lowing year there was no nation to chal- court under the balconies of Queen Elizalonge for it. in 1962 it was played for by both's nalace, and that she greatly enjoyed teams representing the United States and watching its progress. It is doubted if Great Britain, and the American players there is any single feature in the modern were successful in defending their title. The tennis game that is absolutely original next year it was taken by the English team. The Romans are said to have been the and England held it against all comers in first people who ever played with a hall. four successive tournaments. Thereafter it In Europe a game involving some of the went to Australia, where it has remained. Ideas of tennis was played by the kings and neither England nor America being able to nobles of feudal times. It seems to have been to tennis what the old-fashioned longtown game of ball was to modern base ball Tennis first was played with a cork ball Later a glove was used on the hand, and lish to be the world's highest tennis honor, this glove was afterwards so improved but in recent years the United States has that there were strings leading from the succeeded in disproving this claim. Wilding forefinger to the thumb, thus extending can justly assume that he is the champion the hitting surface of the hand. It was an of the old world, but until he meets the easy stage of transition from this to the veteran American champion, W. A. Larned. modern racquet. All sizes, shapes and con-originated from the French word "tenex." a command to play. The modern name is but a phonetic rendition of this term. When the game first attained a national in America was the establishment of a new standing in England it had the suphonetic per of the British army, who is generally court a national tournament, and the honor game. He brought it out in 1874. Members There were kill contestants entered and the in March, 1875, by the Marylebone Cricket conservatively estimated at 5,000. The cham- Jones, afterward the "Cavendish" of modern whist, the All-England Croquet club at Wimbledon was induced to take up tennis. It immediately became the chief tennis organization of England and its decisions have obtined throughout the world, except The game was imported into the United He will insisted-in fact, after I had shown Heretofore the grass covered court has States in 1874, and grow in favor so rapidly > the proxies that are sent in. At its meetbeen experimenting with a molasses dress- can extract as much amusement from it making beet sugar there is a residue of ting all the benefits of the stremuous exsolids and water, which is not greatly dif- ercise it requires. This exercise calls into ferent from other forms of molasses. When play almost every muscle in the human

> > BY FREDERIC J. MASKIN. Tomorrow—Funeral Directors

Facial Faults May Result from Clogged Pores--External Treatment Good

be scrupulously careful with her diet, eat- It is mixed in any cold cream. WE WERE HAVING SUCH AN INTER- ing only those things which will digest easily and will keep her blood in good con-Only the simplest sweets, plainly cooked meants, fish and vegetables, as well as fruits, are to be on the dietary list, to seem so. Fried foods, or those served with greasy sauces or gravier and rich descerts are to ever worries about his finances.

External treatment is likely to improve want to: when a woma the condition and I recommend that those who need it shall keep liquid green soap to the house. This is chemically pure soxp. is exceedingly strong and must be put on with a brush whose bristles shall make a friction without irritating the skin. This soap is far more cleansing than any other. week, or it will injure.

The use of a face brush I consider imperative for those whose skin is not smooth. The short square train, faced with flan- The point to be remembered in selecting net or weighted to make it lie straight, one is that it shall not cause the skin to friend this week. "I have nothing except more water. As a rule, I get three or four has returned. On one from this was small. When if does so it must we reedged with a narrow quilling of the ma- jected. A brush which is too suff is sometimes reduced to proper texture by soaking it over night in hot water. All such brushes should be soaked for several hours before using the first time.

When pimples are opened, as they should lutely new needle, first washing the spot that it shall be very clean. The spot must Riack and white materials, especially in he pressed slowly and gently, and after the once with a drop of pure alcohol or spirits

Facial eruptions are not always caused by rough, is made from two drams of sulphur poor blood but may be a result of clogged precipitate, ten grains of campbor gum. Excessive perspiration allowed to twenty grains of acacia gum. and two dry on, dust which is not removed, any ounces each of lime water and rose water. foreign matter or particles that happen to This may be rubbed on freely, drying into ender the poles and are permitted to re- the skin. A cream for the same purpose, main there may irritate at choke, causing which is more convenient to carry, if one the pore to become a pimple or blackhead. Is traveling, is made from one-half ounce Tet because stomach or blood may have of lanoline, one-quarter of an ounce of something to do with the roughness a girl sweet almond oil, twenty drops or boric whose face is inclined to eruptions should acid and five drops of fincture of benzoin.

MARGARET MIXTER A Bachelor's Reflections. A man tries to be moral-a woman tries

Only the plumber with an automobile When a man says he won't he doesn't want to: when a woman says she won't

Items of Interest for the Women Folks

Daily Health Hint

alone through the Black mountain regions

presented at what has been aprly named

Cal. Miss MacGowan took the part of Astar, a flere Amalekitish princess, who rather than fall roto the hands of Nadab.

captain of the opers, slays herself. Miss MacGowan is the author of "Judity of the Cumberlands and "The Wiving of Lance her sister. Mrs Cooke, in several works of (Copyright, 1886, by the N. Y. Herald Co.)

Cleavage besides

colaborating with

'More than half of the disease which mbitters the madle and latter part of life is due to avoidable errors of diet." according to a recent medical authority. More mischief, in the form of actual disease, of impaired vigor, and of shortened life, accrues to civilized man from erronnous habits of cuthing than from the habitual use of alchoholic drink, considerable as I know that sail to sell.

A Disiliusion. I thought upon the state thy sketch. The Buttonhole, I'd try. thut when I did I found also.

It was the book and 1.

when I want to lose flesh," she teid a 4 o'clock I began to feel hollow, so I 1008 a cup of coffee until luncheon time. I cupfuls in the afternoon.

ful. The temperature is just cook Cold small. water will paralyze digestion if it is taken . Through the evening I drink more in large quantities.

By the time I am dressed a good, big to bed. cup of coffee is brenight, and there is "I exercise through the day, but not vioan bour I have another cup of water and great pains to sit correctly, keeping the an bour I have another cup of water and great pains to sit correctly, keeping the from them on I take one just as soon as I spine erect and my shoulders back. I have Coats are shorter and cut almost in hog of camphor.

A certain a san who finds that summer of food, but it also carries impurities from in sitting, so that one a lower organs are food and laziness always make her gain the system. food and laziness always make her gain the system.

Thrown out of plumb. I never have had but should not be used oftener than twice a large hips yet, and I don't nurpose beginprevents further increase and usually up of real food. Yesterday I had a hot ning slowly takes off a few pounds as well. roll, a place of cornbeef hash and a cup "I am a great believer in the water cure of junket It was all nourishing but about drink about three pints sometimes in the "Dunner is a good human meal for I eat terial. morning, although a quart is enough. what the others do, but I don't evereat. "I keep a carboy of spring water in my. The only thing I am particularly careful room and as soon as I wake I take a cup- about is the descert. My portion of that is water, and always have a cupful on going mens. Not only does it then take the place the surest way of having them is to slouch in evidence.

MARGARET MIXTER.

There are whispers of all sorts of revolutions, but so far the chief thing noted. is that simky lines are still with us, but he, the work is to be done with an abso-cream in it. I drink this slowly and then lendy. I walk and work in the garden, rough weaves, are among the most popular operation, in order that the pore may not start in with my housekeeping. In about but not to any extreme. I always take of the early fall materials for street wear, become enlarged, it is so be touched at from them on I take one just as soon as I spine erect and my shoulders back. I have Cours are shorter and cut almost an non or taken that may be put on afterward or negin to have the least feeling of hollow- a deadly normer of large hips, and hinha shapes with revers of all sizes and shapes with revers of all sizes and shapes or rubbed on nightly when the skin is very