Work of the Curfew Law—The authorities of the Omaha juvenile court have reported to the Woman's club of Pittsburgh, on request of a committee, a description of the workings of the curfew laws. In Pittsburgh, according to the letter received from some of the club women, it is thought better to have the children on the streets than in the environments of their homes. This is true only in a very few cases in Omaha and the curfew laws are enforced by the probation officer.

Boylee Make Hit with Flowers—"One of the big hits made at Omaha at the Nebraska State Teachers' association meeting in Lincoln was by H. B. Boylee of Boylee college of Omaha. Said Miss Cassie Royce of Franklin school, who was one of the leaders among Omaha teachers working for the next convention in Omaha. "Mr. Boylee sent us three dozen American Beauty roses which were placed at the president's side in St. Paul's church. These were the only real flowers in evidence. Some potpourri plants and faded unials were used for decorations, but when Mr. Boylee's flowers arrived, gorgeous red roses, the church changed appearance. The flowers made a distinct hit with the teachers coming from a commercial college when such occasions have not before taken much interest in the state meetings."

Wrestle in Omaha
Wires Manager Gillan that He Would Like to Wrestle Here in December.

Haackenschmidt, the Russian Lion, has wired Manager Gillan of the Auditorium for a match in Omaha some time during December. The question is now for Manager Gillan to find some one who is able to put on a creditable exhibition with the noted wrestler who has never been beaten except by Frank Gotch, champion of the world. While Haackenschmidt has many followers and many more who do not like the way he acted in his match with Gotch and later in England when Gotch went over there to force him into a match, there is a general interest in seeing the man who is reputed to be the strongest in the world.

OMAHA MANUFACTURERS DINE
Two Hundred to Assemble at the Omaha Commercial Club Tuesday Evening.

About 200 leading Omaha manufacturers will dine together at the Commercial club Tuesday evening. The dinner is given under the direction of the manufacturers' committee of the club and is not given by the club. No club members who are not manufacturers have been invited, but all the manufacturers of Omaha, whether or not club members, have received summons. The dinner will be a social or "entertainment" affair, but is designed to get all makers of wares and goods to assemble under one roof.

PROCESSION TO CONSECRATION

Array of Churchmen in Line for the Beecher Memorial.
FOUR DIVISIONS FOR THE CLERGY
Proceed from the Jacobs Memorial Parish House to Trinity Cathedral, with Vested Choir in Lead.

The most impressive religious procession Omaha has known in years will inaugurate the consecration service of Dean Beecher Wednesday morning. Unless the weather be quite adverse, the procession will move westward from Jacob's Memorial parish house on Dodge street between Eighteenth and Eighteenth streets to Eighteenth, thence north on Eighteenth to the west door of Trinity cathedral, and up the center aisle of the nave to the altar.

The procession will be in four divisions, each headed by a cross and crucifer. The first crucifer and the vested choir of Trinity constitute the first division. Behind the cross-bearer heading the second division will march the assistant master of ceremonies, Rev. Thomas J. Collins, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd. The vestrymen of Trinity will march in this division, these being:

S. D. Barkalow, Henry W. Yates, Judge E. Waksley, Fred H. Davis, Philip Fetter, George H. Zimmerman, Charles C. George, John C. French, Frank L. Hailer.

Wardens Leads Group.
Mr. Yates is senior warden and Judge Waksley junior warden of the vestry and will head this group in the procession. The place of honor in the second division is accorded the visiting clergy, below the rank of bishop. Others in the second division will be the clergy of the diocese of Omaha and of the district of Kearney, the lay officers of the two dioceses, the standing committees and the chancelors of the two dioceses. The deputy registrar of the church will also march here, bearing the official credentials of Dean Beecher as a bishop elect of the Protestant Episcopal church.

The Third Division.
Following the third crucifer comes the master of ceremonies, who is Rev. F. D. Tyler, rector of St. Andrew's. Then come the attending presbyters of the bishop elect. These are Rev. R. B. H. Bell, rector of St. Paul's, Des Moines, and Rev. C. F. Charaman, rector of the Church of Our Saviour, Des Moines. Next is the bishop elect, accompanied by the "Presenting Bishops," Rt. Rev. T. N. Morrison, Bishop of Iowa, and Rt. Rev. F. R. Millsbaugh, Bishop of Kansas.

The visiting bishops follow this trio, and after them the bishop who preaches the sermon of the service, Rt. Rev. A. C. Garrett, bishop of Dallas. The co-consecrators bring up the rear of the third division. These two are Rt. Rev. A. R. Graves, bishop of the missionary district of Kearney, resigned, and Rt. Rev. Arthur L. Williams, bishop of the diocese of Omaha.

