

RED CROSS LETTER SEALS

Plan to Help Study of Prevention of Tuberculosis Continues.

SEALS ARE NOW FOR SALE

Objection is Made to the Stamps that Were Formerly Used and They Are Changed to a Different Form.

The executive secretary for Nebraska of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, Mrs. Albert Edholm, will open an office immediately to begin the winter campaign for the sale of red cross letter seals.

The seals which were formerly known as red cross stamps cost $1.75 for the cause last year and that amount will probably be doubled this winter. One hundred towns have sold them for several years and fifty more towns will be added as points of distribution.

A dispute with the postal authorities of several foreign countries has led to a change in the name of the labels. They were called stamps formerly and were placed on the obverse side of the letter near the regulation postage stamp. Many people thought that they were good for carrying letters instead of regulation postage and tried to save a cent on each letter by using them. The British and German postmasters found it too much trouble to distinguish between real stamps and charity labels so they refused to take letters that were too much stamped.

Consequently they will be called seals from now on and they are supposed to be pasted on the back of the envelope, where they can be seen and their purpose of spreading the knowledge of the associations will be accomplished without causing confusion.

The towns that are to sell the seals will be given them in quantities of 100 or 200 and they will be allowed 50 per cent of the net proceeds for use in their own anti-tuberculosis work. The other half goes to the state society. The idea of anti-tuberculosis work is very inclusive and even such sanitary improvements as are considered a part of the work. There are branches of the society in North Platte and Holdrege and in many other cities. Fremont, Scott's Bluff, Lincoln and other have agents who superintend the seal sale.

Offices in Omaha. The executive secretary will be in her office during the morning hours in room 37 Brandeis building and from there the seals will be sold. All of the work of recording the financial transactions and arranging the revenues and operations of the association is done by unpaid volunteer officials who work for the national association.

The following statement is issued by the national association: Judging from reports at hand today, the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis estimates that by December 1 not less than 75,000 red cross seals will have been distributed to selling agents in forty different states of the country.

Forty millions seals have already been printed and another large edition is being prepared. Agents' orders to date aggregated all of that amount and a considerable number have not yet stated how many seals they can use. Taking into consideration this latter class and the agents who will be appointed before December 1 the prospects for selling 100,000 stamps, which is the goal that has been set by the national workers, are extremely bright. Over thirty state societies have organized the sale on an extensive basis, and in about ten more states Red Cross seals will be sold in some places. All told, including state, city, county and sub-county, an army of fully 50,000 men, women and children will be engaged in selling the bright Christmas seals for the prevention of tuberculosis. Permits to sell seals in the corridors of all postoffices has been granted by Secretary Hitchcock. They will also be sold in department stores, hotels, railway stations, drug stores and in thousands of other places.

Every conceivable device for advertising the seals is being prepared. In some places valuable prizes will be given. Millions of slips, dogtags, postcards and other kinds of literature will be distributed calling upon the public to buy Red Cross seals. Among the agencies that are co-operating with the Red Cross and the tuberculosis societies are women's clubs, lodges, labor unions, business men's associations, stores, banks, newspapers and thousands of school boys and girls.

Harriman Shops Close Tuesday So Men May Vote

Men of the Headquarters to Be Let Off to Vote and Trainmen Arrange Schedules.

Instead of allowing the men to get off as is usually the case at time of elections the Union Pacific railroad announces a new system on these days that is shutting down the shops entirely on election day. No work of any kind in either the Union Pacific shops or the McKean motor shops will be done, but the whole day is given to the men in which to vote. However, no pay is allowed them on the election day.

The reason for the "no work" plan instead of allowing the men to absent themselves for the necessary time, as the law provides, is that many of the men merely take the time they would spend in voting in loafing around and do not exercise their right of franchise. The order does not affect the office men of the Union Pacific. At the other railroad headquarters in Omaha the usual system of allowing the office force to quit work long enough to vote will stand. All the roads in Omaha are allowing the trainmen running the trains to go to their time of running that they will be able to be in their home towns and vote during the day if it is possible.

FOUR SUSPECTS BOUND OVER

Men Arrested for Series of Holdups Arraigned Before Judge Crawford.

The four boys—Landitz, Tony Pasha, Fred Sledge, Frank (Monk) Trummer and Joe Trimble were arraigned in police court Monday morning on a charge of breaking and entering and highway robbery. They waived preliminary examinations and were bound over to the district court on $500 bonds each on the separate charges. Pasha, Sledge and Trummer were charged with holding up and robbing E. M. Cerney, a boy who resides at 121 1/2 Atlas street of a watch, a valuable lodge charm and $5 in money on October 18. Trummer and Trimble are accused of the street car conductor, J. W. Suter robbery, October 22. Cerney and Suter identified the highwaymen in Chief of Detectives Savage's office Friday morning.

The quartet is also charged with the burglary of the National Fur and Tanning company's building, 1925 South Thirteenth street from which they took $1 worth of postage stamps and a revolver. Trummer's bond amounted to $1,500 and the others $1,000 each.

Bishop Beecher to Be Ordained Here This Month

Date is Set for Trinity Cathedral for November Thirty, with Impressive Ceremony.

Bishop-elect George A. Beecher will be consecrated St. Andrew's day, November 30. This date has been set by Right Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, bishop of St. Louis and presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church. The date is announced as "provisionally set," but in all probability the consecration will occur on the last Wednesday of the current month. Bishop Tuttle will be consecrating bishop and the co-consecrators will be Right Rev. Arthur L. Williams, R. T. D., and Right Rev. Anson S. Graves, D. D., bishop of the missionary district of Kearney. Also in the chancel will be a number of other bishops. Dean Beecher is now sending out invitations to the bishops of the neighboring dioceses and most of them will be able to accept.

Bishop Williams returned Monday morning from New York, but announced that he would take no action until the end of the week with respect to the nomination of five clergymen for the deanery of Trinity cathedral or for the chancellorship of the diocese. The delay is caused by the death of the Episcopal rector of Ashland, who has just passed away at North Platte. Bishop Williams goes to attend the funeral. The consecration of Dean Beecher will be an imposing service. It will take place in the morning in Trinity cathedral and the chancel, choir and part of the nave will be filled with bishops and priests of the church, clad in full vestments. Mr. George H. Tummel, one of the vestrymen of the parish, has been appointed chairman of the committee on arrangements.
