Best Dry Cleaning of garments. Twis Best Dentistry west of New York. Dr. Fickes, 724 City National Bank Bidg. Morio Ownership : the hope of avery family. Start a savings account at Neo.

Bavings & Loan Ass'n and say the foundation for the future home. 1605 Farnam Grand Jury Still in Session-The federal grand jury, which has been in session since Tueslay morning, is still at work. It is expected that a report will

Ad Men to Luncoin-Omaha's Ad club goes to Lincoln to be the guests of the Ad club of that city at $ 30 tonight. The Omaha men will artend the Lincoln Ad club's carnival and return at 10.65 p. m. the Paxton block, Seventeenth and Farprojects for the campaign will be dis-

Omaha Rubber Co .- E. H. Sprague, prestof rubber goods," including various styles of rubber coats and automobile accessories for very reasonable prices. 1606 Harney street, "just around the corner."

In Divorce Court Against his wife, who is in Scotland, John Duff of Omaha started an action for divorce in district he came to Omaha after his wife deserted him in Glasgow fourteen years ago.

of Will Maupin, neputy state labor comwere to have been tried before Justice somehow.

money in his possession, was discharged the overwrought pains which the princiby United States Commissioner Anderson pal actor in the tragedy takes to prepare had crept ashore and hidden himself in Friday, but was immediately re-arrested and make easily explainable what might the bushes, and while the sleepless farmers on a capias issued from the grand jury room. He is held pending bond prelimi-

Discharged and Re-Arrested -- Paul Brady, charged with having counterfelt money in his possession, was discharged by United States Commissioner Anderson Friday, but was immediately re-arrested on a capins issued from the grand jury room. He is held pending bond prelimi-date was changed to November 10. purchase Otis electric elevators at $30,000 murder. or Kimball electric elevators at $23,000 or His widow was to receive, from some $24,000. Bids on electric wiring were opened by the committee of the whole, but no de- amounting to $196,600. Still, when the cir- er's black shirt, which he had brought in cision as to which shall be accepted was knowing what she was doing, according killed? to her petition, Mrs. Amaila Hobelman She says that she and her son-in-law inherited half interests in the property from her daughter. Springborg, she says, asked her to sign certain legal papers, the nature of which she did not know, and gave her $25. She discovered one of them was a conveyance, she says, and now she tenders the $25 and asks that the property be returned to her.

Hearing of the alissouri Pacific Railroad and patched up with glue and twine.

Aged Man Dies

Following Epileptic Fit J. G. Woolverton, 86 Years Old, Passes Away Suddenly.

As a result of an epileptic fit on a train, J. G. Woolverton, 36 years old, of Effingham, Kan., died in the surgeon's room of the Union depot at 7 o'clock Friday morning. The aged man, accompanied by his wife, was enroute from Glenham, S. D., to their home, when he was overtaken by the epileptic attack. He was taken off the train and placed in the care ders, which immediately disprove the acciof Dr. Bishop of the Union Pacific about dent or murder theory they endeavored to midnight. Death was due to the fit and make the world accept. One man opened extreme old age. Coroner Crosby took his clothes, stabbed himself three times in charge of the body and had it placed in the abdomen, then buttoned up his cloththe Hoffman undertaking rooms.

Persistent Advertising is the Road to Big

Pepper is of just as much importance as any other ingre-dient in cooking. Don't dis-appoint yourself by using an inferior brand. For perfect flavor add Tone Bros. Pepper before cooking.

Tone Bros. Spices are always fresh. Three times the strength of ordinary spices - and last much longer.

At Your Grocer's-10c or send us a dime for retail pack age and "Tone's Spicy Talks." TORE DROS., DES MOTRES, FOWA BLESSESS OF FAMOUS OLD SIDLES COLUES

Insurance Companies.

Some Notable Cases of Self-Destruction Planned to Give Appearances of Accident-Cleverly Devised

Drownings.

