MUCH REDUCED OUT IN THE STATE

Seventeen Hundred and Ten Districts Out of Three Thousand Outside New York City Give 22,000 for Stimson.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—At 5:20 o'clock Mr. Stimson sent the following telegram to Mr. Dix: "The present returns clearly indicate your election. I congratulate you and send you my good wishes for success of your administration."

The returns from upstate rural sections indicate that Stimson's upstate plurality will be about 27,000, as against Dix's plurality in New York City of about 103,000, making a net plurality of about 64,000.

Returns from 50 per cent of city and 30 per cent of the state vote show such a heavy Dix plurality in the city and such a light Stimson plurality in the state as to assure the election of Dix for governor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Returns from 1,110 election districts out of 2,063 in New York state outside of the city of New York for governor give: Stimson 239,152; Dix 236,540; Hopper 2,067.

Same districts in 1906 gave: Hughes 320,002; Chandler 290,619; Shearn 2,796.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—With only 216 out of 1,100 election districts to be heard from, Dix is maintaining a plurality in New York City of approximately 103,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Henry L. Stimson said at 5:30 o'clock tonight: "I haven't given up hope yet, but things look bad upstate."

Conway, the democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, is still running only slightly behind Dix in New York City. With approximately two-thirds of the election districts in New York heard from, his plurality over Schoenbeck is 81,375, which, if maintained, will give him a plurality for the entire city of 36,900.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The Evening Post and the Evening World in extra editions announce the election of Dix.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The Dix plurality of 92,700 in New York City is indicated, with three-fourths of the vote in, and a Stimson plurality of 30,000 up state, with over two-thirds of the state vote counted, indicating a net Dix plurality of about 54,000. This will probably be somewhat reduced by returns from up state rural districts.

The following telegrams were received at Tammany hall tonight from a democrat in Colonel Roosevelt's own district in Oyster Bay:

Roosevelt's own district: Dix, 218; Stimson, 186; Hopper, 2,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Returns from 1,100 election districts out of 2,063 in New York state outside of the city of New York for governor give Stimson (rep.), 124,862; Dix (dem.), 123,690; Hopper, 1,950.

The same districts in 1906 gave Hughes 242,382; Chandler, 234,984; Shearn, 2,530.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Dix's plurality in New York City is still approximately 106,000, with two-thirds of the total city vote heard from.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Returns from nine election districts outside of New York City give Stimson a plurality of 1,132. If this ratio be maintained Stimson will have a plurality of 6,000 outside of New York City. But returns from 630 election districts in New York City show a Dix plurality of 20,477, which, if maintained, will give Dix a plurality of 112,000 in New York City, which is sufficient to wipe out the Stimson plurality up state and give Dix a plurality of the entire state upwards of 100,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—For lieutenant governor: In New York City 23 election districts out of 1,700 give Schoenbeck 31,776; Conway 31,113 and Hopper 3,491.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—In Manhattan and the Bronx 140 election districts out of 320 give Stimson 12,000; Dix 23,400 and Hopper 2,774.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Returns from over 20 per cent of the entire vote of the city and state of New York indicate the election of John A. Dix (dem.) for governor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—For lieutenant governor: In New York City 60 election districts out of 1,700 give Schoenbeck 47,044; Conway 37,800 and Hopper 3,230. If this ratio be maintained Conway will have a plurality of 100,000 in New York City, running only slightly behind the head of the list.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Returns from 713 election districts out of 2,063 in New York state outside of the city of New York for governor give Stimson 121,529; Dix (dem.), 120,788; Hopper (ind.), 1,741.

The same districts in 1906 gave Hughes 310,442; Chandler (dem.), 148,025; Shearn (ind.), 1,841.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Buffalo county returns: Dix, 32,205; Stimson, 23,285.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Serenio Payne, father of the tariff law, lost his home city by 47.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Returns from 60 election districts out of 2,063 in New York state outside of the city of New York for governor give Stimson (rep.) 94,328; Dix (dem.) 94,990; Hopper (ind.) 772.

The same districts in 1906 gave Hughes (rep.) 194,119; Chandler (dem.) 190,778; Shearn (ind.) 692.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—In the city of New York 143 election districts out of 1,700 give Stimson 12,825; Dix, 23,400; Hopper, 2,774.

