OMAHA, Nov. 23, 1910.

After a rather weak opening wheat turned and responded readily to bullish Argentina news. Frivate reports showing a large area in providence of Buenos Ayres to be a total loss. Shorts run to cover not wishing to be short over the holiday.

Corn advanced with wheat regardless of the bearish situation. The continued heavy tone that has prevailed was lacking and a much more active market was in evidence. much more settle market was in evidence. There was no mistaking the strong tone in the wheat and buil leaders seem to have gained control. The advance was sharp and it took little effort to cause the rally Cash wheat sold readily at an advance of ic over yesterday. There was a large trade in wheat, At the opening sentiment was quite bearish on reports that rain threstened to break the drouth in South Argentina. Later cables gave a different showing and lifted values to the high point reached a week ago. A well known authority went on record with the lowest estimate that has yet been issued as to the probable towest surprise in Argentina. S. 200,000 bushels. Shorts became especially unessy and covered on a Brige scale. Further ground for fear was the fact that numerous compliaints were coming in about dry weather in the winter wheat beit southwest. NEW YORK, Nov. 31—Many brokers were absent from the floor of the stock exchange today, having departed to anticipate the Thanksgiving day holiday. As there was no intention on the part of most of them to return before Monday of next week, the recent tendency toward duliness in the dealings in stocks became more pronounced.

58 28 28 2 this advance can be maintained should re-ceipts the coming week show a large in-crease.

With barely a dozen cars of killers in sight the market was again higher this morning, most sales looking as much as logilic better then yesterday or £6750c higher than last week's close. Lambs have really shown more advance than fat sheep. Fed wethers sold up to $2.75, with fed yearlings at $4.75, and range wethers at $2.50. A bunch of very good fed lambs brought $5.25, while at the close of last week it took right good lambs to bring $5.50. 38.26, while at the close of last week it took right good lambs to bring $5.20.

The supply of feeders was limited this morning to one string of three cars of lambs of pretty good quality which sold at $5.20. Feeders have been in very good demand this week and everything received has met with ready sale at steadily advancing prices, the amount of the advance being about the same as in the case of killers, that is, $5650c, as compared with the close of last week.

 BEHEADED HUMAN BODY

AND SKULL IN FIELD Decomposed Corpse of Man About Sixty Years of Age Found Near Manchester, In.

MANCHESTER, Ia., Nov. 28.-(Special.)-A new and startling mysterious developnent has been added to the finding of the human skull near here a few days ago. by the discovery last night of the beheaded human body on which the skull undoubtedly belonged. J. C. Murray, a farmer, of near South Fork, this county, found in the tall grass at the opposite side of the field from where the skull was found, a body with the head severed and missing. The body was that of a man probably between fifty