Hardly a day passes in which we do not read in the papers reports of a suicide, acimpanted by the cheerful statement that te dead man has left his family well provided for, being heavily insured in several ompanies. When misfortune, either pres 'nt or prospective, has rendered the cares of life too heavy, suicide is sometimes the Aldrich Club Meets-The Aldrich club first remedy thought of. The desire to will hold a metting on the second sloor of escape personal responsibility in some financial disaster and at the same time to nam streets, Friday night. Plans and make good provision for those dependent upon one for their support is often a potent notive for self-destruction. The most convenient means of attaining these two ends is to take out an insurance policy before pressing the trigger or turning on the gas jumping off the bridge. The truth of this is so widely recognized that insurance companies generally refuse to pay any claims on policies taken out y suicides less than one year, and someimes three years, before death. When a court Friday afternoon. His petition says man in desperate straits is compelled to the temptation, when furthermore he is Labor Cases Postponed-The complaints compelled to hustle in order to secure the money for paying his premiums, the violations of the state labor laws, which policies lapse and get on his feet again that the man was insune, endeavored to Badwin, Friday afternoon, were postponed A great many people try to defeat the at the request of the state to November 15. dreaded clause and exhaust their ingenuity twenty-five letters from friends, overloyed Labor Cases Postponed-The complaints in finding, soon after becoming insured. of will Maupin, deputy state labor com- some form of self-destruction which will missioner, against Cmaha merchants for pass for a genuine accident. Be it said. violations of the state labor laws, which for those who might be tempted to cheat were to have been tried before Justice the Insurance companies, that the trick Baldwin, Friday afternoon, were postponed generally fails. Still, many are the exat the request of the state to November 15. pedlents resorted to by suicides to accom-Discharged and Re-arrested - Paul plish their double purpose. In fact, one der of the boat, protected against curious Brady, charged with having counterfeit of the earmarks which indicate fraud is glances by the peculiar overhanging stern.

> otherwise appear mysterious in his act. nan has caused his own death by overdrinking. Such cases are hard to contest, and the only arguments in favor of the companies are information as to the suicide's embarrassments or his well-known sobriety in the past.

Excessive Care. found in a dying condition in an unfre-Examination is Waived-Athanasios quented street in the city of Bridgeport at Gliatiotis, charged with violating the fed- a late hour of the night. A bullet had gone eral laws relating to the importation of through his stomach and one of his lungs, contract labor, and who has been before come out at the back, and then pierced a United States Commissioner Anderson wooden fence near by. His sword cane. several times, appeared again Friday whose sheath was splintered, had been morning, waived presiminary examination bent and dented in the struggle with his and was bound over in bond of $2,000, assassins. Some fifty feet away from the Missouri Pacific Injunction Postponed -- Dercussion lock horse pistol, very rusty happened to be on board. The next morn-from condemning the property at Fif- on his way to New York to deposit in a teenth and Nicholas streets was to have safe drawer some $125,000 worth of stocks shoes and his dress suit case, with other been held before Judge Munger Friday and bonds, a list of which he had left on belongings. He must have fallen or morning, but on application of the city his writing table. He carried those se- jumped overboard during the night. attorney for an extension of time the curities in a black traveling bag, with which he had never parted one minute in Board Undecided-After having in- the various hotels where he stopped after looked as though they had been freshly spected elevators in several Omaha office leaving home. In a crowded dining room buildings the Board of County Commis- he had even insisted on reserving a chair a full beard and mustache. sioners in committee of the whole began next to the one which he occupied, on consideration of the bids of the Otis and which to place the bag, so as never to let Kimball Elevator companies for elevators it out of his sight. The bag, slit open on assumed name and with clean shaven face. in the new county beilding Friday after- the side with a very dull blade, was found he was employed in a department store. The board is undecided whether to a mile away on the wharf. A clear case of twenty different companies, death benefits cumstances of his death were known, nobody could satisfactorily explain his pro-Tries to Recover Property-To recover tracted stay in several Bridgeport hotels, possession of a half interest in a Lowe's as he had no business to transact in that addition lot, which she conveyed to her town. What was he doing late at night on non-in-law, Charles J. Springborg, without the deserted street where he had been

Then it was found that for several years started an action in district court Friday. he had been hounded by creditors. The list of stocks and bonds which the assassin had taken out of the black bag was checked with the transfer books of the various companies. He had never owned any of those securities, which were found in the hands of parties above suspicion.

