

Nebraska MATT MILLER TO JUDGE GOOD

Democrat of Fourth District Asks the Candidate Questions. ON WHICH LEG DOES HE STAND?

Record of the Primary is Palled and Some Significant Remarks Are Made About the Salary.

DAVID CITY, Neb., Oct. 5.—Hon. B. F. Good, Wahoo, Neb.—Dear Sir: You will recall that you, Mr. Bailey, Mr. Gilbert, Mr. Mains and myself were candidates before the recent primary for the democratic congressional nomination.

Time Enough to Act. After this publication eleven days elapsed before the primary, so that you had ample time to make known your true position on the Miller-Curtis bill before the primary.

How, I am credibly informed that you are now stating that the Miller-Curtis bill is unconstitutional, and for that reason you will not support the same.

New, your position in this matter indicates the double dealing you have pursued for years in politics, and did not stop you, even if you had to sacrifice wine for sacramental purposes, to get the nomination for congressmen, because after nomination you would see that the wine was forth-coming, as you are such an adept at the presto change business you can readily when necessary, turn water into wine.

Nebraska DIVISION FIGHT IN CUSTER

Court Asked to Require Board to Set Aside Election Order. PETITION ALLEGED TO BE SHORT

It is Charged—that Action is Irregular and that Plaintiff Asks to Be Allowed to Submit Evidence.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—Joseph Pigman on behalf of the anti-divisionists of Custer county has commenced action in the district court for a writ of mandamus to require the Board of Supervisors to assemble and set aside the order to submit the question of dividing Custer county, and erecting therefrom the proposed new counties of Corn and Rose.

MARTIN RICHARDSON BURIED. One of Douglas County's Oldest Pioneers Passes to His Last Rest.

WATERLOO, Neb., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—Martin Richardson, sr., who died Monday afternoon at the home of his son, Dr. L. Richardson of this place, was buried Wednesday afternoon at Elk City cemetery, the funeral cortege leaving there at 1 o'clock.

Second Protest by Pigman. At this point Joseph Pigman filed a second protest, declaring that the petition referred to the committee at 10:30 a. m., and that the time which had elapsed from that until the report of the committee which was made on the afternoon of the same day, was utterly insufficient for a reasonable investigation to be made.

White's Position. "I was and I am not," answered Brown, "I was elected minority leader, but as I had been really the leader, I could have had all the democrats with me. When I started out my faction numbered thirty-nine, but before the session closed, I had lost two of them."

White told me to hold out that bill, because there might be something in it for us," said the witness. "Later White asked me if there was anything doing on the Lorimer election. I told him that I did not know and observed that he as a democrat ought to know if there was anything doing. "Why do you ask? I inquired of him, and he replied, 'I think there was and I think Brown double-crossed us.'"

On cross-examination Curran said that he thought that if there was any money used, White, as a democrat, would know it. The hearing will continue tomorrow with Brown again on the stand.

LESLIE M. SHAW GOES EAST. Disposes of All Property at Denison and Removes to Philadelphia.

DENISON, Ia., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—Executive Secretary Leslie M. Shaw has sold all his Iowa real estate and property and is removing to Philadelphia to reside permanently. The last piece of property at Denison owned by him and which has just been sold was the family home, from which until recently Mr. Shaw has refused to part. Mr. Shaw spent a part of last week at the old home, settling up his affairs and bidding old friends good-bye.

Nebraska BROWNE TELLS HIS STORY

my head, I might have said what he said. I would not want to say he lied. "Did you give Link any money June 21, 1906, in St. Louis?" "No."

"If he says you did he lies, does he?" "Would not use ugly word. 'I would not say so,' said Mr. Browne. 'If I had been through what Mike ink went through and had been threatened in the state's attorney's office as he was threatened, I might have fallen for it. I would not say so.'"

"No, never." "Have you not browbeaten lawyers of less physique than you until they shot at you?" "No, never," replied Browne.

Witness explained the question about being shot at by stating that a man named Conway of Ottawa, Ill., was the man referred to by Attorney Austin. Conway, he said, shot at a man, but it was not at the witness.

Browne read into the record a letter from Representative Link in which the latter congratulated Browne on his recent acquittal of the charge of bribing Representative White. Link, like Beckmeyer, had testified to being bribed by Browne.

Touching on his relations with White, the witness said that he helped White draw up bills, and assisted him in his legislative labors, because he saw that White was deeply interested in his work.

During the year that the legislature met, Browne said that he saw much of White and met him once or twice in the Brick-house in Chicago, where White claims he received most of the bribe money for his vote for Lorimer.

"I was busy with my duties as a legislator and as minority leader," declared the witness, "and necessarily had few conferences with any member unless it was in my room or casually in the hotels."

"Were you minority leader?" asked Attorney Austin.

"Had lost some influence." "I was, and I was not," answered Browne. "I was elected minority leader, but as I had been really the leader, I could have had all the democrats with me. When I started out my faction numbered thirty-nine, but before the session closed, I had lost two of them."

Browne said that he had heard no reports that White was trying to get money for legislation and declared that he had tried to help White get reinstated in his previous job as street car conductor.

Another witness of the afternoon was Thomas Curran, a republican legislator, who testified in rebuttal of the testimony of White. Curran said that White approached him at Springfield and asked him to hold out the women's 10-hour bill, which was in the committee of which Curran was chairman.

"White told me to hold out that bill, because there might be something in it for us," said the witness.

"Later White asked me if there was anything doing on the Lorimer election. I told him that I did not know and observed that he as a democrat ought to know if there was anything doing. "Why do you ask? I inquired of him, and he replied, 'I think there was and I think Brown double-crossed us.'"

Nebraska FOOD IS MORE EASILY DIGESTED

When Rumford is Used

There are two reasons why Rumford Baking Powder makes food that digests—first, leavens perfectly—it raises at just the right time and in just the right manner—second, is a food in itself and an element that is necessary to health—it restores the nutritious elements to the flour which are taken out by the miller. Does not contain alum.
