YANKTON BOOSTS FOR ROAD

Sends Delegation to Omaha Wednesday to Meet Commercial Club.

WILL DISCUSS NEW SCHEME

South Dakota Town is Enthusiastic Over Proposition to Build New Line Between the Two Towns.

Eighteen or twenty members of the Yankton Commercial association will be in Omaha Wednesday to meet with members of the Omaha Commercial club and discuss the proposed railroad line from here to Yankton.

Yankton men are reported enthusiastic for the project and the trip here of a large number is significant that this report is true.

Meeting with them will be the following Commercial club men: C. B. Hayward, F. L. Hatter, George H. Kelly, L. L. Kountze, W. H. McCord, Nathan Merriam, L. F. Baxter, David Coe and Commissioner J. M. Guild.

Secretary C. J. Novotny of the Yankton association has forwarded the following list of the visitors who will probably arrive in the early afternoon.

William J. Fante, president; E. O. Walgreen, vice president; W. E. Heaton, treasurer; C. J. Novotny, secretary; W. C. Lusk, director; J. A. Danforth, director; J. Piles, director; W. L. Bruce, chief engineer for the Yankton Southern railway; J. W. Smith, Loomen Lumber company; M. P. Olman, president American State Bank; M. Wagner, secretary Milwaukee & St. Louis Distributing company; H. E. Brishine, merchant; John M. Max, merchant; Ben Katz, merchant; William Bader, merchant; P. L. Van Tassel, secretary and manager, Excelsior Mill company; Emil Binder, binder; A. E. Lindstrom, manager, Western Land and Securities company.

Canine Jumps Out of Window

Refuses to Eat Dish of Oriental Food Given Him by a Waiter.

An unidentified dog, apparently bent on suicide, jumped from the second-story window of the Yankton Club prior to 10:30 P. M. Tuesday morning, when one of the waiters tried to feed it a bowl of chop suey Tuesday morning. The fact that the terrified animal landed upon the shoulders of a pedestrian was all that saved it from serious injury or death. The pedestrian, however, escaped unscathed, but suffered a severe shock to his nerves.

The unusual incident took place about 7:30 P. M. Tuesday, when employees of the restaurant were cleaning up the establishment. It is reported the strange canine was found eating a bowl of noodles, and one of the waiters bit upon the idea of giving it a full meal. He thereupon served up an immense bowl of chop suey to the dog, holding the canine by the foreleg while he tried to persuade it to eat by shoving its nose into the oriental food. The dog struggled hard for several seconds, and finally tore himself loose and leaped from the window. It fled from sight following the exciting jump.

R. N. Wright Discovers Two-Day-Old Baby Crying Outside His Door.

Wrapped in swaddling clothes and crying lustily, a baby, apparently about 2 days old, was found on the doorstep of R. N. Wright's home, 315 North Sixteenth street, Tuesday morning. Mr. Wright discovered the little bundle of humanity when he opened his front door to depart for work about 7 o'clock. He notified the police and announced he would keep the baby until its parents were heard from or the proper authorities should take the child.

KANSAS CITY VISITORS VIEW THE WATER SYSTEM

Come to Inspect the Plan of Water Purification in Use at the Omaha Plant.

Five members of the Board of Fire and Water Commissioners of Kansas City were shown about the city Tuesday and inspected the water works and all the appliances of the fire fighting system in Omaha. The party was made up of ex-Pref. Chief George C. Hale, John P. Pollock, H. L. Parson, Bertman Lowther and S. W. High. Mr. High is superintendent of the water works and Mr. Lowther is constructing engineer.

"Our municipal water works system in Kansas City," said Mr. Lowther, "pays the city a profit of $1.00 a day. We have over 5,000 hydrants and our capacity is 4,000,000 gallons a day. Where you have one hydrant on a corner, we have three or four."

The principal thing of interest to us here is your system of water cleansing. We have basins of 60,000 settling capacity and besides the sediments we use sun to coagulate the impurities. This action, however, is merely mechanical, and you have here a chemical system of sterilization with hypochloride.

"We are considering the introduction of a chemical system at Kansas City and we came up here to see how yours is working."

The visiting officials were entertained by the Omaha fire chief, the members of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners and other city officials. They planned to return home Tuesday evening.

MAN IS PAROLED TO HIS WIFE

Judge Estelle Griggs Fred Struppach a Chance When He Pleads Guilty to Desertion.

Repentant of his desertion of his wife and child Fred Struppach pleaded guilty before Judge Estelle in the criminal division of district court Tuesday afternoon and on request of his wife he was paroled to her. She evidenced a belief that in future he will care for his family and Judge Estelle said that in view of the situation he believes parole was best.