A dull, dented knife was found in his the kind of a blade that would produce a ragged cut such as appeared on the side | 22 and a few cents with the keeper. of the black bag. Particles of powder found in the bag were declared identical at Union Depot with a few unburnt grains adhering to his former homes, living with women for whom they deserted their wives, thus do. single barrel horse pistol, and take such cane's bamboo sheath were found between two heavy stones, and a dent corresponding to the bend in his sword blade was after a year or so had elapsed. observed in a fence near by.

The companies which had insured him for large amounts contested successfully the suit brought by his widow, as all evidence pointed to suicide, with intent to defraud the insurance companies.

Give-Away Blunders.

Some suicides commit unpardonable bluning and jumped from a bridge into a creek, where he was atunned and drowned. Some suicides tear up their coats, collars and ties and reduce their shirts to tatters

n order to give the impression of fearful struggles, but forget that the consequences of such a struggle would have been scratches and bruises all over their faces A farmer of Johnson county, Missouri, tried to give the impression that he had been shot while riding his horse, and that his body had been dragged through the bushes. Unfortunately, the course of the STREET CAR KILLS A HORSE bullet was such that logically it should have first come through his horse's body. Bodge Street Car Strikes Havens Coal Neither his shoulders nor his hands presented the bruises which a fall from the saddle would have inflicted; trousers and boots failed to exhibit the tear subsequent to a dragging of the dead body through the farmer would have done in the course of the struggle, or when unhorsed, or while being pulled away from the road, would o'clock Friday morning. The team wa been to lose his wide straw hat. When found dead in the thicket he had pany. The car was No. 151.

his hat on. less marked degree with the spirit of selfsacrifice, are willing enough to let their families reap the benefits accruing from their death, provided they are not absoutely obliged to die. Some shrewd ones attempt to cash the face amount of their own policies through confederates, who

A Picturesque Case. One of the most picturesque cases of fake death was that of George Shepherd lationship of the Membership of the Church and bowlers will come from all over the of Alexandria, Va. One evening he and to the Pastor." Chancellor Avery is the country. his brother James invited a neighbor, guest of Superintendent W. M. Davidson "Bill" White, to go fishing on the Po- while in Omaha.

tomac. They boarded a curious craft, BEATING THE SET TUBLE CLAUSE transformed sail boat, the stein of which protruded several feet above the water After eatching a goodly quantity of fish Ingenious Means Adopted to Bilk they made for home. James and "Bill" were reving and George was steering.

Suddenly the two oarsmen heard a terriflying cry and a heavy splash. They looked around; George had disappeared. EXCESSIVE CARE A GIVE-AWAY He was known to be a good swimmer, but must have sunk instantly, for although his brother and his friend rowed about for half an hour, they could not see his body

They finally decided to call to their help some of the farmers along the shore. "Bill jumped on land, gathered a party of volunteers, and part of the night was spent unding the bottom with poles and hooks. The search was given up as hopeless, and no one ever expressed any doubt as to George Shepherd having met his death brough drowning. ane company in which he was insured ontended that if George Shepherd had really fallen into the river, his body was bound to come up some time, and therefore retused to settle until absolute proofs of his death were forthcoming. The Shepherd brothers had been remiss n that occurrence, for the only accident fakers who ever played the drowning trick successfully had always provided themselves with a suitable corpse, whose disfigurement was attributed to insects, fishes, shore birds, etc.

while the wrangle was going on over the contested insurance policy, the Alexandria police captured a suspicious person who was observed prowling in the swamps near the city. No definite charge was made against him; neither could he be held as a vagrant, sor he had some money walt one or two years before yielding to in his possession, but the fact that he had been spending days and nights n the marshes cast doubts upon his sanity.

