

ENGLISH VIEWS ON AMERICA

Editor of London Mail Thinks Roosevelt Next President.

SAYS ENGLAND IS INTERESTED

Cells of Trouble in Portugal, Which, He Says, is Not Caused by Dancing Girl—More Ships to Be Built.

In the opinion of the people of England, Theodore Roosevelt will be the next president of the United States.

When asked about the British ideas on the Portuguese revolution, Colonel Marlowe answered with enthusiasm.

"No, it will not," came the reply. "The disturbance in Spain is entirely local, and will blow over entirely."

"More Big Ships." "No, I do not know there is such a feeling I am in no way afraid of such a thing myself, although it is certain that as time goes on the fight for the supremacy of the sea will be fiercer."

Mr. Marlowe and William Maxwell, the famous English war correspondent, are traveling west over the United States.
