

Political and Social News by Cable and Correspondence from the Old World

IDLE TEACHERS, ENGLISH PROBLEM

Army of Professional Pedagogues Without Schools Gives Worry to Ministry.

HUNDREDS CLAMOR FOR WORK

Sad Spectacle Presented by Mob at County Hall.

CHILDREN ALSO LACK SCHOOLS

Thirteen Thousand Youngsters Cannot Attend in London Alone.

AGE LIMIT FOR CLERKS FAILS

Commissioners of Customs and Excise Make an Interesting Showing on Changing Social Conditions in Great Britain.

AGED CLERKS WIN OUT

At the last meeting of the city council the finance committee recommended that temporary clerks over 45 years old should not be put on the permanent staff. A debate followed and the proposed age limit was lost.

SEVERAL MEN DENOUNCED TO KNOW IF

It is definitely settled that the king and queen will be present at the investiture of the prince of Wales at Caerwys on July 25th.

OLD MURKIN DISCOVERED

During the recent sectarian outbreak in Liverpool the occupant of a house in what is known as the Spanish quarter, handed over to a dealer a picture of the Madonna and Child which has been in possession of his family for over 100 years.

ENGLISH OFFICERS LOSE COMMISSIONS

Subaltern Objected to Native Doctor in Regiment and His Superiors Suffer.

SCOTCH FARMERS GO ABROAD

Will Investigate Agricultural Conditions in Australia and report to Home Folks.

INDIA GETS A POLICE DOG

Arrival of a Trained Bloodhound Marks New Departure in Thief Taking.

VANNUTELLI IS ENTHUSIASTIC

Cardinal Recently in Omaha Tells the Pope What He Saw.

DEMONSTRATIONS PLEASED HIM

Ruler of Catholic Church Rejoices Over Participation of Children in Welcome—Pope Plus a Lover of Athletics.

POPE PLUS A LOVER OF ATHLETICS

Incidentally their meeting brings out the fact that the pope is a great lover of healthy outdoor sports and that when a boy and a youth, too, he excelled as a runner and a swimmer.

GERMAN WOMEN REPLY TO WILHELM

The League of Association of German Women, which held its annual conference at Heidelberg, discussed the Kaiser's speech, in which the emperor admonished German women to devote themselves to the work of the home.

DRAMA OF MISUSED AUTHORITY

Within three days of the fourth anniversary of the imperial exploit of the spurious captain, Koepenick has been once more shaken out of its suburban repose by a strange drama of misused authority.

ENGLISHMEN STIFF-NECKED

Refusing to Rise for Republican Anthem Are Given a Lesson in Courtesy.

PLAN TO REFORM GERMAN POLICE

Blunders of Policemen Arouse the Populace to a Spirit of Rebellion.

RULERS OF FORCE ARE TO BLAME

Contradictory Orders Issued, and Men Obey Too Well.

GERMAN FRAUS LECTURE KAISER

Women's Organization Send Tart Reply to Criticism.

KOEPENICK IS AGAIN AROUSED

Demoted Station Master Puzzles His Subordinates by Queer Behavior at Night—German Catholics Denounce Nathan.

RAILROAD RATES IN IRELAND

Tariff for Freight and Passengers Works Against Island.

BUSINESS MEN IN AGITATION

Declares the Irish Roads at Present Work for the Benefit of the Manufacturers of England Exclusively.

WANT COLUMBUS IN LIST OF SAINTS

French Catholics Start Movement to Have the Great Discoverer Canonized.

HAVE APPEALED TO POPE PIUS

Earlier Move in Same Direction Met with Failure.

RAILROAD STRIKE ILL-ADVISED

Men and Government Were Both to Blame for Trouble.

PLACE OF AEROPLANE IN WAR

French Experts Argue that if the Airships Can Carry Men They Also Carry Ammunition Against Enemy.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

Devout French Catholics who revere the memory of Christopher Columbus are urging the pope to canonize the great discoverer of the American continent.

RAILROAD STRIKE ILL-ADVISED

The railway strike was an ugly event, and its significance is not destroyed by its sudden and ignominious collapse.

PRICE LAGS

One of the latest men in Ireland, whose name is Maynard, a tall, well built man, was charged recently with neglecting to break his allotted quantity of stones whilst an inmate of the jail, explaining that he "wanted more apprenticeship to do that kind of work."

EXTRAORDINARY WILL

A will written on blotting paper was recently presented to County Judge Craig at the Monaghan court. His honor remarked that it was the most extraordinary document he saw in his whole life, but he announced that it was proof of the ownership of the property.

STILL SELLING ESTATE

The Estates Commissioners propose to acquire compulsorily lands in Tawrasah Castle, Kildare, the property of Marianne Doyle. The land will be sold in small parcels to the tenants.

TURKEY BREAKS WITH GREECE

Ottoman Minister at Athens Given an Indefinite Leave of Absence.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

The Tanin state that the government will grant Nahi Bey, the Ottoman minister at Athens, who has been here for the last two months, an indefinite leave of absence.

ENGLISHMEN STIFF-NECKED

Refusing to Rise for Republican Anthem Are Given a Lesson in Courtesy.

