Motive of Suicide of Herman Busch Still a Mystery.

LIFE EXTINCT SEVERAL HOURS

Body is Found Floating in the Woods with Revolver Clutched in His Right Hand and Lips Bared.

The motive for the suicide of Herman Busch, the carpenter in the employment of Swifts, is still a mystery to his friends. As a workman he was in a prosperous condition and when he was seen at 11:37 Tuesday night he was apparently in the best of spirits. Before that he had been at the Eagle hall and left there to get the latest news of the election. The next seen of him was his dead body being found by Carl Lind, a son of Captain Lind of the fire department. This was at 7:30 a. m. and life had been extinct for several hours. The body was lying in the woods at Seventeenth and I streets, altogether away from the home of the deceased. The revolver was clutched in his right hand and the lips were bared with the powder.

Busch is survived by a widow and two daughters. The funeral will be held tomorrow from the house, 815 North Twenty-first at 2 o'clock, and the interment will be in Laurel Hill cemetery.

Divisionists

Are in the Same Fix as Before

Situation in Custer County is Unchanged, Proposition Being Beaten Decisively.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Nov. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—Although fiercely fought at the polls in Tuesday's election, the situation in county division remains practically the same as it did one year ago. Returns from all parts of the county show no material gain for the divisionists while in some of the strongholds the vote has fallen off. Broken Bow polled the largest vote in the history of the town, while the other old districts made a good showing. County division is defeated by at least 1,500 votes.

Trial of Rustin

Suit is Resumed

Deposition of Dr. William Lavender, Who Conducted Autopsy, Asserts No Powder Grains Were Found.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—The trial of Mrs. Grace Rustin's consolidated suit against five insurance companies on policies held by her husband, Dr. Frederick Rustin, whose sensational death in Omaha in September, 1908, attracted national attention, was resumed this morning in Judge William Field's court. Mrs. Rustin was asked regarding some details of the occurrences at the Rustin home the morning Dr. Rustin sustained a fatal gunshot wound.

The plaintiff's counsel contended in the opening statement Monday that Dr. Rustin was murdered, and counsel for the defendants claimed proof gathered by the insurance company was to the effect that Dr. Rustin's death was the result of a suicide attempt.

Marshall Bullitt, of counsel for the plaintiff, read the deposition of an Omaha detective in which he stated he searched the premises and vicinity of the Rustin home and found no weapon of any kind.

Mr. Forchert, Jr., read for the defendant the deposition of a member of the Omaha police force. He deposed that he had seen Dr. Rustin frequent certain saloons and at times under the influence of liquor.

Mr. Bullitt read the deposition of Dr. William Lavender, who conducted the autopsy in the case of Dr. Rustin. Dr. Lavender deposed that there was an abrasion on the temple and a slight bruise on the arm. A careful examination, witness deposed, revealed a bullet wound in the abdomen, and the course of the bullet was at an absolutely straight angle to the body.

The physician's deposition was to the effect that a microscopic examination of the body revealed also the absence of powder grains or other foreign matter other than the bullet.

"I have been afflicted with a sore case of kidney and bladder trouble, for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. Police Find Dead Man in Corn Field

Evidently Came to His Death by Suicide, But His Identity is Mystery.

The body of an unidentified man, apparently about 40 years old, was found yesterday afternoon partially concealed by grass and weeds in a cornfield near the Union Pacific dump in the vicinity of South Thirtieth street and Ninth avenue, Council Bluffs. The body had apparently lain there for two or three months. The clothing was weatherbeaten and almost ready to fall apart.

Underneath the body lay a coil of rope and a 40-calibre Colt's revolver with part of the chambers empty. The hair and scalp had fallen from the skull and on the upper right side a large bullet hole showed the cause of death. Not a scra of writing or other means of identification was found in the clothing. The clothing was that of a laboring man. The indications point to suicide, but under the circumstances this can only be a surmise.

The cornfield is in an isolated location, southwest of the Herman greenhouses. It is a small tract and has been listed by its owner except for general purposes of observation since the corn plowing season ended. The body was found when men were gathering the corn crop.

The remains were taken to the Cutler morgue by order of Coroner Treynor and the police department asked to co-operate in the effort to establish the man's identity. Apparently the man had provided himself with a coil of rope and a big revolver, bent on self-destruction either by hanging or shooting, and the loneliness of the cornfield suggested the latter.

The police have no reports of missing men corresponding with the description of the dead man. Only one thus reported is still missing, and he is Andy Lorenzen, the former party driver, who left the service last spring to become a rancher near Norfolk, Neb., and disappeared after a visit here about June 1. The description, however, in no degree fits him. The dead man was of small stature and had red hair.

