WISDOM

OF HAVING YOUR CLOTHES DRY CLEANED

More garments are worn out by soil than by service. Dust, moisture, grease, etc., all tend to weaken the thread of the fabric. Soiled garments soon lose their shape beyond recall. An occasional cleaning is the greatest preservative known to wearables. Besides, the newness, that so soon vanishes with neglect, is made almost perpetual by dry cleaning.

Our facilities are unsurpassed in the West. The heaviest overcoat or the daintiest evening gowns are safe in our hands.