He was taken in charge, refused to anmissioner, against Omaha merchants for chances are that he will let some of his swer questions, and the police, convinced find his relatives. His photograph, published in the newspapers, brought some at the prospect of recovering the lost George Shepherd. When he saw that the game was up he confessed.

While his brother James, who was in the secret, and "Bill" White, who knew nothing about it, were scouring the river in the night. George was clinging to the rud-When the two men had made the land, he were dragging the Potomac mud he had Many are the cases on record where a fled to the cache in the swamps, where he and his brother had accumulated provisions, cases of food and other supplies.

Suspicious of Drawings. Taught by experiences like the preceding, the majority of companies refuse to pay death claims until the deceased man's body Captain Colvocoreases, U. S. A., was of drowning cases, for rivers, lakes and is produced. They are especially suspicious seashore resorts lend themselves too complacently to mysterious disappearances of policy-holders.

Some years ago a Boston business man, who had embarrassed his affairs by a long continued series of forgeries, endeavored to solve the difficulty by making a "mysterious disappearance." He took passage on a Fall River boat, chatted and played body the police picked up an antiquated cards late into the night with friends who ing he was not to be found anywhere on company's petition to enjoin the city. The captain was of his own admission the boat; the door of his stateroom was open, and there were his clothes, hat, Unfortunately, insurance detectives found

> Following this clew, the detectives trailed him to San Francisco, where, under an After refiring on the night of the "accident." he had shaved off all his facial growth, clipped his hair short, put on a cloth cap, a cheap shoddy suit and a labo his grop. Completely changed in appearance, he had left the boat unrecognized by hair trimmings on the floor and the towels used to wipe off a razor's blade. B. wore any one. One of the large companies in this city is puzzling out a somewhat similar case which occurred recently. A young bustness man disappeared and his clothes were found in a bathhouse at one of the beaches. Every one admitted the drowning theory until it was noticed that the watch found in his clothing was his wife's watch. A watchmaker had returned to him his own gold watch the day before the "accident."

He wore a heavy solitaire ring on his finger when he left his office; the only per for valuables" was a cheap gold filled pocket, and identified by his family. Just affair; he used to carry a large amount of cash about his person; he only checked

Not a few "drowned men" are discovered thousands of miles away from their whom they deserted their wives, thus dostrange that a highwayman with murder- ing away with the bother of divorce proous designs should go about armed with a ceedings. A few dead men whose wives were constantly watched by the companies true aim with it. Fibre from his sword sleuths have been arrested when their widows went to live with them, or even married them again under a new name

A quarrel over the spoils brought to light an interesting case, when a woman who death claim. Her brother-husband had fallen through an airhole in the ice in the presence of three witnesses. Too many accomplices spoiled the otherwise successful transaction. The clergyman who had performed the marriage ceremony recogvery bridegroom who was then testifying as to his own death. But for the greed of one of the confed erates another fraud would have been perpetrated, for every detail of the case had been so ingeniously calculated that, in spite of the fact that the body had not been recovered, the testimony of the three witnesses had never been questioned. In a great many cases when insurance specialists scent fraudulent manipulation their position is very delicate, for contesting too many claims at court may injure a company's standing.-New York Times

Company Team and Kills

Animal.

One horse was almost instantly killed the bushes; finally, the first thing that and its mate was seriously injured when a Dodge street car crashed into the team o'clock Friday morning. The team was one owned by the C. B. Havens Coal corn-

Another class of individuals, gifted in a CHANCELLOR AVERY TO TALK

Will Address the Men's Club at the Westminster Church This Evening.

Chancellor Avery of the University of West association, says that the tournament Nebraska will speak Friday night to the water on much larger and more important members of the Men's club of the Westminuter Presbyterian church on "The Re-

Men in Every Walk in Life Will Find

The Overcoats---

"Presto," "Convertible" and "Military" Coats, 52 inches long and "Regular" Overcoats 46 inches long, indicate the range of styles. Fabrics are Scotch Cheviots, Fancy Cassimeres and Kerseys, in new grays and browns, also black. Many men are choosing them, so you'd better come in Saturday sure.