A more careful examination of the clothing of the dead man made last evening revealed some things which may lead to identification. In his pocketbook that was found in the partly decayed clothes was found a package of baggage check issued by Barkalow Bros., Omaha, and numbered H 215. The black Stetson hat which he wore bore the name of the Plymouth Clothing store, Dodge, Ia., and the merchant's mark on his coat showed that his suit was sold by J. Capps & Son, Jacksonville, Ill. A filled gold case, open face Waltham watch and chain and 50 cents cash were all that could be found in his clothing.

The weeds had grown up around the body to a height of several feet.

W. I. SMITH IS RE-ELECTED

Congressman's Plurality Will Reach 1,500 in Ninth Iowa District.

WINNING CANDIDATES. Representative—John T. Hanson (dem.)

Surveyor—Erwin B. Spetman (rep.) Coroner—L. E. Cutler (rep.) Supervisors—W. C. Childers (rep.) Frank M. Trus (dem.) D. A. Coe (dem. 1910 term.)

Judge Superior Court—E. B. Snyder (rep.) Justices—J. E. Cooper (dem.) E. B. Gardner (rep.)

With two city precincts, the first of the Sixth and second of the First wards, still missing at 10 o'clock last night, the returns from Tuesday's election show that Porter, democratic candidate for governor, carried Pottawattamie county by a majority of 154. The unofficial returns, however, from the two missing precincts, reduce this greatly, leaving it practically to the official count to determine if Pottawattamie county went democratic on the head of the ticket.

Congressman Smith carries the Ninth district by approximately 1,500, but on the face of the returns, minus the two missing precincts, only carries his own county by forty-four. The total vote for Smith in the county was 4,376 and for Cleveland, the democratic opponent, 4,331. The unofficial returns from Adair county give Smith 331 majority. Audubon county, 225; Cass, 150; Guthrie, 400; Mills, 225; and Montgomery, 280. Cleveland only carried two counties in the district, his own, Shelby, by a majority of 70, and Harrison county by nine.

Despite the hard fight made upon J. W. Mitchell, especially in the east end of the county, he ran ahead of his ticket in the greater number of the forty-four precincts in the county. The next hardest fight was made on R. V. Innes, republican candidate for re-election as county auditor, and although admitted to be the best candidate, the county has ever had, he was defeated by nearly 400.

In the city S. B. Snyder, republican candidate for judge of the superior court and police judge, was singled out for the concentrated opposition of the democrats, whose candidate, John P. Tinley, had the advantage of having won over a large number of republican voters. Snyder would undoubtedly have been defeated if the arrangement of the ballots had not placed Tinley's name at the very bottom of the whole ticket with several blank spaces, meant for township trustees, between his name and the body of the ticket.

As a general thing the voters seldom pay any attention to the names at the tail of the ticket, and Tinley lost a large number of votes for this reason. In five of the precincts 156 democratic ballots were noted that were not marked for him or his opponent. Snyder's name had the location on the republican ticket, but he was given a slight advantage by the township blanks filled by printed names. Minus the two missing precincts Snyder's majority was 32.

The defeat of Miss Charlotte Dryden for county superintendent was a very great surprise. Notwithstanding the popularity of Mr. Puryear, who is the head of a business college, it was generally believed that Miss Dryden would poll much more than the full democratic vote.

Burial will be in Fairview. Seeking a little relaxation from the strain incident to the election, a party of Council Bluffs men left yesterday morning for a brief hunting trip in the vicinity of Omaha where they had been invited to tramp around the duck ponds and grain fields on the extensive farm of William Malone, who agreed to make it easy for the exhausted hunters, even if it required the chasing out of some of his tame ducks to be shot at. The party comprised W. H. Hartman, J. C. McFriede, Harry Brown, Charles F. Paschel, George F. Hughes and C. C. Larsen. At the business meeting of the Danish Brotherhood on Tuesday evening, Miss Ella Olsen, president of the Baptist Young People's union, gave the church a fine new piano which she had purchased for the church, and Mrs. Reichenbach, the young church member, finished paying for it and they waited until it was clear of debt before presenting it to the church to become a part of its property. The instrument is a handsome one, and the generous gift was the members of the society hearty praise from this congregation. At the close of the church meeting the young people served refreshments. The sudden gale of cold wind created a great deal of discomfort to several of the people on the streets. The street sprinkling service was reduced one-half at the beginning of the month, and although Mayor Maloney has earned the gratitude of the citizens by getting the streets in cleaner and better condition than they have been at corresponding periods for many years, clouds of dust and some good sized missiles were blown over the city. The weather was something of a disappointment to the Fruit and Corn show people, as it was not as warm as the conditions for the opening today.
