At the Omaha Theaters

HE TRAVELING SALBEMAN company, which opens at the Brandels theater this evening for a four-days' stay, is the same cast as made the reputation for this James Forbes' comedy in Chicago and New York, The comedy has proved a constant success with rank J. McIntyre, in the role of Bob Blake. The locale of the play is Grand Crossing, a middle-west village. The story opens on Christmas day, and in the first act is shown the interior of a railway staion, where Bob Blake, the traveling salesman, and Beth Elliott, the pretty ticket agent, meet and are attracted to each other. Beth is the owner of a barren tract of and, apparently worthless, which is to be sold for unpaid taxes. The girl is unaware of the fact that the railroad is about to build a spur line and that her property will be needed for that purpose. Martin Drury, a capitalist and pretended admirer of Beth's, knows of the prospective increase in the value of the property and they plot to buy it when it shall be put on Beth tells Blake about her property and that she is unable to save it. The admirer joins Blake and three other salesmen in a poker gome, and during the game he tells of the scheme to buy in the land, and Blake decides to be the first person on hand in order to buy it for Beth, and with the idea of selling it to the railroad at a large advance. In his attempt to save the property for Beth his impetuous and misguided efforts supply the necessary dramatic thread of the comedy. In support of Mr. McIntyre are Gertrude Coghian, Earah McVicker, William Beach, James O'Nelli, jr., Percival T. Moore, H. D. Biakemore, Nicholas Burnham and

"The Girl of My Dreams," which comes to the Brandels on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights and a matinee on Saturday is by Wilbur D. Nesbit and Otto Hauerbach with music by Karl Hoschna-The play relates the adventures of Harry Swifton, a bachelor motor enthusiast, who has a mania for breaking speed ordinances. Some time before the play opens, he is injured in an automobile accident on a country road and carried into the home of health by the daughter of the household. Lucy Medders. All his bachelor ideals are his heart. She and her father make Harry Just before their arrival at his country home, Dove Crest, he has had another accident with his motor, for on his way to the station to meet his sister Cuddle" Swifton and her friends, home from boarding school on their vacation, he has bumped into another automobile containing a lady and a gentleman. The lady's hat is blown off and lights on the steering gear of Harry's machine and is estroyed. He returns home to find "Cuddle" and her friends there. Cuddle is angry at him and her sweetheart, "Pigeon" Williams, for their apparent neglect. While they are giving their excuses, the lady, Mrs. Blazes, whose hat it was had been destroyed in the accident, and her husband, General Blazes, who happens to be Harry's lawyer, come to the same place. Mrs. Blazes and the count are hidden in rooms. There is also a milliner, Daphne, who has been phoned for to take a hat, and she turns out to be an old flame of Such a thing has been made possible at the American Music Hall this week by the personal efforts of Mr. William Morris. Mr. Morris came on to Omaha and after looking the situation over carefully decided that Omaha is well worthy of the same large, classy shows that he presents in New York and Chicago. He has arranged bill of such magnitude for the Topping the bill will be Mr. George Primrose, the world's greatest end man and dancer of modern times. Mr. Primrose carries a company the like of which has never been seen in any vaudeville house. It is only two or three weeks since the New York papers devoted colimn after column to the hit made at the American Music Hall in New York City by Miss Alva York, the famous English comedienns. Miss York was allowed to close in New York after ner performance on Friday evening and came on to Omaha. Omaha will be the second American city to see this great foreign artist.

TIPS ON DOCTORING TREES Simple and Safe Directions for Treat-

The city forester of Chicago gives these directions on the care of trees; Many of the so-called tree doctors, as well as the people who employ them, have become so clated over the idea of tree surgery that they find some cause for treating almost every and any tree, regardless of its necessities or the results of such treatment or whether it is worth while to spend

A word of caution is therefore not out of place. If you feel that your trees need attention, look into the matter of tree doctoring so that you may know something about it, and then call a responsible man with a good reputation to do your work. Where the tree has been neglected and cavities have formed in the trunk of the tree, something should be done to stop the increase of the opening, for, after it has become so large as to encircle the greater portion of the tree, or where the entire center has been destroyed, it is not worth the time and money it takes to properly treat these trees. In cases where the trees can still be treated the cavity should be scraped and cleaned of all the dead wood, then give the cavity a thorough weshing or spraying with a solution of copper suiphate. This solution, applied to all parts of the cavity, will kill all the remaining rot spores. Now the cavity is ready to be filled with a cement mixture. using one part cement to three parts of clean, sharp sand. This is packed into the cavity, filling it to one inch of the finished surface, and then apply a covering of one part sand. This is put on so as to bring the filling to a smooth surface, making it conform to the contour of the tree trunk ican Music Hall will be Harper Smith trio.
