

ticularly graceful and the garment, with black Persian lamb collar and cuffs caterers who rents such loaves, for they them. though roomy and, unskimped, fits the and black buttons,

Rent the bought-for-next-season look taffeta with a lining of black velvet. which often spoils children's wraps.

Tired Business Man

BY WALTER A. SINCLAIR. "It's easier to make a republic now than it was when our forefathers fought seven years to do it." eighed Friend Wife. "Just see how, in Portugal, they rose early the other morning, fired a few shots and founded a republic with ease."

"Portug-ease," agreed the Tired Business Man. "Down Fido, down, sir! Let this be a lesson about rising with a morning grouch. If they had walled until noon it would have been time for the siesta, or whatever it is called in the lisping Lisbonese, and after a good snooze nobody would have felt like bothering. That's what comes of staying up late at night and having to rise when the whistle blows. We have the same symptoms over here, only the violence usually confines itself to throwing the coffee pot or carving knife or a hard look at the rest of the family.

"You're mistaken, though, about it taking us only seven years to make A republic. By careful count we have been at D 14 years and that job doesn't guit every only yet. Still, as you say, it's protty not in able capital, like a circus train, which be able to start in with a 1910 moder, six cylinder, foredoor, torpedo body, artillery wheeled, double carburster, selective transmission, four speed, forward and reverse, siren horn republic with American basement, elevator and hall service, exposed plumbing, hot and cold patriotism, new law sirshafts, tradesman's entrance, janitor impertinence, telephone switchboard, skeleton fighting mast and amoke if you like. The fathers who fought, died, quarreled and took the best joks never had all the modern inconveniences to make up their experimental regulate when they started at it. Just for that we're living in cramped quarters and insisting we like this colonial style of architecture.

"It isn't every morning that the subjects of a monarchy can wake up and find a little golden-haired republic on their doorstep (Copyright, 1910, by the N. Y. Herald Co.) with the newspapers' and the milk-providing somebody hasn't stolen the milk. 'Tis a pretty thing to contemplate, all shiny and now, ready for some joy rider to run into the first convenient telegraph pole. Let us hope that the poles are all in Poland when they try it out.

"In case the founders of the new republic have not founded before they hear from and having it recut at least every month, ma. I would like to give them a few timely hints on handling with care, this side up. In the first place it will be well for them not to adopt a constitution for later gen crations to rip up the back and for highpriced attorneys to interpret and set to music. A much better way would be to just follow the fashion page, wearing a common sense government one season, a to find out what was the matter. The hobble the next, a sheath later on, maybe little fellow could de nothing but sob. The a loose flowing style at another period.

"The chief executive of the new up-to- traffic, and the policeman grew stern date style of republic should be a superpresident, overlord or president emeritus, have to speak up or else come along with who can hold offices for two terms, after me." At last the lad wiped his blue eyes which he is at liberty to circulate around, "I'm lost," he cried. "Please take me to exualing speeches, writing editorials and Mr. Joshua Binks, the tailor, in Lurch generally embrashing his successors. The street, who has got a good stock of fall founders of the new republic should de- suitings in, and can sell them cheaper termine at once either that every man than anyone else.." Then the growd sleeted president must be unable to ride on | groaned .- Argonaut.

VOL. I.

THE BUMBLE BEE.

Communications welcomed.

NO BAD MONEY TAKEN.

As Usual.

Omaha finds three depart-

This is not a novel experiso often that it is getting to

But it seems to a bystander that matters could be so arranged that these annual deficits would not occur. It cer-

This reminds us that last city had no money to pay

But, just as soon as the fast to the pavement, where it remained till warm weather came and nature cleared the streets, the shortage of money disappeared. From some mira-be an old story.

Tells Friend Wife About

Founding and Foundering Republics.

