GOOD FOR THE REPUBLICANS

Outlook in Iowa is Bright for the Entire Ticket.

LIVELY CAMPAIGN CONDUCTED

Several Congressional Districts Will Afford Big Battle Ground for the Electors—Chairmen Do Not Resort to Figures.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Iowa republicans closed their campaign today in utmost confidence of a victory for the entire state ticket and practically every congressional district.

The Des Moines Ministerial association at a session today laid plans for getting out the church vote on the theory that the larger the vote at this election the more difficult it will be for the liquor men to secure the saloons' consent petitions next summer.

Roosevelt's Visit.

The coming of Colonel Roosevelt to the state last week is believed generally to have had a good effect.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Party leaders here have not seen fit to change the early date estimates for their respective candidates.

No Change in Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Party leaders here have not seen fit to change the early date estimates for their respective candidates.

On the Philadelphia stock exchange wagers were made with odds of four to one that Toner will be elected.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 7.—The reelection of Governor Foltz by approximately 7,000 plurality over Lewis A. Waterman, democrat, was claimed by the republican state committee tonight.

Claims in Massachusetts. BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Tomorrow the voters of Massachusetts will decide whether the republicans, with Governor Eben S. Draper at the head of the ticket, shall continue in office for another year or give place to the democrats, whose aspirant for the highest office in the state is Congressman Eugene N. Foss, a former republican.

Claims in Massachusetts. BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Tomorrow the voters of Massachusetts will decide whether the republicans, with Governor Eben S. Draper at the head of the ticket, shall continue in office for another year or give place to the democrats, whose aspirant for the highest office in the state is Congressman Eugene N. Foss, a former republican.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 7.—The most active campaign the state has experienced since the last election of Cleveland was ended tonight with an address by Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, the democratic nominee for governor, at a ward rally in New Haven, and by his republican opponent, Charles A. Goodwin, at a mass meeting in Hartford.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okl., Nov. 7.—The most conservative estimate of the democrats as to the probable majority for the state ticket tomorrow is 25,000. With 30 per cent of the negro vote eliminated by the recently adopted "grandfather clause," the highest estimate is 40,000.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 7.—The state campaign closed tonight with the fusion forces, led by B. W. Hooper, republican for governor and B. A. Enloe, democratic nominee for member of the railroad commission, using their ticket will have from 30,000 to 40,000 majority.

Will Not Get Pardon. The state parole board today refused to report favorably on two important life term cases before it.

Will Send Team to Kansas City. The Iowa Rifle association at a session here decided upon sending to Kansas City a team from each of the four Iowa regiments to compete in a tournament.

Work of Railroad Commission. According to the monthly report of the State Railroad Commission there was filed

Hitchcock's Defense Dissected by a Lawyer

The discussion whether Hitchcock will put it back is assuming large proportions and even some are asked to give a sympathetic vote to Hitchcock to vindicate him for alleged abuse in this campaign.

Where was there ever an outflow of the worst type put on trial for his crime but some good sympathetic souls would bless him and shower him with flowers sent to his cell. They overlook the crime in sorrowing for his plight.

These charges against Hitchcock cannot properly or satisfactorily be tried where there is a judge to pass upon the law governing the facts and the admissibility of evidence, but enough has been produced in print to make it incumbent upon the attorney general to sue Hitchcock for recovery of the money which he refuses to return, for the statute of limitations, while it may run against Hitchcock, does not run against the state.

Does the state of Nebraska want to send to the senate of the United States a man who, if elected, is likely to be met at the threshold with a charge of being a Eleven-Year-Old Girl Places Explosive on Ground at Command of Her Father Without Injury.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Nov. 7.—Totally ignorant of the danger that surrounded her and under the impression that she was carrying water, 11-year-old Mildred Anderson today tripped along carrying in each hand a pail of nitroglycerine which had been prepared for shooting an oil well on the Cameron farm near here.

State Fair Finances. A final statement given out by the State Department of Agriculture shows that the last state fair had receipts of $137,584, and that the net profit on the fair was $7,164.

Omaha Jews Indignant at Harris' Action

Resent Letter in Which He Purports to Represent His People in Supporting Hitchcock.

Leading Jews of Omaha are very indignant at the action of L. Harris, who published a letter in the World-Herald Monday evening advocating the candidacy of Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Jr. Harris, they say, has a right to personally support Mr. Hitch or any other candidate he may fancy, but he has no right to speak as a representative of the Jewish people in making his preference public.

Republican Chairman McDonald says that if the weather is favorable, John Stephen will be elected governor by 20,000. Betting is still 2 to 1 on Shafer.

CHERRYVILLE, Nov. 7.—With pleasant weather tomorrow, it is certain that a heavy vote will be polled. The campaign has been the most bitter in the history of Wyoming.

Republicans claim F. W. Mondell will be re-elected to congress, and that the legislature will be republican, assuring the return of United States Senator Clarence D. Clark.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 7.—The campaign in Montana closed tonight with rallies in practically every county in the state. J. D. Wait, chairman of the republican state central committee, predicts the re-election of Gray for congressman by a plurality of 4,000. The democratic chairman maintains his figure of 5,000 plurality for the democratic candidates.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 7.—Based on the vote of two years ago, indications are that tomorrow's election in Utah will be close. An uncertain element in the strength the democratic promise of a state-wide prohibition law will draw from the republican ranks.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Party leaders here have not seen fit to change the early date estimates for their respective candidates.
