BANDITS CONFESS TO GUILT

Disgusted Over Comrade's Treachery, Three Admit Guilt.

FOURTH HAD HELD OUT SPOILS

Four Men Arrested Thursday Night Are Identified Friday and Men Then Confess Series of Bold Highway Robberies.

As the perpetrators of an appalling number of highway robberies and burglaries, four men acknowledged their guilt to Chief of Detectives Savage Friday morning after being identified by two of their victims.

The men, or rather boys, (they range in age from 17 to 23 years), have been shadowed by detectives for the last week, but not until yesterday was evidence against them sufficient to warrant their arrest.

They gave the names and addresses as Fred Sledge, South Omaha; Frank Truman, 408 South Tenth street; Tony Pasha, 125 South Eleventh street, and Joe Trimble, said he was a laborer and refused to give his address.

Their capture came through a clue they left in burglarizing a box car at Pacific Junction on the night of October 21, from which they stole a number of pairs of shoes and four coats.

The first arrest took place Tuesday when Detective Devereux caught Tony Pasha trying to sell one of the pairs of shoes which had been stolen from the box car. The arrest of Frank Truman, known as "Monk" Truman, amateur prize fighter, followed yesterday when he was picked out by Detectives Maloney and Van Deusen as a suspicious character. Joe Trimble, the third of the bandit gang to be taken into custody, ran into the arms of the law on Tuesday. At 9 o'clock Thursday night Trimble came to the police station and confessed to the robbery.

Other holdups to which the men admitted their guilt are that of a man in Riverview park two weeks ago, from whom they got nothing; one man robbed three weeks ago at Sixteenth and Vinton streets, and another at Eleventh and Jones streets; two weeks ago Tuesday a watch was taken from a man held up on the north side of Dominion street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets.

According to Pasha, the watch from this victim was sold for $2 at a pawn shop the next day.

There are many other robberies where the loot taken was of smaller amounts, of which the highwayman are suspected.

Baby Bob Cat Dies of Sorrow

Wildcat Kitten Mourns Itself to Death in Captivity—To Be Stuffed.

Jezebel, the sad-eyed, broken-hearted, wild cat kitten has ended her brief earthly career and gone to the place where wild cats go. Jezebel died in the family residence in Riverview park and her remains will be stuffed and sold to the highest bidder. Six weeks ago Jezebel with her two little sisters was free and happy in the wilds of Wyoming. Joseph Tenney, a young man from Lusk, shot her mother, and while Jezebel and the other, new-made orphans, perched lonesomely in the tree, the intrepid Tenney climbed up and knocked them off with a club like apples from the verdant bough.

Jezebel was the only one who survived the knocking off treatment, and it completely changed her disposition so that instead of being a half-taming destroyer, she spent her days in sad and religious contemplation of the bad and that bolterous kittens come to.

Now she is dead, died of the broken-hearted homesickness that would kill anything, even a bob cat.

FUNERAL OF MRS. M'SHANE IS HELD FRIDAY MORNING

Pioneer Woman Who Died in New York is Buried in This City.

The funeral of Mrs. Cecelia McShane was held at 11 a. m. Friday from St. John's Roman Catholic church. Father McCann officiated at the service. The deceased, who accompanied the body to Omaha, was the celebrant of the mass; Father Bronsgeest, pastor of St. John's church, was deacon of the mass, and Father John Jeanette, chaplain of St. Joseph's hospital, was subdeacon. Joseph Marx, R. J., assistant pastor of St. John's church, was master of ceremonies. Knelling in the sanctuary were Father Eugene Magevney, S. J., president of Creighton university; Father Kinella, S. J.; Father Dooley, S. J.; Father Charoppin, S. J.; Father Smith, Father McGovern, Father Stromen, Father Dowd, Father Judge, Father Carroll, Father Sinne, Father Gleason and Father Gannon.

The pallbearers were Patrick McCardie, H. Schmidt, Maurilio Hussie, T. C. Byrne, Dr. S. K. Spaulding, Dr. T. J. Dwyer, Frank McArdle and Joe Kealey.