"GROUCH."

train or else they must provide a me can be hooked to a locomotive and go skyhooting around. This, I believe, will furnish the difference of opinion on which two parties can split and campaign.

tainly looks as if the funds "They should decide at the outset in appropriated could be exfavor of senators being elected directly by pended in such a way as to the corporations. Lumber yards should be cover the year for which they provided at once for unkept platform are made. planks. Soft lawns should be put around the president's mansion to break the fall of year the city run short of any female thrown out. Club houses should be built to accommodate clubs of liars, un money in the street cleaning fund, and that snow was aldesirables and the like formed by the president. There should be a few rock ribs for lowed to accumulate in a most uck-ribbed republican states." disgraceful way because the

'Anything else?" asked Friend Wife. "Yes. Surgeons to call in when the rock laborers to remove the fall, ribs are fractured," said the Tired Business Man. snow had been trampled into a solid mass and had frozen

Daily Health Hint

culous source, dropping even Failing out of the hair can frequently be corrected by cutting the hair short as manna from heaven, came enough of cash to buy an automobile or two, and prowhile the scalp should be subjected to vide for a number of other brisk brushing twice a day. things needed about as badly

Keen Advertising.

as a dog needs two tails. City hall finance is a won-He was a pathetic little figure, and kind-hearted passersby felt their own eyes derful thing, no matter what grow dim as they listened to his heart end you take. rending sobs. Vainly a policeman tried No doubt exists as to where Al Sorenson stands, and that and the county board to put crowd grew till it threatened to stop the helps some. He may wobble up the cush to pay for them. "Now, then, my boy,," he said. "you'll a bit when he is running for senator, but not between times.

This would be a good time for an Omaha man to go visor San Francisco Important.

Located.

are not cut, and being returned intact, may Any wedding reception, large or small, small figure beautifully and does not sug- The hat of changeable gray and coral do for more than one occassion. But pieces is made merrier by having a white cake, in boxes must be arranged for and these. which the bride cuts. This should be round if cut and boxed by members of the family, and ornamented with icing. In it should little life, and that our whole life is but a be a thimble for the old maid, a coin for day repeated. are not an extravagance. If ordered specially the little white boxed the girl who will make a wealthy marriage,

Ghost of a Former Rough

Toss Worker Sorrows at

Its Lack of Control.

Ye Editor had a dream. It vas a rather pleasant dream.

We dreamed that we were dead, and were on our way to our last reward. It doesn't natter which way we were

On the way we met the greetings, we inquired why

the shade of Sandy was so

"Well," he said, "I've just been back to Omaha, looking over the layout there. Say, I used to think I knew something about politics, but if I wasn't a piker, well, I hope

"I've pulled off some pretty coarse jobs in my lifetime.

and that's no joke. You remember one of them, down in old Exposition hall, when I switched the Fifth ward vote after the ballot had been taken and checked up. A lot of fellows saw me with the kale in me mitt, but didn't

"That looked pretty near like the limit to me, but say.

these boys have made me look like a beginner. In these days we didn't mind taking a slam at a ballot box with a bunch of tickets, now and | Sandy's shade had said. And | that.

dars say anything.

I'll never sleep warm again.

going, for we didn't finish.

shade of Sandy Knight.

shade was sorrowful.

downcast.

may be square, heart shaped or oblong, and a ring for the next to be engaged. The latter cost less than any others. A The slices are handed first to the girls of quarter sleeves all seem equally popular monogram done in gold script, composed the bridal party, and then to the close but all sleeves are somewhat fuller.

OMAHA, OCTOBER 14, 1910.

SANDY KNIGHT'S SHADE NO PLACE TO MIX IN

He

done boldly and at once, and if it be wrong, let it severely alone. Remember that each day and its actions constitute a Short sleeves, long sleeves, and threeof mankind.

THE DAILY BUMBLE BEE NO. 208.

PERSONAL.

Omaha Business Men Mis-Hen Clarke was up from Lincoln Wednesday. Hen is still on the job.

