Judge Munger is Asked to Act on Proposed Increase at Union Stock Fards.

In spite of the order of the State Railway Stock Yards company should be allowed to raise switching rates from 75 cents to $1 on November 1, it is unlikely that the increase will go into effect tomorrow. A final protest against the advance is to be tried out before Judge T. C. M'VANN GOES TO WASHINGTON

Will Argue Two Important Cases Before Interstate Commerce Commission.

E. J. McVann left for Washington Monday to argue two cases before the Interstate Commerce commission. The first of these, set for November 2, is the coal rate California-Omaha benn rate. Reparation is due Omaha shippers in both cases if the railroads are beaten.

The rate on soft coal from St. Louis was back permanently. Perhans $50,000 is involved in reparation in this suit.

The bean case is better known locally because it has been up several times. It involves an increase from 75 cents to 85 cents, and in all the prel'minary battles flic shipping interests have won.