WAR BOND BUILDING NECESSARY

The steady building up of our feet is the answer Germany should give to Mr. Balfour's Glasgow speech, says The Newcastle Chronicle.

RAILROAD RATES IN IRELAND

Tariff for Freight and Passengers Works Against Island.

BUSINESS MEN IN AGITATION

Declares the Irish Roads at Present Work for the Benefit of the Manufacturers of England Exclusively.

WANT COLUMBUS IN LIST OF SAINTS

French Catholics Start Movement to Have the Great Discoverer Canonized.

HAVE APPEALED TO POPE PIUS

Earlier Move in Same Direction Met with Failure.

RAILROAD STRIKE ILL-ADVISED

Men and Government Were Both to Blame for Trouble.

PLACE OF AEROPLANE IN WAR

French Experts Argue that if the Airships Can Carry Men They Also Carry Ammunition Against Enemy.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

Devout French Catholics who revere the memory of Christopher Columbus are urging the pope to canonize the great discoverer of the American continent.

RAILROAD STRIKE ILL-ADVISED

The railway strike was an ugly event, and its significance is not destroyed by its sudden and ignominious collapse.

PRICE LAGS

One of the latest men in Ireland, whose name is Maynard, a tall, well built man, was charged recently with neglecting to break his allotted quantity of stones whilst an inmate of the jail, explaining that he "wanted more apprenticeship to do that kind of work."

EXTRAORDINARY WILL

A will written on blotting paper was recently presented to County Judge Craig at the Monaghan court. His honor remarked that it was the most extraordinary document he saw in his whole life, but he announced that it was proof of the ownership of the property.

STILL SELLING ESTATE

The Estates Commissioners propose to acquire compulsorily lands in Tawrasah Castle, Kildare, the property of Marianne Doyle. The land will be sold in small parcels to the tenants.

TURKEY BREAKS WITH GREECE

Ottoman Minister at Athens Given an Indefinite Leave of Absence.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

The Tanin state that the government will grant Nahi Bey, the Ottoman minister at Athens, who has been here for the last two months, an indefinite leave of absence.

ENGLISHMEN STIFF-NECKED

Refusing to Rise for Republican Anthem Are Given a Lesson in Courtesy.

WAR BOND BUILDING NECESSARY

The steady building up of our feet is the answer Germany should give to Mr. Balfour's Glasgow speech, says The Newcastle Chronicle.

WANT COLUMBUS IN LIST OF SAINTS

French Catholics Start Movement to Have the Great Discoverer Canonized.

HAVE APPEALED TO POPE PIUS

Earlier Move in Same Direction Met with Failure.

RAILROAD STRIKE ILL-ADVISED

Men and Government Were Both to Blame for Trouble.

PLACE OF AEROPLANE IN WAR

French Experts Argue that if the Airships Can Carry Men They Also Carry Ammunition Against Enemy.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

Devout French Catholics who revere the memory of Christopher Columbus are urging the pope to canonize the great discoverer of the American continent.

RAILROAD STRIKE ILL-ADVISED

The railway strike was an ugly event, and its significance is not destroyed by its sudden and ignominious collapse.

PRICE LAGS

One of the latest men in Ireland, whose name is Maynard, a tall, well built man, was charged recently with neglecting to break his allotted quantity of stones whilst an inmate of the jail, explaining that he "wanted more apprenticeship to do that kind of work."

EXTRAORDINARY WILL

A will written on blotting paper was recently presented to County Judge Craig at the Monaghan court. His honor remarked that it was the most extraordinary document he saw in his whole life, but he announced that it was proof of the ownership of the property.

STILL SELLING ESTATE

The Estates Commissioners propose to acquire compulsorily lands in Tawrasah Castle, Kildare, the property of Marianne Doyle. The land will be sold in small parcels to the tenants.

TURKEY BREAKS WITH GREECE

Ottoman Minister at Athens Given an Indefinite Leave of Absence.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

The Tanin state that the government will grant Nahi Bey, the Ottoman minister at Athens, who has been here for the last two months, an indefinite leave of absence.

ENGLISHMEN STIFF-NECKED

Refusing to Rise for Republican Anthem Are Given a Lesson in Courtesy.

WAR BOND BUILDING NECESSARY

The steady building up of our feet is the answer Germany should give to Mr. Balfour's Glasgow speech, says The Newcastle Chronicle.

DANES RESSENT ENGLISH ACT

Magistrate Kidnaped on a Trawler While Doing His Duty.

WAS CARRIED ACROSS CHANNEL

Denial from Authoritative Source of Alleged Intention of King George to Abdicate the Greek Throne.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

The British Foreign office may have a pretty hard nut to crack when the Danish government asks for an explanation of the practical kidnaping of M. Bjaeresson, a magistrate and revenue officer of Pafloekford, who went on board the trawler Chieftain of Hull in order to seize it for fishing within the territorial waters of Denmark.

FISHERMAN HELPED BY EMPRESS

Pursing a violent storm recently the Empress Marie of Russia while watching for her sister, Queen Alexandra, in the garden of the Villa Hvidovre, near Copenhagen, noticed a fisherman in a small boat stranded in a most perilous position on a sandbank.