The Suits---

New Fall 1910 Models, of course, and the most handsome of any shown in town. Fabrics are all wool cheviots, cassimeres and worsteds, also silk mixed worsteds, both domestic and imported, in grays, browns and dark mixtures. The $15 Suits are excellently hand tailoredthe $20 Suits are of even better workmanship-and the $25 Suits show the best tailoring that can be done.

Call on US for Men's

Boys' Suits and Overcoats

With the coming of cold, wintry days, your boy must have clothing that will stand his wear, keep him warm, fit him comfortably and look stylish as long as he wears it. Whether it's a suit or overcoat, or both, you can't afford to let him wear any but "Nebraska" garments. We say you can't afford to, because our boys' clothing is the best that first-class materials and careful workmanship can produce. It is as comfortable as it is stylish, as warm as it is serviceable and as good looking as it is inexpensive. "Military," "Convertible" and "Regular" Overcoat styles for boys of 3 to 17 years, in cheviot and fancy cassimere.

Overcoats at $2 95 to $7.45

Special values in Boys' Suits of splendid cheviot and cassimere fabrics, neat in style and fit, and of extra strong workmanship, are these. Boys' Suits at $2.95 and $3.95 to come here.

Union Suits---

"American Knitting Mills," wonderful values, $1 and $1.50 "Lewis" Union Suits, here only. at .....$1.50 "Superior" Union Suitsat $1. $1.50. $2 to $5.00

Underwear

Underwear business here is done on a bigger scale than any store in town. We do it by having complete stocks and keeping our prices less than other stores. We have the weight, the style and quality that you want for yourself and every member of your prices on standard qualities that you minutes to prove to you that it pays family. And when we quote you our know, it won't take us more than two

Two-Piece Suits---"Norfolk," "New Brunswick" Mills, here only, at .... $1.00 "Winsted" Mills-at ......$1.00 to $3.00 ( "Standard" best fleeced and derby ribbed, our price......45¢

lebraska Clothina

The House of High Merit.

FARNAM E-FIFTEENTH STS.

N. Y. DRES M KER'S STOCK

ring he had left in the bathhouse's "wrap- Brandeis Stores Make an Immense Special Purchase.

BEGINS NEXT MONDAY

the Laces, Embroideries, Trimmings, Dress Goods and Silks at Most Extraordinary Bargains.

We bought the entire stock of a fashionable New York dressmaker at a price enemies done this to slander me for the that was actually less than the cost to import these elegant goods to America. had gone through a fictitious marriage We will place the entire stock on sale Monceremony with her own brother, received day, and we can useure you of the most sioner of the Second district. wonderful bargains in the highest class of imported fabrics, trimmings and party made garments even known in Omaha.

This exquisits stock included the finest laces, bands, galloons, all overs, fancy nettings, dress trimmings and embrolderies. nized one of the three witnesses as the Among the laces are Venetian point, Irish the last two year's management (or pre- personal matter, but the great republican point Irich crochet, oriental, filet, antique, real crochet, real princess, real yak, real crochet and metal effects combined, etc. High class imported dress goods, in broadcioths, rough weaves and suitings are made to feel they are mere beggars will support Senator Burkett this fall.

will go at 65c to $1 a yard. Silks, marquisettes and gause materials, Persian effects, grenandines, imitation furs, messalines, white and black stiks and materials for party dresses and coats, go at 38c, 68c and $1 a yard.

The most exquisite dress trimmings, also all the gowns, waists, dress skirts, etc. that are partly made, including embroidered evening coats, theater kimenes, etc., will go at $2.50, $5 and $10.

Hundreds of the most extraordinary bargains for this grand stock on sale Monday BRANDEIS STORES.

PLAN FOR BIG BOWLING MEET Meeting to Be Held at the Rome Saturday Evening-Bowlers from All Over the West.