President Taft Casts His Vote in Cincinnati

Chief Executive Takes Four Minutes to Mark His Ticket—Roosevelt Votes at Oyster Bay.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 8.—President Taft arrived here at 10:30 o'clock to cast his vote in his old precinct in the O'Brienville district of Cincinnati. He went from the train to the home of his brother, Charles P. Taft, and planned to go to the polls later. His stay here will be limited to about five hours.

Immediately after arrival the president sent the following telegram to the republican nominee for governor:

From Warren G. Gardner, Marion, O. I congratulate you on your wonderful career. No matter what the result today, you have commended yourself to your fellow citizens and have effectively united republican ranks for the future contest.

Accompanied by three secret service men the president climbed a short flight of steps leading into the store where the voting booths had been placed. Mr. Taft was voter No. 22 in the precinct. With the official ballot in his hand, the president was handed smaller ballots on the question of issuing $100,000 in city bonds for playgrounds and on the question of holding a constitutional convention.

The inevitable photographers were on hand and at their request the president posed for a minute with the judges in the background. He wished every one good morning and left for a motor ride and to visit several of Mrs. Taft's relatives.

Governor Judson Harmon voted here today a few hours after arriving on an early train from Toledo. He cast his ballot on Walnut Hill and he was subsequently greeted by the entered and left the polling place. After voting the governor went to Columbus.

He would venture no prediction as to the outcome of his campaign for re-election, but declared it had been a pleasant experience.

OYSTER BAY, Nov. 8.—In the old family carriage Theodore Roosevelt drove from Sagamore Hill at noon to the polling place in the fire company's house Oyster Bay, and cast his vote. Kermit Roosevelt at the same time cast his first ballot. There were three others in the carriage, Noah Kaman, who was in charge of Colonel Roosevelt's estate; "Bill" Balle, the colonel's farm hand, and James Ames, his negro butler.

Colonel Roosevelt did not appear to be at all anxious over the outcome of the election, although he had no prophesies to make. He said he was sorry that the weather was so rainy, as it might affect the upstate vote.

"No matter what the result of the election is," he continued, "the republican party will carry on the fight on the same lines."

Arrest Election Officials in Oklahoma

Men Who Refuse to Permit Negroes to Vote Charged with Conspiracy and Intimidation.

MALESTER, Okla., Nov. 8.—Charged with conspiracy to injure negroes, threaten and intimidate certain negro citizens by refusing them the right to vote, half the election officials of Malester were arrested today, taken before the United States commission and held on bonds of $2,000 each.

All the officials brought their ballot boxes to the commissioner when they gave bail, refusing to surrender their duties or leave the ballot boxes with any one else.

MALESTER, Okla., Nov. 8.—Warrants were issued this afternoon for the arrest of eight election officials in Muskogee and Wagoner counties. The warrants which were issued by the federal authorities charge the officials with violation of section 19 of the federal code, which has reference to conspiracy to prevent legal voters from exercising the right of suffrage.

The arrests occurred when the officials denied negroes the right to vote.

If the same ratio of republicans gain is maintained in the rest of the state a majority is indicated for Bass for governor of 5,141.

CONCORD, Nov. 8.—Ninety election districts out of 290 in New Hampshire for governor give Bass (rep.) 5,338; Carr (dem.) 4,608. In 1906 the same districts gave Quinby (rep.) 5,172; Carr (dem.) 5,141.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 8.—Governor Carroll (Rep.) was heavily scratched all over the state. Porter (Dem.), for governor carried Cedar Rapids 5,430 to 1,734. Twenty-one precincts in Des Moines give Porter a lead of 471 votes. On the basis of meager early returns Carroll should win by about 5,000. Republicans claim all congressional districts except the Second, Fourth and Sixth.

Judge Prouty, republican, seems safe in the Seventh, the Des Moines district.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 8.—Eleven out of thirty-one precincts of Davenport (Second dist.) show a heavy Pepper demoral. for congress running two to one over Charles Grik, to speak for whom Colonel Roosevelt interrupted his New York campaign.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 8.—Early returns in St. Louis show a leading Carroll for governor by nearly two to one.

