Eighth Cavalry Goes to the Philippines

Fort Robinson Will Soon Be Almost Deserted by Troops Leaving for Fort McGrath.

CRAWFORD, Neb., Nov. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Fort Robinson, three miles west of this place, was a very busy place today, as the troops are preparing to leave for the Philippines tomorrow. Two squadrons of the Eighth cavalry are leaving, the first consisting of Troops A and C, and the third, consisting of Troops K, L and M. There are sixty men to the troop, making 500 men. The military band, consisting of twenty-eight pieces, will accompany the troops. They will leave the post in two special Burlington passenger trains, the first squadron leaving at 9 a. m. and the third squadron at 10 a. m. A special freight train will carry baggage and provisions. The men go from here to Billings, Mont. from there to Portland, Ore., then to San Francisco. The troops will be stationed at Camp McGrath, 100 miles from Manila. The Twelfth cavalry will leave Camp McGrath tomorrow and will reach here in February. The men go from here to Billings, Mont. until the arrival of the Twelfth cavalry, when they will join the First and Third squadrons at Camp McGrath. The boys are all anxious to leave, as they will get an increase in wages of 30 per cent and get double time on rotation. Colonel Kingsbury will be in charge of the troops.

BOOST FOR CAPITAL REMOVAL

Committee Decides to Spend Thousand Dollars Within Month.

KEARNEY, Neb., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The executive committee of the Nebraska Capital Removal association met in Kearney Friday, and after an eighteen-hour session subscribed $1,000 to carry on the campaign within the next thirty days. It also voted unanimously to secure a trustee, a man who shall devote his entire time to this campaign for the next month. The secretary was instructed to have 50,000 envelopes manufactured which shall be placed in the hands of Nebraska business men to be used by them. Individual reports relative to the progress of the campaign in various parts of the state were interchanged and the consensus of opinion was that the efforts of the association would be successful, as nearly half the legislators have expressed themselves favorably to the proposition. It is stated unofficially that E. O. Perkins, formerly commissioner of the Nebraska supreme court and present city attorney of Kearney, was the unanimous choice of the committee for advisory counsel and that he will be employed in that capacity. Those present at the meeting were Willis Cadwell, Broken Bow, president; W. A. Prince, Grand Island; Joe Hays, Central City, treasurer; Willard F. Bailey, Kearney, secretary.

Prisoners Attempt to Saw Bars

NEBRASKA CITY, Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Al Abel, who is held for stealing a wagon load of wheat; Edgar Goff, who has been charged with assault with intent to kill; Ben Goldberry, held on the same charge; and Charles Aldridge, who is serving a jail sentence for taking with force property from a constable after it had been levied upon, were found yesterday afternoon trying to make their escape from the county jail where they were confined. They had secured several steel saws, which evidently had been smuggled to them by relatives of one of the prisoners. One of the saws was broken and the other two were hidden under a large rock in the cell occupied by the prisoners. Sheriff Fisher got a tip a few days since that the prisoners were trying to get away and watched them with the above results. All of the prisoners have been locked in the steel cage as they are considered dangerous men to have out on the jail. Aldridge tried to escape once before by attacking the sheriff, but was soon beaten into submission.

Family Narrowly Escapes Death

NEBRASKA CITY, Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The coughing of an infant child Thursday morning saved the life of Police Officer M. W. Wright and family. It was about 6 o'clock that Mrs. Wright was awakened by the violent coughing of the child. She got up and opened her eyes and found the house a mass of flames. She awakened her husband and they ran from the house in their night clothes. Officer Wright after seeing his wife and baby safe remembered that Miss Abbie Lyon, who was making her home with them, had not appeared. He called a neighbor who no response groped his way back into the house and into her room and found her lying on the floor unconscious. He, too, was overcome by the smoke and was aroused by his fall and crawled out dragging the little Lyon, thus saving the wife and her life. The house and contents were consumed, but the loss was partially covered by insurance.

Woodmen Day at McCook

MCCOOK, Neb., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The rally and class adoption of the Modern Woodmen of America was held in this city Tuesday and Tuesday night and has exceeded anything of that character ever attempted in this section of the state before. Hundreds of Woodmen from within a radius of fifty miles or more were here. The morning was given over to amusements and sports. In the afternoon addresses were delivered in the Temple theater by Hon. A. R. Talbot of Lincoln, head contractor of the order, and by Edward P. Burns of Newark, N. J., supreme lecturer. A large class was adopted in the evening.

Three Weddings at Chadron

CHADRON, Neb., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Three Thanksgiving eve weddings were celebrated here. Charles E. Brooks, manager of one of the departments of the De Rhodes department store was married to Agnes Soper, a daughter of one of Sheridan county's earliest settlers. Their future home will be Chadron. Crawford Caudel of Grand Island was married to Miss Christine Rasmussen, a daughter of one of Dawes county's pioneers. They will reside in Grand Island. Jule J. Kernan of Lincoln was married to Mary E. Lewis of Chadron. They are Chadron's favorite society girls.

Such are the useful Holiday Gifts displayed now in almost endless variety throughout our six spacious floors. Nowhere else can there be found such a collection of useful gift articles. "The worries of the season"—? If this store may play its part during the trying days that lie between now and Christmas eve—if, by perfect unassuming service and superb assortment for your choosing, it may help to keep the puzzle wrinkles from your forehead, it will have done all we have hoped and planned to have it do. Gifts from every part of the world are here—delightful, inexpensive ones for those who must closely reckon the incomings and outgoings—superbly rich ones for those who need not count the cost. We have arranged them conveniently for your inspection—our sales force will find no effort too great, if it helps you in your selection.

For Christmas—in all the word means—This Store is Ready.