A meeting to discuss plans for the com ing convention and tournament of the Mid-West Bowling association has been called by Benjamin F. Thomas, president of the evening at the Rome hotel. Since business men are expected to be interested to the coming of the bowlers to Omaha and in their entertainment while here, they are invited to join in the discussion

G. O. Francisco, treasurer of the Midthan Omaha men are expecting. The dates set are from November 26 to December 4.

The Key to the mustion-lies Want Ads.

Our Letter Box

Contributions on Timely Subjects Not Exceeding Two Mundred Words Are Invited from Our Beaders.

Fixa's Side of It.

Bee: In fairness to myself I want to state this what the taxpayers expect? If it were that the article about my conduct at the possible for you to have a reporter here court house. October 20, is absolutely false for a few days incog, you would learn behalf of the practical and sincere friends and without any foundation. It was given things that would astound you. These are of Ireland-the men who are ever and to the reporters by one of the jurymen at straight facts. Being an employe and not the instance of one not friendly towards a member, I sign myself me. I asked to be excused and it was granted by Judge Estelle. My political simple purpose to deprive me of some votes so they could turn them over to John C. Lynch, my opponent for county commis-FRANK J. FIXA.

Conditions at Soldiers' Home.

THE SERVICE OF THE SE

members are compelled to rent rooms out- they had control of the government side the grounds on account of no room It is outsiders who are reaping more bene OMAHA, Oct. 28 .- To the Editor of The fits from the home than the old soldier. Is

A FRIEND TO THE OLD SOLDIER.

Dr. Foster Writes Another Letter. OMAHA, Oct. 26 .- To the Editor of The The Bee: A number of people have asked me how I am going to vote on United States senator, and I wish to say, by your permission through your paper, that am a republican, first, last and all the time, and that I always stand by my party BURKETT. Neb., Oct. 22.-To the Editor candidates, and will, therefore, vote for of The Hee: If possible, let your paper say, Senator E. J. Burkett. I opposed Schator a word in behalf of the old soldier. Under Burkett in the primaries because of a tended management) the members of the party by an overwhelming majority chose Home have been treated more as serfs Senator Burkett as its candidate, and as than as men who made it possible for oth- I believe in the good sense of the repubers to enjoy this great United States. They lican party more than I do in my own, through accepting what the state provides. It would be a great mistake for a re-It is supposed the state pays for the best, publican to vote for Hitchcock, because but the supplies are very inferior, both as he surely could not and will not represent groceries and wearing apparel. The com- the great progressive republican party. mander occupies with his wife two of the but would, as he has always done, reprelargest rooms on the main floor. Two sent the democratic party and do all he tudents from the Grand island college, one can to tear down the party that we repreclerk at the home, the other porter occupy- sent, and history certainly proves that the ing another room on same floor, while democrats have made great failures when DR. HARRY A. FOSTER

Jerry to the Front.

SOUTH OMAHA, Oct. 26,-To the Editor of The Bee: Permit me to thank you in always faithful and true to the Irish cause -for the space given in your valuable paper to the Irish envoy's mission, Hon. Daniel Boyle, M. P.

JEREMIAH HOWARD. Peacemaker Mortally Wounded.

SALINA, Kan., Oct. 37.—Dr. O. P. Howe, a dentist, was shot and mortally wounded in his office at Hill City, Kan., last night by C. A. Yerkes. Yerkes went to the dentist's office in search of a man whom he charged had ruined his domestic happiness and in finding the man there assaulted him with a chair. Howe went to the man's assistance and was shot. Yerkes was arrested.

This Trade-mark is on Every Genuine Package of Baker's

Breakfast Cocoa which has a world-wide reputation for high quality - a delicious flavor given by the scientific blending, and an unquestioned value as a pure and healthful beverage, supplying the body with some of the most essential elements of nutrition.

A beautifully illustrated booklet of Choice Recipes, sent free, will tell you how to use it in the best way.

52 Highest Awards in Europe and America

WALTER BAKER & CO. Ltd.

Established 1780

Registered U. S. Patent Office

Dorchester, Mass.