Capt. Bogardus Agains His Bull's-Eye

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln 11. Recently interviewed, he says: "I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several well known kidney medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self."

Wagonloads of Money to Move Through Streets

Two Big Banks Are Soon to Change Their Places of Doing Business.

Business.

If anyone cares to pick up a cool $100,000 or so and does not mind running a chance of being perforated and going to prison, an opportunity will be afforded in a couple of weeks when the cash of the Omaha National bank is moved up the street to the new home of the bank. A mere $100,000, and perhaps a little more will be conveyed from the old vaults to the center of Omaha. The City National money will be moved some day next week and the bank will start business in the new home possibly on Monday or Tuesday, but the real opening, which will be a big affair, is likely to take place the following Saturday.

Reception committees for the formal opening will be on hand, and also a reception committee—armed to the teeth—will receive, but not with open arms, anyone who may seek to grow friendly with the money en route. Taking it by a large hit and your the formal opening will be a better event to attend.

The two banks will not issue definite notice as to when the money will be carried across town preferring to be unostentatious in this matter.

Bankers Return from Meeting

Were in Los Angeles Day After the Explosion Which Ruined Times Building.

"The ruin of the Times building in Los Angeles was a serious thing to contemplate," said W. H. Bucholz, vice president of the Omaha National bank, who, with Mrs. Bucholz, has just returned from California.

"The building was shaken to the foundations, only small portions of one or two walls remaining intact. The wreck was more complete than at a fire, where a great deal of the building material is, of course, consumed. The debris was so inextricably heaped together, you know, that for many days the bodies of the dead could not be recovered."

Mr. Bucholz was attending the convention of the American Bankers' association. Also home from Los Angeles are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rhoades, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Flack, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Shepard. Several of these couples came home by way of Portland, Seattle and the Northern Pacific.

Night Schools Open Next Week

Indications Are for a Very Large Attendance at the Two Schools.

The night schools will open next Monday with a probable enrollment of 900 pupils. The teaching staff of the night schools is made up of eight regular grade teachers and instruction is given in the Kellogg building at Twenty-second and Fifth streets and the Comenius building at 1229 South Fifteenth street.

The schools are attended by foreigners mostly and by children who have to work in the day time. Superintendent Davidson is expecting a very successful year because of the assurances he has received from foreign newcomers to the city that they will get all their countrymen to come to the classes.

"All we ask is regular attendance," said Mr. Davidson, "and if we have that the night schools can accomplish a great deal."

FIGHT FOR PROPERTY OF THE LATE AUGUST DOLL

Nephews Protest Against Appointment of Administrator, Saying There is No Property.

War over the $90,000 estate of the late August Doll began in district court Tuesday, when Charles F. Doll and Augustus Doll, nephews of the deceased, filed an appeal from County Judge Leslie's appointment of an administrator of the estate and answered the suit of the twenty alleged heirs of August Doll by declaring that he was seized of no property at the time of his death. The answer does not specify the ground of the claim that Doll was practically worthless when he died. Platt & Wear, attorneys for Leopold Doll and the nineteen other alleged heirs who are seeking to have the property divided among them, said no reply will be filed until Doll's nephews make their answer more specific. During the last year of his life Charles F. and Augustus Doll cared for the deceased and they are expected to set up the claim that in consideration of their services he orally gave them his property.

Doll left no will, and from all the documents so far produced in court it appears that he possessed an extensive estate at the time of his death. Last month Leopold Doll and the other heirs at law petitioned the county court for appointment of an administrator and County Judge Leslie named George Holmes. The appeal from this action is being maintained on the ground that no administrator should have been appointed because there was practically no estate.

TRAFFIC CLUB LUNCH ROOM

New Organization Plans to Establish Place to Eat at Noon Every Day.

One of the features of the new Omaha Traffic club is to be a noonday business men's lunch. The idea is to have a lunch room where the railroad men and traffic men of the city will meet together for a few minutes each day. The meal served being both good and inexpensive. Any profit that accrues from the lunch room will go to the treasury of the club.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thomas E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me. For sale by all druggists."

Grain Terminals Sue City

Asks $25,000 Damages for Property Which Has Been Condemned.

APPAISERS GIVE ONE DOLLAR

Condemnation Had Been Ordered by the City Council Last July to Extend Street in that Section.

Condemnation by the Omaha city council of property of the Omaha Grain Terminals company and several railroads for the extension of Thirteenth street in Arbor place extension and several additions in the south suburbs of the city has resulted in the bringing of a $25,000 damage action against the city by the grain terminals company. The petition for damages, together with a transcript of what the company says were illegal actions of the city council, were filed in district court Tuesday.

