Governor Carroll of Iowa Names Des Moines Editor as Successor of Delliver. COMMISSION ALREADY DELIVERED Will Serve Until Legislature Convenes Next January. TO SEEK THE REGULAR ELECTION Soon Goes to Washington to Take the Oath of Office. APPOINTEE IS A NATIVE IOWAN

For Years Ras Been Active in Repub-Hean Politics and Has Been a Supporter of Taft Admin-Intraction.

(From a Staff Correspondent,) DES MOINES, Nov. 12-(Special Telegram.)-Lafayette Young, editor of the Des Moines Capital, was today appointed United States senator to succeed the late J. P. Dolliver. The commission was delivered to Mr. Young by Governor Carcol' at noon, Senator Young will serve until the legislature elects a successor. The legislative session convenes on January S. It will be the duty of that legislature to elect a senator to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Dolliver, which ends in 1912.

Senator Young is a native lowan, horn in this state in 1848. Most of his life he has devoted to the newspaper profession. Last year he celebrated his twentleth year as owner of the Des Moines Daily Capital. one of the leading newspapers of the middle west. In politics Colonel Young has vigorously supported the administration of President Taft. He has been one of the ablent supporters of Governor Carroll, and his newspaper was a powerful factor in the re-election of the governor at the election just held.

Senator Young has a national reputation as an orator. In 1900 at the Philadelphia republican convention he nominated Theodore Roosevelt for vice president. He has been twice delegate-at-large to the republican national convention from Iowa. He accompanied President Taft on his trip to the Philippines some years ago and is a personal friend of the president.
