Austrians Show Thrift. Money does not grow so fast as it used to in the land of the Mormons, but there are plodding foreigners who come here and grow wealthy at tasks and for pay which the average American rejects as demeaning.

BRYAN TALKS AT LINCOLN. (Continued from First Page.) I take it for granted that candidates for the legislature are all committed to it. Our United States senator must be elected by the legislature and therefore we must elect him when we elect the legislature, but fortunately our state has adopted the Oregon plan, which enables us to separate local issues from national ones.

Will Reach Remote Parts. Lands heretofore looked upon as beyond the reach of water from canals will be brought under irrigation if this innovation proves practical. Hydraulic engineers say it is practical with electric power at 1 cent per kilowatt hour to lift water at high as fifty feet.

Old Land Deal On. The Farr Improvement company, a new corporation, has planned an addition to Ogdén which is somewhat novel, in that each owner of a lot is to have an orchard. The seventy-five acres owned by the company, through which runs an electric line, are to be divided into seventy-five lots of an acre each, on which peach and apple trees are to be planted.
