Manuel Orkin Moves to Omaha—Manuel Orkin, member of the Orkin Brothers Clothing and Suit firm, has moved to Omaha from Sioux City to take active part in conducting the business. The local store has developed to such an extent that it requires too much directing work for one person to handle.

Deaf Man on Jury—While many jurors summoned for the October term of district court, which opened Monday, had weak excuses, F. M. Rooney of Benson, an aged man, was willing to serve if the court could use him, but he had a better excuse than any juror who tried to get out of serving. Rooney is almost stone deaf. The discovery was not made until Clerk of the District Court Smith called his name repeatedly. Then someone in the court room noted that he was present and explained the situation. Rooney is over 60 years old.

Lodging Houses Toss Down—Two lodging houses were closed by Sanitary Officer Morrison Monday morning, one at 122 Davenport street and the other at Twelfth and Davenport. The one on the corner is the larger of the two, and is known as the Brown flats. It is the property of David Brown of South Omaha. The other building belongs to the Byron Reed company. The health department has ordered that these two buildings be torn down within thirty days and the one at 122 Davenport will probably go within a week. Officer Morrison says that they have become so unsanitary that nothing but complete destruction could remove the dirt.

Thomas R. Wallace, who Helped Protect Americans in Jerusalem, Stops Briefly in City. Thomas R. Wallace, the man upon whom the eyes of the world were turned when, as consul at Jerusalem, he smoothed away difficult complications following the stabbing of two American women, was a visitor in Omaha Monday. Mr. Wallace was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Book, departing about noon on his way to take up duty at the consulate at Martinique in the West Indies.

COURT FAVORS ORAL CONTRACT

Supreme Court Orders District Court to Try Ella E. Latson Suit for Large Sum. Because the contract into which Ella E. Latson entered with David R. Buck & Son was an oral one is no good reason why she should not be permitted a hearing in court to show that the firm owes her some $2,500, according to an opinion of the supreme court, whose writ of procedendo ordering that the district court proceed to the trial of the case on its merits was filed in the office of the clerk of the district court Monday. The case was temporarily ended in district court when it was ruled out on the ground that the defendant had no written contract with the plaintiff regarding the commission to be received for selling or trading her land and, therefore might charge any commission. The plaintiff alleged $2,500 was too much.

OLD SOLDIERS PROTEST CHANGE OF MANAGEMENT

Do Not Wish Control of Home for Veterans Placed with the Regular Army. Old soldiers are raising a protest against the proposed action of taking the management of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers from its present officers and putting the management into the hands of the regular army officers. The following resolutions were introduced at the recent annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Atlantic City by Silas H. Fowler of Minneapolis and were unanimously adopted: Whereas, It has been recommended by certain regular army officers and suggested even by comrades of the grand army who know nothing of the conditions, surroundings and treatment of their comrades in the National home by the Board of Managers, past and present, who for forty-four years have without compensation excepted the president and secretary of the board, been responsible for the command and care of the home; and Whereas, During the forty-four years more than 300,000 of our comrades have been treated through sickness and distress, and cared for at the home without any complaint worthy of our consideration save the late complaint from the Pacific branch, promptly investigated and found groundless by Past Commander-in-Chief Nevin; and Whereas, We regard the care and management of the home of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers as a trust which should be placed in the hands of the regular army officers, and that the affairs of the home are efficiently and economically managed; therefore, be it resolved, That we protest against any attempt being made to transfer the management of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers to regular army officers or to change it in any way.

Colored Woman Ready to Move

Mrs. Grace Hutton, Against Whom Clifton Hill Objects, Says Neighbors Fail to Raise Money. Strenuous efforts have been made by the residents of Clifton Hill in the last week to raise enough money to buy out Mrs. Grace Hutton, a colored woman living at 306 Burdette, but the money as yet is not forthcoming, according to Mrs. Hutton. Objections were made to the Huttons living there a week ago last Friday and Mrs. Hutton cheerfully announced that she could find pleasant neighbors anywhere and was willing to sell for $2,500 Monday morning she said that as yet no money had been tendered her and she thought she would have to stay, although she did not wish to stay, as several small preparations had been committed on her property lately.

Indian Maiden Wears War Bonnet

Same Mistake is Made in Omaha Booklet as on Uncle Sam's Coins. Henry Altman, a member of the Commercial club of Salt Lake City, has written here from New York calling attention to the fact that the booklet "Omaha of Today" has a picture on the outside of an Indian girl who is wearing a war bonnet. This error it will be recalled was made upon the famous St. Gaudens gold pieces, which were the subject of much discussion. The error on the dime was first detected in the United States by an Omaha.

BURGLAR DRAWS FIVE YEARS

Had Been Out of the Pen but Four Days When He Was Caught in Omaha. Having pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary, Eddie Mack, who had been out of the Missouri state penitentiary only four days when he was arrested for robbing John Hagan's house, was sentenced to five years in the Nebraska state penitentiary by Judge Estelle in the criminal division of district court Monday afternoon. He served a five-year term for a similar offense in Missouri.

Doctors Watching Itching Skins Heal

Eczema on the scalp and body, and dandruff will soon cease to afflict mankind, according to Dr. Aloysius M. Churetil, who is in Chicago attending the convention. "Any person can apply my treatment anywhere just as well as I do in the Franco-American Institute for Skin and Scalp Diseases," said he Tuesday. "Get from your druggist 3 ounces of quinine, dissolve it in 1/2 pint of hot water, let cool. Rub well upon the affected part. That is all there is to it. Two or three applications usually accomplish the desired result. "Of 25 cases treated 25 were completely cured and the treatment was beneficial for the other 2. "The formation of dandruff causes an itching scalp. Scratching with the fingers spreads infection; therefore, quinine lotion can be used with good results by anybody whose scalp is itching or forming dandruff. It is the best thing I know to promote the growth of hair." (Adv.)

Eczema on the scalp and body, and dandruff will soon cease to afflict mankind, according to Dr. Aloysius M. Churetil, who is in Chicago attending the convention. "Any person can apply my treatment anywhere just as well as I do in the Franco-American Institute for Skin and Scalp Diseases," said he Tuesday. "Get from your druggist 3 ounces of quinine, dissolve it in 1/2 pint of hot water, let cool. Rub well upon the affected part. That is all there is to it. Two or three applications usually accomplish the desired result. "Of 25 cases treated 25 were completely cured and the treatment was beneficial for the other 2. "The formation of dandruff causes an itching scalp. Scratching with the fingers spreads infection; therefore, quinine lotion can be used with good results by anybody whose scalp is itching or forming dandruff. It is the best thing I know to promote the growth of hair." (Adv.)

Indian Maiden Wears War Bonnet

Same Mistake is Made in Omaha Booklet as on Uncle Sam's Coins. Henry Altman, a member of the Commercial club of Salt Lake City, has written here from New York calling attention to the fact that the booklet "Omaha of Today" has a picture on the outside of an Indian girl who is wearing a war bonnet. This error it will be recalled was made upon the famous St. Gaudens gold pieces, which were the subject of much discussion. The error on the dime was first detected in the United States by an Omaha.

BURGLAR DRAWS FIVE YEARS

Had Been Out of the Pen but Four Days When He Was Caught in Omaha. Having pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary, Eddie Mack, who had been out of the Missouri state penitentiary only four days when he was arrested for robbing John Hagan's house, was sentenced to five years in the Nebraska state penitentiary by Judge Estelle in the criminal division of district court Monday afternoon. He served a five-year term for a similar offense in Missouri.