The city council's condemnation proceedings were had last July. The council attempted to condemn for the extension of the street property which the city in 1904 had vacated to the grain terminals company and the Burlington, Union Pacific and Omaha & North Platte railroads. Resistance was offered and finally a court order to aid the council was secured.

A board of appraisers fixed the damages sustained by the four parties whose property was to be condemned at $1 each. The grain terminals company now came into court with the contention that its condemned property and property adjacent thereto owned by it have suffered a total damage of $25,000. The judgment against the city in this suit is asked.

Ranchmen Prove Alibi for Man in Murder Trial

Special Car Carries Large Number from Nebraska and South Dakota to Arkansas.

Special Car Carries Large Number from Nebraska and South Dakota to Arkansas.

Newly arrived from the scene of a murder trial in a little court at Walnut Ridge, Ark., a dozen South Dakota and Nebraska men are in the city discussing their part in saving an innocent man from the gallows. The party were members of a special Pullman carload of witnesses who journeyed from Omaha to Walnut Ridge last week and proved an alibi for J. C. Langsten, a cattle raiser of South Dakota, charged with murder.

Langsten was alleged to have committed the murder of A. W. Shiry, a wealthy resident of Walnut Ridge, March 5. Numerous witnesses for the state had furnished evidence pointing to the man's guilt when his friends in South Dakota and Nebraska, to the number of thirty men, banded together and determined to travel to Walnut Ridge and save him. Langsten's brother-in-law paid for the special train and the witnesses themselves volunteered the rest of the fund and their time necessary to appear at the trial. They possessed personal knowledge of the fact that Langsten had been on his claim near Gregory, S. D., since the February preceding the murder, and had been there through the time of the tragedy in Walnut Ridge.

The train was made up in Omaha last Friday, and the finish of the trial in Walnut Ridge took place the next day, with a verdict of "not guilty." X. O. Pindall, ex-governor of Arkansas, was attorney for the defendant.

Among the witnesses who went hundreds of miles for him were bankers, attorneys and ranchmen. Mike F. Harrington of O'Neill, a prominent politician of Nebraska, was one of the party.

George Lamoreaux of Valentine and Leonard Black of Gregory, S. D., are among the witnesses visiting until Tuesday evening in Omaha.

WOMAN TEARS UP CHECK AND IS THEN REPENTANT

Mrs. J. S. Paul Asks That Another Check Be Given Her for One Destroyed.

Excited and indignant and unable to control herself, Mrs. Nellie Paul, defendant in the famous divorce action of John S. Paul against Nellie Paul, now pending in the supreme court on appeal, burned up a $50 alimony check given her by Robert Smith, clerk of the district court. But she feels differently about the matter now and wants the money, according to an affidavit filed by her Tuesday afternoon. When Mrs. Paul repeated her act and desired another check from the clerk he could not give it, because if the clerk she said she had burned would be presented in future payment would have to be made and the clerk would have to stand the loss. With her affidavit Mrs. Paul filed a $100 bond to protect Smith. A new check will be issued to her.

BURLINGTON BUYS LAND TO STRAIGHTEN OUT "HUMP"

Railroad Acquires Ground Which Enables It to Get Direct Entry Into City.

The Burlington railroad has completed the purchase of land at Eleventh and Mason streets, which, with holdings in the neighborhood, will enable the road to straighten its tracks and come into the city more directly. An ugly "hump" will be removed, which in times past has been the cause of great trouble.

The final purchase makes the investment run into many thousands of dollars, for the Burlington now owns from Fourteenth to Eleventh and part of the block east of Eleventh. The last two purchases are from H. J. R. Callahan and Conover. Deeds were executed Tuesday to the road which has been represented by the Byron Reed company, all through. Messrs Conover and Callahan and the road did not agree some time ago on prices and condemnation proceedings were begun, which will now be dropped.

Let Me Tell You Something

A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at least try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is to blame for her own wretched condition.

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. Read what these women say:

Camden, N. J.—"It is with pleasure that I send my testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, hoping it may induce other suffering women to avail themselves of the benefit of this valuable remedy."

"I suffered from pains in my back and side, sick headaches, no appetite, was tired and nervous all the time, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman—and this valuable medicine shall always have my praise."—Mrs. W. P. Valentine, 903 Lincoln Ave., Camden, N. J.

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am writing to tell you that I am pleased with your medicines. I had been sick for a long time with prolapsus. I heard about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have found that it is the right kind of medicine for me. I felt relieved after taking one bottle and I kept on taking it till now I am well and strong, and am able to do my work."—Mrs. Henry Kossow, 472 Genesee St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering from the same trouble?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.