Anxious friends want to OMAHA, Oct. 13 .- To the know of the whereabout of Editor of The Bumble Bee: Charley Lobeck. His name is Now that the smoke of battle still on the city hall pay roll. has cleared away, and the but nothing has been heard dead and wounded are all of him lately. accounted for, I would like Joe Oberfelder was in our to know if the game was midst for Yom Kippur. Joe says the job of judging gets Omaha business men worked on his nerves, and that he has themselves into a lather as to come to Omaha once in a to whether the Panama exwhile to get a little rest.

October.

Here's to October! Glorious bonth of sunshine, and starry nights, and the tender haze of autumn, purpling the hills and hiding the gap between earth Francisco people don't know and sky, till creation seems to blend in one grand harmony Omaha. They know they cross of soft color and dreamy dis-

October, month of fruit and York, but couldn't name the nut, and garnered grain, and spot. And New Orleans folks the winter's store piled high; are just as bad. They have poet's pen nor painter's brush has yet done full justice to October, or think they do, but it comea can such a blessed showing of almost as a joke. its wonderful benignity be What Omaha needs more found as during October right than anything just now is a here in Nebraska. little more activity by the Hurrah for October!

business man along lines that Go It.

touch nearer at home. If we had all our local questions Just now the good people of Nebraska can look with paaffairs of other folks. A that is raging between Congood, lively little difference of gressman Hitchcock and Ediopinion does no harm, but it tor Howard, and realize the feelings of the woman who black buttons.

ength. The heels are high.

A novel design in a high shoe is of health aif, so named because the leather is some-burning feet. The shoe is fitted with a average.

At any rate, Dave Thompson furnished the people of build a new hotel, get rid of Lincoln with a topic for con-

Going Up. Who round the world did take a trip7 a trip? T. R. Who stoked the fire and steared the ship? . T. R. Who's bossed the job most CIVICUS.

everywhere. And chased wild nature to its

the season ahead of him was to be a wet with the opening year of the twentleth one or a dry one, and could plant such century, will be a complex index of all the crops as would be most advantageously scientific thought of the world during the grown under such conditions. The ship years covered by it. As it is to be a perowner could know whether it was safe for petual catalogue the scientists of the fuhis vessels to leave port, the big conventure will be able to take advantage of all tions could be held on fair days, and in scientific information that accumulates a thousand ways this knowledge could be from the beginning of the century. used in the advancement of the welfare It is the aim of the institution to diffuse knowledge as well as to add to it. There-Through the bureau of ethnology the fore, reports of its work are published and songs, customs and traditions of the placed in the libraries of the country aboriginal Americans are being preserved. where serious students may at all times Handbooks dealing with Indian languages, have access to them. One of its publica-Indian arts and Indian habits are being tions is the annual report. This gives a published. Through the national goological synopsis of the activities of the Smith. ark there is being gathered together one sonian during the preceding year, and carof the finest collections of wild animals ries an appendix which is filled with imin the world. From every continent and portant papers on various subjects. The almost every country species that are rare second class of publications is called the and interesting have come to enrich the Smithsonian Contributions to Knowledge collections at the national zoo. The Roose- This is issued annually in several volumer velt African expedition gathered many and represents the achievements of the interesting specimens of birds and animals original investigators of the institution for this collection. The third- class of publications is called

No finer museum for scientific research the Smithsonian Miscellaneous Collection to be found anywhere in the world than and it covers every subject from the de the National Museum, maintained under scription of a new species of mosquito ta the jurisdiction of the Smithsonian instituresearches in the attainment of very low tion. Here one may see men and women temperatures. from every part of the world engaged in

BY FREDERIC J. HASEIN. studying the various collections. The distudying the various collections. The di-vision of economic geology contains more xII...Interstate Commerce Commission.

Fall Footwear

In the new display of fall footwear there high arch, Cuban heel and is slanted at the are to be seen several changes as com- top in such a way that the front of the pared with last year's fashions, both in re- shoe is higher than the back.

