Walter Johnson Shows that Republicans Did Not Help Dahlman.

HITCHCOCK WAS REAL SUPPORT

South Omaka Man Explains Alliance Mr. Dahlman. Between Bryan and Shullenberger and Hitchcock and Dahlman.

With an overwhelming array of facts and gic, Waiter Johnson of South Omaha has ritten a refutation of W. J. Beyan's statenent that republican votes had nominated Jahlman, Mr. Johnson shows that, instead if that fact, it was an alliance between Hitchcock and Dahiman against Metcaife and Shadenberger, with the Anti-Sajoon eague entering against the latter, that in axilty defeated Governor Shallenberger. Collowing is Mr. Johnson's letter*

To the Editor of The Bee: If you have read Mr. Bryan's speech at Lincoln you will notice that he charges the nomination of Mr. Dahlman up to republican votes. I want to say that this assertion of Mr. Bryan's is not the truth, and Mr. Bryan hould know it, and surely he does know it, The people of this state will bear in mind that there was a serious contention in the ranks of the Anti-Saloon league, which get what they want? came to the public mind just previous to the last primary election. That contenion was largely on account of a question tion was largely on account of a question What do the people think of it? These of party politics. Mr. Bryam was at the fellows have now buried the hatchet and bettern of a part of the people think of it? ottom of a part of it. At that time Mr. Bryan was lending his support to the rival into the highest offices of the state. It organization, the County Option league, will now be in order for Mr. Metcalfe to there is where the Shallenberger defeat arise (as Elihu of old) and demand a hearstarted. Mr. Bryan was sore on the Anti-Saloon league because it would not throw its support, in part, to democratic candicates. Hence his war on the league,

But Mr. Bryan won his point with the league, and rather than have two rival organizations in the state, the league supported Mr. Shallenberger at the primary slection-and such was the secret order that went out all over the state from toe league headquarters.

This explains why Mr. Shallenberger was face to face with what he would do with a county option bill in case one should pass BURKETT TALKS TO VOTERS the center of any possible operations, the legislature. The league demanded that, away from the railroad centers. Reason for the Cards. This explains why the Hitchcock machine got out the little election card with the Hitchcock machine candidates ready printed to lead the Omaha and South Omaha voter to vote for Mr. Dahlman. That card cises him was over in Europe gallivanting was printed not long ago in the State Jouraround with the crowned heads and so nai. The Omaha people will remember it Before the Metcalfe deal occurred this writer contended that Mr. Shallenberger had the nomination in his hands-but take, than of the man who runs away and Hitchcock changed the whole situation.