MURPHY LEADS HAUGHEN. MASON CITY, Ia., Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram)—D. D. Murphy (dem.) carries Cerro Gordo county over Haughen, by 300. Same ratio of gain in other counties of the district would give him district by 6,000.

OHIO

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—Twenty precincts in the city gave Harding (rep.) 2,922; Harmon (dem.), 1,708.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—Two hours after the polls closed Lewis Bernard, democratic leader in Hamilton county, claimed that Governor Harmon had carried the county by a plurality of 15,000 over Warren G. Harding, republican. Two years ago Harmon's plurality was approximately 19,000.

MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—The democrats gained plurality in the first forty-seven representatives reported elected tonight. Thirty were reported 20 per cent and if maintained through the state would give the democrats between eighty and eighty-five seats out of a total of 240 in the house, which would not be enough to affect the election of United States senators.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Governor Eben S. Draper gave out a statement tonight conceding the election of Mr. Foss by a substantial plurality and congratulating him.

WEST VIRGINIA

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 8.—The election throughout was unusually quiet in every section of the state and the vote was lighter than expected. In Cabell county at the close of the polls the democrats gain one member of the state legislature. In Clay county the democrats also claim a gain of one member for the legislature.

PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Republican State Chairman Walton claims the election of Congressman John K. Tener (rep.) for governor by a large plurality. Tener, his Keystone party opponent, does not appear to have been as strong as his friends had expected, while Gilm, the democratic candidate is running far behind.

Only scattering returns have been received up to 1:30 p. m., but they all favor Tener and it is claimed he will have 100,000 plurality.

RIOT CALL AT LINCOLN POLLS

NEW WALKS AROUND CAPITOL

Secretary of State Jankin Realizes Ambition He Has Nourished Many Years—New Uniforms for Guard.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—While election day as a general proposition was rather quiet here, at times there was something doing of an exciting nature.

In precinct A of the First ward a riot call was sent in by the judges in order to clear the card distributors away from the polls. Young boys and men had been employed by various candidates to distribute cards, and in their zeal to earn their wages they sometimes followed the voters almost to the booth.

When ordered to leave several objected and the police were called. The boys were chased 100 yards away. While the police were at the polling place four men were seen in an automobile, evidently of foreign birth. They started to leave the machine, but upon seeing the officers they crawled back and drove away. Whether they ever got to vote is not known.

Carriages and automobiles were thick on the streets all day. Some bore placards of candidates, but a lot of them were not designated as republican or democratic.

The weather was ideal all day and the vote in the residence wards was heavy early in the morning.

In several churches women congregated and prayed for the success of Senator Aldrich and the dry ticket, while the McKinley claims were played at intervals.

New Walks Around State House. Before he goes out of office next January Secretary of State George C. Jankin will have realized one of the ambitions he has nourished for many years. Back in 1892 Mr. Jankin, then a member of the house from Gasper county, endeavored to get an appropriation to put in walks around the state house and through the grounds, which would not become drainage ditches in time of rain. He discovered the cost would be the neighborhood of $1,000 and figured that he would be entirely too much money for the work, so nothing further was done.

Mr. Jankin, however, after spending almost four years in the capitol building, was more and more impressed with the necessity of decent walks, so he got busy and found the Board of Public Lands and Buildings had a little money on hand.

The east side of each man will be ascertained and requisition made for only such uniforms as they are furnished, and the requisition limited to the men actually participating in company drill and attendance.

A few number of these uniforms will be limited to 1,500 so that the issue to companies must be limited to those actually used.

When a company commander finds on hand a uniform which cannot be used, he will return same at once for exchange. The surplus of surplus stock cannot be permitted.

Officers of the Nebraska National Guard are urged to have their uniforms repaired and returned to the quartermaster.

Nebraska is repeating its history as regards delay in reporting the result of the election. Indications are that Aldrich, republican candidate for governor, will carry the city and county by a nearly normal plurality, probably from 1,600 to 1,700. The republican slump to Dahlman, democrat, for governor is offset by the democratic and populist support of Aldrich. There was less scratching than expected.

Four county and one Lincoln city precinct in this, Lancaster county, show a net democratic loss of $4.