The casket was carried by J. A. C. Kennedy, Will Coad, John O'Keefe and Roy Byrne. The body was placed temporarily in the receiving vault of Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

CASH DRAWER BAFFLES THIEF

Bandit Holds Up Two Men in Butcher Shop, but Fails to Rob Register.

Because he could not manipulate a cash register, a masked robber failed to get anything in the attempted robbery of the butcher shop conducted by S. Cook at 224 North Sixteenth street, about 12 o'clock Thursday night. Mr. Cook and his assistant were in the establishment at the time the robber came up. When he presented his revolver at the two men, Mr. Cook, who was near the rear door, instead of submitting to the threat, ran out

Mayor Against the Aristocracy

Reads Bryan Out of the Party and Says "Down with the Aristocracy."

Some one has introduced Mayor Jim to the word "aristocracy" and he rang the changes on it Thursday night for all he could go in an attempt at demagogic appeal. Addressing a meeting at Koedusko hall, Dahlman screamed:

"Go behind me and we will bump the aristocracy which is trampling on your liberties. The aristocracy is very dangerous. It would take away our personal liberty. Down with the aristocracy!"

Mayor Jim was really in fine fettle Thursday night. Twice he read William J. Bryan out of the democratic party and at least once he spoke to this effect:

"When we have triumphed and people can again do as they will, why these fellows who have belted will want to come back to the party. We'll meet 'em and say, 'Welcome brothers, you are welcome back, but you come back not as generals.

Sir William Kennedy, advertising manager for the Krug brewery, introduced Mayor Jim at one of the meetings and declared "this is the proudest moment of my life." Probably Sir William meant it, but those who have heard him speak before know that he has a proudest moment every time he introduces anyone.

JUDGE SUTTON IMPRESSES THOSE WHO HEAR HIM SPEAK

Makes a Decided Hit in His Talk to the People of Fort Calhoun.

Judge A. L. Sutton will address voters this evening in the Polish hall at Twenty-sixth and Walnut, other speakers being Judge Louis Berka and Harry Zimmerman. Judge Sutton will wind up his campaign largely in South Omaha, his home.

How successful Judge Sutton's campaign in counties outside Douglas has been and how good an impression he made on people in towns where he spoke is given evidence in a letter to the Blair Tribune from its Fort Calhoun correspondent.

This writer says in language which is simple, unforced and therefore convincing: "You may call it a sermon, lecture or what you please, but nothing finer has ever been heard in Fort Calhoun than the address at the city hall by Judge Sutton of the Omaha juvenile court, and now candidates for congress. His advice to parents to learn the real characteristics of their children, the benefits to be derived these days by staying on the farm, and the dangers surrounding strange young people in the cities was the finest address on the subject we have ever heard."

"During the nearly two hours' address very little was said on politics. The judge wants to go to congress to advance a theory put forth by Roosevelt, when president, that there should be a children's department in the government where as much attention should be paid to sweet-

MINISTERS OPPOSE DAHLMAN

Nine Lutheran Pastors Declare War on Candidate and Endorse Aldrich.

In a resolution denouncing corrupt political politics in the state, nine Lutheran ministers of Omaha Friday declared war against Mayor J. C. Dahlman as candidate for governor. The resolution explained that the ministers desired not to confound the province of the church and economic affairs, but considered the election of Dahlman a detrimental prospect morally and politically for the state. The clergyman signed an endorsement of C. H. Aldrich.

TAFT CANCELS NAVAL ORDER

Torpedo Boat Destroyers Will Not Follow Aeroplanes Carrying Mail from Steamer.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—President Taft today cancelled the order promulgated by the Navy department detailing two speedy torpedo boat destroyers to follow the flight of Aviator McCurdy from the decks of the steamer Kaiserin Auguste Victoria, fifty miles at sea, to land, because he thought it would be inconsistent with previous promises to permit such use of naval vessels.