This list includes footwear for general gard to the styles and the materials employed. It is expected that the most popular few Oxfords in a fairly heavy weight are to shoe will be the cravenette. The fabric is be worn. Some women prefer this cut all waterproof and, owing to the case with the year around, and so must be catered to. which it can be cleaned and the general For strictly dress wear afterneons and evenings houts of velvet or satin are the softness of a woven material. It is reasonnewest. The satin is of a very dull nature able to expect it will meet with women's so that the feet will not look unduly large approval. A whisk broom or a clothes The buttons are of cut jet and either show brush will quickly remove dust, mud or can be had in both light and heavy soles the average soil. It is said that eravenette The valvet is supposed to be a little warmer will give as good service as kid, and in that the satin.

ome cases better, because it does not re- A very near looking pair of black satin quire a dressing, and some of the polishes slippers for house or evening wear has a are known to be injurious to leather. single strap, beaded. The price ts $5.

A very nice looking shoe for afternoon The entire shoe is of the cravenette, with rimmings of leather in strap or narrow street or for house wear is in soft kid. band effect, with soles in two weights, the heels in Cuban style, two inches high, edium and fairly heavy. There are also and made with turned sole. These are exwo styles, one cut extremely high and the tremely good value for $6 per pair.

ther of medium height for wear with the For formal evening wear the high cut skirt of average walking length. The but- boot of softest kid, beaded and slashed conholes are finished with a scalloped fiy, from the tos upward to display the stocknd the newest thing in boot buttons is the ing. is considered very smart. The boot moked pearl. The cravenette shoes are is held by four straps which button over. itted with both the smoked pearl and the and can be had in black, bronse, gold and gray.

The heels are in Cuban style, but are A few slippers are seen in the Persian igher than those worn last year. From effects. These are justly considered novne and one-half to two inches high is the elties, and the same may be said of the brocades as a covering.

A lovely bit of new footwear that will Another new walking shoe, or rather boot, made from buckskin. It has all the become staple. I am sure, is a satin boudoir slipper, soft and flexible, yet ppearance of suede, but will wear much warm and comfortable for the insole as a etter and is also heavier, making it more ultable for autumn wear. It has the cushion quilted.

avored short vamp and is twelve-button ength. The heils are high. convenient, for the slippers come in cases made from sails of the same color, and what percus, admitting the air freely, fold into a small fiat package that will which keeps the foot cool, and so will be take up very little room in a sult case. welcomed by those persons who suffer from The price, including the case, is only $2.50. ELIZABETH LEE then, but we didn't have the nerve to go out and order a exposition is to be held. lot of voting machines sent Let's tackle the street lighton, to be charged up to the ing question, the matter of keeping the streets clean, taxpayers, and keep still about it till the goods came, and then try to get the city council the water plant question and versation. attend to some of the other things that wait attention, instead of mixing into quarrels "Nix. I couldn't do that. that do not soncern us. I'm glad I'm dead. If I were living there now and didn't 口:在药药, know any more than I used to. I'd sure have to earn all my money shosing horses." we remember that Sandy was Ye Editor awoke at this

Let's attend to our own busiught to be about things that more nearly concern our city said: life than where the Panama "Go it, husband! Go it, b'ar!"

settled it might be worth while to get busy in settling the tience on the war of words Conversation.

for an Omaha man to go vis-Iting in either New Orleans point, and pondered over what a rattling good horseshoer at lair: These took a flyer in the air?

leans. Just as if it made any real material difference where it is held, or what Omaha has to say about It. As a matter of fact, San had been paying one of his position proposed for five periodic visits to his old years hence should be held in San Francisco or New Orhaunts in Omaña, and the When we had exchanged taken in Effort to Settle Affairs of Others.

worth the candle?

there is any such place as developed a wonderful fond-when going east to New

the Missouri river somewhere ness for Omaha just now, because they need assistance. And nowhere else on earth