has been carried forward and of where it has reached in its present development. "The Payne tariff law is the first legislative act in the progress of the actual revision of the tariff. President Taft is the leader of this movement for tariff revision. He is not only the leader, but he is the successful leader. He nationalized and made the movement possible in precisely the sense in which President Roosevelt nationalized and made possible the cause of conservation."

As to the increased cost of living, he said there was nothing in recent legislation to explain the situation. "And it is equally true," he added, "that the face of the republican party is turned distinctly in the direction of lower prices, where governmental action can influence it. It is more irresponsible confusion of thought to associate the republican party with this recent high cost of living. I am, however, most thoroughly convinced that it is the serious duty of the republican party to take up the intense situation created by the increased cost of living."

He urged Ohio to endorse President Taft's administration. "But," he said, "even if our state fails to go republican, the president will continue to grow in the confidence of the nation and will be the nominee of his party in 1922."

Peter McMartin of Beman and W. K. Adolph of Des Moines held in New York. NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Peter McMartin, a young farmer of Beman, Ia., who says he is worth half a million dollars, and William K. Adolph, a young machinist of Des Moines, Ia., were arrested tonight when they arrived at the Grand Central station, on the telegraphic request of the Des Moines police, who charged that they were wanted for the larceny of $1,000. Two pretty and well dressed young women were mentioned in the telegram and said they were Mrs. McMartin and Mrs. Adolph. They were taken to police headquarters with the men, but later were allowed to go to a hotel. The men were locked up. Both prisoners denied knowing any larceny.

MEN WHO FLY The conquest of the air by flying man is a subject that is fresh every morning. Each day some man makes ancient history of yesterday's achievements.

"The Evolution of a Flying Man," one of the intensely interesting contributions to the November Century, by Augustus Post, (one of the passengers in the famous balloon America II.) is the story of what Glenn Curtiss has done in this field. It is complete, authoritative and interesting, and it is illustrated by many new and well printed pictures.

This November number has many interesting pictures. A series by Harold Matthews Brett illustrates incidents in the lives of Nathan Hale and Major André. A series by John Wolcott Adams depicts with quaint humor "The Old Time Circus."

UNSIGHTLY ERUPTION ON FACE AND HEAD Afflicted for Months—Burned and Itched—Used Cuticura and He Was Cured in Three Weeks—Not Even a Scar Left. "As a grateful mother, I feel it my duty to thank you for the cure of my little son who was afflicted for about eight months with sores all over his head, back of his neck and nearly all his face. We tried all kinds of remedies without any relief. We even employed a good physician and I am sure he tried his best to cure my poor suffering little boy, but it was instead of getting better he grew worse. He had used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and he was cured in less than three weeks. I used them according to directions and I am happy to tell you the little sufferer was cured in less than three weeks. This was over a year ago and now his face is covered with a fine growth of hair and his skin is as soft and healthy as ever. Mrs. G. O. Conville, Plauschville, Ia., February 20, 1919."

The suffering which Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have alleviated among skin-tormented, afflicted infants, children and adults is given to prevent his scratching his head as he was doubtless suffering from a burr and itching eruption, and he was constantly trying to put his hands where it hurt. At last when he was about three years old, we saw an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and I decided to try the virtues of the Cuticura Remedies. I sent one cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Remedy. I used them according to directions and I am happy to tell you the little sufferer was cured in less than three weeks. This was over a year ago and now his face is covered with a fine growth of hair and his skin is as soft and healthy as ever. Mrs. G. O. Conville, Plauschville, Ia., February 20, 1919.
