

HIGH SCHOOL - OGDEN, UTAH

STATE INSTITUTION FOR DEAF, OGDEN-UTAH

STATE INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL OGDEN Utah.

MASONIC TEMPLE OGDEN UTAH. FIRST MASONIC BUILDING IN UTAH ERECTED 1706

WEBER COUNTY COURT HOUSE OGDEN, Utah.

Ogden, Utah, Needs You; You Need Ogden, Utah

OGDEN is a city about the same size as Lincoln, Nebraska. The thirty thousand people who make their homes here are prosperous, contented, well dressed, well to do folk, who work industriously, laugh heartily, think seriously and live well. Great Salt Lake, the inland sea of this continent, lies only an hour's ride away; Ogden Canyon, reached by the most perfect mountain road in America, is a mountain gorge of such extraordinary grandeur of scenery, that travelers of the world, globe trotters, have said it excels anything in Europe. Hot Mineral Springs, possessing medical and curative properties, abound in this valley. With a climate not excelled on this continent; with work for everyone to do, land to be acquired at a reasonable price, close cash markets where produce may be quickly sold, Ogden believes you need the opportunity she has to offer as much as she needs your effort towards the developing of them.

MONEY can be loaned in Ogden, Utah, upon absolutely safe security as high as 8% and 10%. Make your money work for you. Great canning plants, cement grinding mills, the shops of the Union Pacific railroad, located here, make for Ogden a constant degree of improvement, and a reasonable hope that the ambition of any man will meet full fruition in this city. Money is needed for the building of homes; for the purchase of trees, seeds, for investment in the development of new farming properties, and for the hundred and one needs and necessities of a

NEW country; needs and necessities which an older settled community no longer knows, because it has passed that stage in its development.

INVESTMENTS in Ogden, Utah, whether they be made in town lots, office buildings, bonds, warrants or real estate mortgages, will prove unbelievably profitable. The city is growing; its past is that of a conservative increase in real values, of population and of building activities. Any banker in the city of Ogden will be glad to advise with reference to any investment you may hope to make in the west.

FARM LANDS about this city are among the most fertile in the Inter-Mountain West today. These lands may be purchased at a very reasonable price, and the inevitable increase in their values would certainly afford a fortune, whether the land was actually cultivated or not. Facts which cannot be assailed, statistics governing every form of activity in this, the second largest city in the Inter-Mountain West; the entrepot to all the wealth of the historic northwest, will be furnished absolutely free of cost.

THE WEBER CLUB of this city, an association of business men at this time erecting a permanent home upon their own property, has employed a paid secretary, whose business it is to answer inquiries carefully, conservatively, and with the utmost conservatism. If there is anything you wish to know about Ogden or about the different Inter-Mountain West you are requested to write today. Write right now. Address your letter this way:

The Secretary,
THE WEBER CLUB, Ogden, Utah.