

ALL TRAVELING MEN TO DINE

Commercial Club Will Stage Largest Ever Omaha Dinner.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED ON THE LIST

Will Be Held Friday in Christmas Week, When All Representatives of Wholesale Houses Are at Home.

The Commercial club will give the biggest dinner ever held in Omaha on the night of Friday, December 23. The club will then entertain at the Auditorium 1,500 traveling men who represent Omaha wholesale houses.

The largest previous dinner in the history of Omaha was the one given President Taft, then secretary of war, three years ago, and it is declared that 800 people were present at that. The Commercial club dinner of recent time was not much larger than this, if at all.

The dinner is planned at a recent meeting of the membership committee of the club, and a special committee to arrange the dinner has been announced with the following members: G. E. Haerterich, chairman; E. T. Swobe, Paul Bursleigh, C. C. Chase, Latham Davis, H. G. Kelly, F. T. B. Martin, W. L. Burgess, H. J. Weller, E. H. Zeller, G. H. Zeller, F. Ellick, E. A. Hartsch, W. H. Rhodes and T. B. Coleman.

Every Omaha house will undoubtedly approve of the dinner and urge its men to attend. The dinner will be held in holiday time and practically every Omaha traveling man is recognized to have added greatly in the past, but they have never been in way way organized as boasters, even informally.

EX-CONVICT PRESENTS TOM FLYNN WITH HANDIWORK

Upon Gaining Freedom from Long Sentence James J. Reed Repays Kindness with Gifts.

Tom Flynn, street commissioner was presented with six brass ornaments for his desk Saturday by James J. Reed, the man who was pardoned from the penitentiary by Governor Charles D. Gallagher, after serving ten years of a sentence for murder. Reed was an employe of the Union Pacific shops in Omaha and was convicted of killing a woman who had promised to marry him. He was sentenced for life, had his term commuted and was released last year. While he was in prison he devoted his spare time to making for Flynn four paper weights, an inkstand and a file with the finest craftsmanship he could command. They show considerable mechanical skill and are wrought from heavy brass and copper.

QUEER LETTERS TO NASBYS

Postmaster Thomas is Recipient of Some Queer Requests.

Parents Want Aid in Search for Children—All Sorts of Requests Come from Time to Time.

If Postmaster Thomas were to paste all of the freak letters he receives into a scrap book, within the course of a year or so he would have a most interesting collection. Perhaps the same may be true of any other postoffice, but just now the Omaha office seems to be deluged with letters of peculiar angle.