DANISH ROYALTY MOVE

The king and queen of Denmark have left the castle of Chateaufort and will spend the next few weeks at Fredensborg, the royal domain on Lake Saron.

ALEXANDRA DEFERS VISIT

Queen Alexandra has finally decided not to visit Norway this year, but Princess Victoria has left Copenhagen for Christiania, and will be the guest of King Haakon and Queen Maud until she returns to England.

WOMAN PASSED AS MONK

Recently the Scandinavian press has published various rumors to the effect that the abdication of the king of Greece is about to be announced.

MEMORIAL TO KING EDWARD

The memorial to King Edward, which is to be placed in St. Alban's church at Copenhagen is a bust in relief, a replica of the memorial just erected in Sandringham Park.

AIRSHIPS USED IN SIGHTSEEING

Very instructive is the explanation of the present position of the anarchists in France given by M. Guichard, the official who is in charge of the police department, who devotes special attention to their movements.

KING CHARLES LOSES VOICE

Ruler of Roumania a Sufferer from Complaints that Enforce a Long Rest.

WIFE NAILED HUSBAND DOWN

Made a Pre-Nuptial Agreement He Could Not Keep and She Got a Divorce.

SINGAPORE, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

A remarkable pre-nuptial agreement was offered in a recent divorce suit. The marriage agreement provided that the husband should give his whole pay to his wife.

EXCURSIONS IN AIR LANES

Enterprising Aeronaut Springs a Surprising Novelty on Visitors at Biarritz.

BONES OF BUDDHA GIVEN TO BURMAH

Magnificent Pagoda to Be Built at Mandalay to Hold the Precious Relics.

CALCUTTA, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

Burma now has the bones of Buddha which in June of last year, in a tomb, was discovered at Peshawar. A claim was made by various countries professing Buddhism for the custody of the relics.

WIFE NAILED HUSBAND DOWN

Made a Pre-Nuptial Agreement He Could Not Keep and She Got a Divorce.

SINGAPORE, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

A remarkable pre-nuptial agreement was offered in a recent divorce suit. The marriage agreement provided that the husband should give his whole pay to his wife.

EXCURSIONS IN AIR LANES

Enterprising Aeronaut Springs a Surprising Novelty on Visitors at Biarritz.

BIARRITZ, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

A novel notice is to be posted at Biarritz for the purpose of advertising the Promenade au Aero Laine, addressed to au Congreger. M. Maurice Tabuteau, a well known pilot, is the aerial conductor. This is probably the first hotel to possess so novel an attraction.

COUNT TOLSTOY IS FAILING FAST

Greatest Personality in the Domain of the Czar Cannot Survive Very Long.

KEPT ALIVE BY WILL POWER

Wonderful Old Man Faces Call of Death in Good Humor.

VALLANT RACE FOR A BRIDE

Russian-American Meets Obstacles, but Wins Out.

SWEETHEART WAS PEREMPTORY

Austere Inmates of a Monastery Are Shocked by the Discovery that One of Their Number is a Woman.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

It is feared that it is only a matter of a few days when the announcement of the death of Count Tolstoy will be made. The venerable philosopher has not recovered well from his last attack and has been steadily growing weaker.

VALLANT RACE FOR A BRIDE

Friends of Christopher Krader of Warsaw are offering him congratulations on his successful race against time to win a bride.

KEPT ALIVE BY WILL POWER

Wonderful Old Man Faces Call of Death in Good Humor.

VALLANT RACE FOR A BRIDE

Russian-American Meets Obstacles, but Wins Out.

SWEETHEART WAS PEREMPTORY

Austere Inmates of a Monastery Are Shocked by the Discovery that One of Their Number is a Woman.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

It is feared that it is only a matter of a few days when the announcement of the death of Count Tolstoy will be made. The venerable philosopher has not recovered well from his last attack and has been steadily growing weaker.

VALLANT RACE FOR A BRIDE

Friends of Christopher Krader of Warsaw are offering him congratulations on his successful race against time to win a bride.

KEPT ALIVE BY WILL POWER

Wonderful Old Man Faces Call of Death in Good Humor.

VALLANT RACE FOR A BRIDE

Russian-American Meets Obstacles, but Wins Out.

SWEETHEART WAS PEREMPTORY

Austere Inmates of a Monastery Are Shocked by the Discovery that One of Their Number is a Woman.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Bee.)

It is feared that it is only a matter of a few days when the announcement of the death of Count Tolstoy will be made. The venerable philosopher has not recovered well from his last attack and has been steadily growing weaker.

VALLANT RACE FOR A BRIDE

Friends of Christopher Krader of Warsaw are offering him congratulations on his successful race against time to win a bride.

KEPT ALIVE BY WILL POWER

Wonderful Old Man Faces Call of Death in Good Humor.

VALLANT RACE FOR A BRIDE

Russian-American Meets Obstacles, but Wins Out.

SWEETHEART WAS PEREMPTORY

Austere Inmates of a Monastery Are Shocked by the Discovery that One of Their Number is a Woman.