Ball Game With Real Actors in the Positions

Cinderella Girl Company Wallops the Martin Beck Hired Hands at Vinton Park.

Having a real base ball game in their show for every performance makes it easy for the members of the Cinderella Girl company to pull off an imitation game occasionally and at Vinton street park Friday morning, a congregation of actors, singers, stage hands and ringers from the Orpheum was walloped by a score of 18 to 4 in four blissful innings. After that the exponents of vodevel went back to their own game of working an hour a day and drawing $500 a week—maybe.

The catcher and the wonder worker of the Brandeis theater bunch was Waller. He stood up behind the bat without fear and shipped every ball he could get his hands on. That was something of a difficult feat because R. Dale, the pitcher, had a world of speed.

Jack Henry, once a western league star, was drawn in for the Orpheum on the pretext that he once carried a bucket of paint for Charles Gore, as a friendly service for the Orpheum stage manager, but his skill couldn't make up for what the others did. Two of the three White Kuhns named A. Kuhn and B. Kuhn, respectively, were in prominent and disgraceful positions and Tommy, who would have to go by his last name if he ever joined a team, was a bright particular star from the Japanese troupe.

The Brandeis team was quite as duplicitous in its scheming as the vaudeville actors, and had it all planned to use the goat from the Cinderella Girl company as a useful force in an emergency, but the ridiculous plum-like ease with which the opposition fell into their outstretched maw made tricks all unnecessary. On the Orpheum team were: Holland, Tommy, Henry, Sidney, B. Kuhn, Murray, Hunter, Porter and Kuhn. The Brandeis conquering heroes were made up of E. H. Waller, R. Dale, L. C. Clausen, F. Wunderlay, L. Schnita, R. Radcliff, F. Mitchell, C. Klingbeil and C. Vorhees.

Some Good Scores Run Up on Omaha Alleys—Reios Show Up Well in First Contest.

The Pete Lochs and Brodegaard Crowns had an interesting series on the Metropolitan alleys last night. In the first game the Lochs had an easy time of it, but in the second game there was something doing all the time, with little Bill Voss hitting the pins for a 243 score, while M. Martin shot a 222 game. The Crowns captured the second game and laid down on the last.

Native Belle Wins Futurity at Columbus

Bad Manners of the Victor Throw Those Who Hold Tickets on Her Into Panic.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 30.—Native Belle and Miss Stokes, champion trotters of last year at 2 and 1 years, today won the 3-year-old and 2-year-old divisions of the Horse Review futurity in races that were made uncertain by the unsteadiness of each.

Native Belle was favorite, but her manners threw the wagering public into a panic that did not subside until she trotted all the way in the fifth heat and won it in 2:08¾. She did the first quarter of the first heat in 0:29¾.

Miss Stokes, first choice in the junior division, broke going away in the first heat, which went to Justice Brooke in slow time. The middle heat was a see-saw between the two almost all the way, which Miss Stokes won and took a record of 2:09¼. She won the third heat in slower time, though it was as stubbornly contested as the second one. Leftwhitch won the pacing division as she pleased.

In an attempt to beat his world's record of 2:01, made here a week ago today, The Harvester failed. He stepped the first quarter in less than half a minute, but took 0:31½ for the second quarter. The third one was trotted in 0:30 flat and the last in 0:30½, making the mile in 2:01¾.

Independence Boy, winner of three races last week, was favorite over the field of 2:09 pacers. He won in straight heats, Dickie C. forcing him to make the last one in 2:04¾.

2:09 class, pacing, three heats, $1,200:

Independence Boy, ch. g. (Valentine)	1	1	1

Madison and Stanton Today.

MADISON, Neb., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—The local foot ball aggregation, under the direction of Coach Garrey of the Madison High school, will measure strength with the Stanton team on the Madison gridiron Saturday. The game promises to be exciting and much is expected of the Madison lineup, owing to the superior management of Coach Garrey.

Schedule of Beatrice Team.

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—The Beatrice High school foot ball team is betting in shape for the season and has scheduled games with the following teams: Nebraska Military academy, October 7; Hebron, October 14; Fairbury, October 21; Hastings, November 4; Lincoln, November 24.

Miss Hammond Wins by Default.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—Because of a sprained muscle in her racquet arm, Miss Evelyn Sears of Boston, was obliged to default today to Miss Louise Hammond of New York, in the final match for the women's tennis singles championship on the Longwood courts. It is expected she will be kept out of play for a few days only.

CREIGHTON READY FOR FRAY

Team Has Last Scrimmage for Yankton Game Tomorrow.

VISITORS TO ARRIVE TONIGHT

Local Team Shows Up Strong and Fit for Classy Struggle—Lineup Not Definitely Announced—Marrin Out.

With the last scrimmage of the week over, everything stands in readiness for the annual game between Creighton university and Yankton college. The northern squad, with Coach Roberts in charge, will arrive in this city this evening. Yankton comes with an aggregation of experienced men, and they hope to reverse last year's score.

A short signal practice will form the major portion of this evening's work on the hill. No definite line-up has been selected yet by the coach, although Morganthaler has been shifted from tackle to full back. Hopkins, a new acquisition, will most probably fill in the open tackle.

Backfield to Be Chosen Tonight.

The back field will be chosen tonight from Levy, Maguire, Klye, Quigley, Philbin or O'Neil. "Big" Lee will be seen in his old position on the right of the line. The team suffers a great handicap, due to the fact that Marrin, who has played so brilliantly in past years, is suffering from an injury received in the Alumni match last week. This necessitates a general shaking up of the back field, but does not weaken the team to any extent. Coach Miller is well satisfied with the showing of his men during the last few days, and expects them to put up the battle of their lives in the opening contest tomorrow. Messrs. Thomas and Sisson have been selected by the management as officials for the game.

HIGH SCHOOL SQUAD GETS READY

Local Boys on Edge for Nebraska City Game Tomorrow.

The Nebraska City foot ball team which is to play Omaha High school Saturday afternoon at Vinton street park is to arrive in Omaha Saturday morning over the Burlington & Missouri. The boys are due about 11:30 o'clock and will be entertained at the Young Men's Christian association. Nebraska City has a fast team this year with an average of about 140 pounds. They are bringing a large number of rooters and will probably give the local lads a fast game.

There will be no regular team for the Omaha High school this year, but, instead, Coach Burnett will have a large squad from which to choose the players for the games. The following will play in the Nebraska City game: Left end, Dick Payne; right ends, Hugh Millard, Emil Gail; guards, Rachman, Carson, Murphy, Delamatre, Vergil Rector, Voyle Rector; centers, Rachman, Max Baldrige; halfs, Howes, Bowman, Mills; fullbacks, Underhill, Roy McCullough, Edward Morris. The officials for the game will be: Referee, J. T. Maxwell Cedric Potter, umpire; Hamblin, field judge.

The new sweaters for the team have come and will be worn by the boys for the first time Saturday. Every member of the squad has been working very hard since scrimmage first began two weeks ago, and all have been on the field each day for over two hours. Coach Burnett has the boys working together, and the work is exceptionally good for so early in the year. The backs are fast players, and the line this year is very heavy. Under the present circumstances, it looks as if the Omaha High school team will retain their present title of champions of eastern Nebraska and Iowa.

Preliminary to the Omaha High school games, a mass meeting is held every year for the purpose of arousing enthusiasm among the student body. Tomorrow afternoon will be the first mass meeting of the year. Carns has arranged for the following to speak: Coach Burnett, Assistant Secretary Deanison, Carstensen, a former member of the faculty, and a loyal rooter of athletics last year, and Ben Cherrington, coach of the foot ball team in
