TWO OF THESE BEAUTIFUL BUNGALOWS ALREADY SOLD

1814 sold Howard Judson, of Midland Glass & Paint Co.
1818 sold William Schellberg, of Stock Yard Co.
1822 Manderso Street. Price $2,000.
1824 Harney Street. Price $2,100.

Each has five rooms and bath and should be seen to be appreciated. We have endeavored to depart from the ordinary style of architecture and we believe that these houses will meet with your approval. Houses will be open for your inspection this afternoon. Do not fail to investigate if you are looking for a complete little home. These bungalows have large living room, reception hall and dining room and kitchen on the first floor and combination stairway to second floor. There are two rooms and bath on second floor. First floor is all finished in oak, including the floors, excepting the kitchen, which has maple floor. Living room has oak paneling, ceiling. There are nice decorated, have first-class plumbing throughout, cemented walks and full cellar.

HASTINGS & HEYDEN, 1614 Harney Street

Moving to the Farm
The Owner Will Sacrifice his Beautiful Kountze Place Home, Which is on a South Front Lot 50x124 Feet.

There are eight large rooms besides reception hall, pantry, bath-room, closets, etc. On first floor is large reception hall, parlor, sitting room, dining room, kitchen and large butler's pantry; second floor has four large bedrooms with closets in each room, and the front bedroom has a large alcove which with the main room extends across the entire house, making a very pleasant south front room. The bathroom, which is on the second floor, has new and up-to-date fixtures. The furnace was put in new this summer and is a combination hot air and hot water plant; and from the best authority on heating plants, is the most economical furnace to use. There are screens for the entire house and awnings for the south and west; in fact this is one of the most complete homes in the city. It is very nicely decorated, having combination gas and electric light fixtures and solid brass hardware throughout. Large barn in rear. All streets around block are paved and paid for, so there will be no special taxes. Price $4,500.00—reasonable terms.

Blanche Walsh in "The Other Woman"
"Hoskald at Red Gate" at the Krug
"Old Heidelberg" at the Boyd
Vaudeville at the American
Vaudeville at the Orpheum
Burdette at the Gayety.

One of the features of the season up to the present has been the failure of a number of plays that were looked upon by their projectors as sure winners. A list of six great productions is given in one of the New York theatrical magazines for the current week. All of which prove that the manager is no more gifted with prescience today than he was in the beginning. His effort to land a success is no better rewarded, and the "show game" remains the same old gamble it has been for all time. The public goes to the theater to be entertained, and is willing to pay good money for its entertainment; and the question for the manager to answer is, "What will the public consider entertainment?"

Blanche Walsh will play a matinee at the Brandeis this afternoon appearing in "The Other Woman." Her engagement closes with a performance on Sunday night.

The inquiry for seats at the Brandeis during the engagement of Frances Starr in "The Easton Way" indicates that Omaha is anxious to see this play, whose popularity in New York and the east. The engagement opens on Monday night and includes a matinee on Wednesday.

Miss Lang and her company will close the run of "Old Heidelberg" at the Boyd with two performances today. Sunday afternoon the greatest New York and the east. "The Girl of the Golden West" will be put on.

One of the striking features of the trick bicycle act that the Millard brothers are doing at the Gayety this week in conjunction with Rose Sydel's London Belles is an overfed ferret, and the way it contributes to the act causes much laughter. The dog is 14 years old and has been working in the act ever since it was a pup. "Bill" Millard says he never signs a contract for himself and brother without having the dog mentioned therein. Tonight's performance, as is the custom every Saturday night, will start at 8 o'clock sharp.

George C. Tyler the manuscript of a new four-act play which Laeblor & Co. will produce within the next few weeks. The principal character is that of a spiritualist, a young woman who has been in the "medium game" since childhood. Liebler & Co. have in mind for this part an emotional actress at present engaged in another attraction. If the necessary arrangement can be made this actress will be started in the new drama, which, at present, has no name. Mr. Davis said he had drawn freely upon his experiences through which he passed when, as a reporter, he made a specialty of spiritualistic meetings, mediums and methods.

Frank J. McIntyre, who plays Bob Blake in "The Traveling Salesman," has written a song for Lella McIntyre of Hyams and McIntyre, who are starring in "The Girl of My Dreams." The song is entitled "I Can't Say 'Soft Soap' to Save My Soul."

The last two performances of "The Picture of Dorian Gray" and "At the Waldorf" will be given today at the Orpheum. Both of these acts have scored big successes all week, resulting in large houses for this popular vaudeville house. Oscar Wilde's epigrammatic wit is given an artistic interpretation by Edwards Davis, Adele blood and Tempus Rex. The setting is of such colorful beauty that the