The fourth division is numerically small, but important, for it contains the presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church in the United States, this being the bishop of Missouri, Rt. Rev. Daniel Sylvester Tuttle, D. D., D. C. He will be attended by a chaplain and a crucifer will precede the two.

Each to Pay for Day of Missionary Work
Y. W. C. A. Workers Want Three Hundred and Sixty-Five Contributors to China Fund.

In furtherance of the plan to have Miss Ruth Paxson become Omaha's foreign missionary secretary, with headquarters in China, the classes and individual members of the Young Women's Christian association are being asked to pledge themselves to supply funds for one day in China. Three hundred and sixty-five pledges would mean the year's support of the work.

At a rally held in the association rooms Sunday afternoon the work of China was graphically pictured by Miss Paxson, who, as traveling secretary of the student volunteers, knows the field well; by Miss Estelle Paddock, secretary to China, and Mrs. Emma Myers, territorial secretary. Miss Paxson will leave Omaha from her visits here. She is the sister of Miss Ruth Paxson of the high school faculty, and Mrs. C. W. Hayes. The music at the Sunday afternoon program included a solo by Mrs. Evans.

Father Pleads for His Wayward Son
Rev. Daniel Markham of Keota, Colo., Tells Judge Munger of His Boy.

Rev. Daniel Markham, pastor of the Methodist church at Keota, Colo., stood in United States district court Monday afternoon to make a father's plea in behalf of F. L. Markham, confessedly guilty of passing spurious money.

The aged man stood a trifle more erect as he touched the Grand Army button on his coat lapel. He faced Judge T. C. Munger in silence a moment, struggling to gain control of himself. When he spoke his voice was low and evenly modulated.

"He has always been a good boy at home," said the father. "He went to church every Sunday. He was always clean and honest with us."

"That was all that the old man could stand. He took his seat.
Sentence was deferred until 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

TRAVELING IN THE EARLY DAYS
Old Folders Show Leisurely Schedules on Union Pacific Back in the Seventies.

Interesting recollections of the difference of traveling in 1870 and today are to be seen in the old folders and time tables in the hands of the Union Pacific road.

To travel from New York to San Francisco by way of eastern lines and then west over the Union Pacific took six days and twenty hours in those days, or a total of 154 hours; now the trip can be made in ninety hours. The folders do not have "Central time," "Eastern time" and "Western time," but were run on "New York time," "Chicago time," "Omaha time," "Laramie time" and "San Francisco time."

J. M. Guild, commissioner of the Commercial club, will leave Omaha Tuesday night for Sheridan to attend the annual convention of "The Omaha Wool Market," association. Mr. Guild is to address the convention on "The Omaha Wool Market." Secretary A. E. Stryker of the Live Stock exchange and other South Omahans will also attend.

Yeggmen Loot Safe of Bluffs Restaurant

Amateurs Secure Good Sum from A. Metzger & Co. Early Monday Morning.

Yeggmen invaded the business center of Council Bluffs early Monday morning robbing the A. Metzger & Co. restaurant, 325 West Broadway, of $180.

The explosion by which the office safe was wrecked shattered several windows and disturbed some of the fittings of the restaurant, leading the police to the belief that the robbers was the work of inexperienced men. The evidence left behind indicates that but two men were connected with the looting of the safe.

MAYOR FOR REAL HOME RULE

Move is Now On for a Charter Revision Committee.
ALL TOWNS NOW FAVOR IT

Effort Will be Made to Put Through the Same Bill that Was Tried at Last Session of the Legislature.

The move for charter revision for Omaha and home rule for the municipalities of Nebraska will receive the most hearty support from Mayor Dahlman and he intends to get some of the Douglas county legislative delegation to introduce the same bill that was tried at the last session. W. P. Stoesser introduced a bill last winter that was fought through the House and died in the Senate. It is thought probable that the same laws will be asked for this year with a greater chance of success because the smaller towns are anxious for changes this year and will be more willing to make concessions to Omaha.

"The bill we had last year," said Mayor Dahlman, "provided for a charter commission of fifteen, which should meet regularly and consider suggestions from citizens in general. This seems to be a good idea and we will try to put it through this time."

"We show do something to increase the revenues of the city this year's experience shows how badly we need a change. There ought to be a possibility of levying at least $1,500,000 instead of the $1,000,000 that we have now. I have talked with a number of business men among the members of the Commercial club and the Real Estate exchange and they are all willing to go to Lincoln, if necessary, and help us get home rule. Everybody in Omaha will be strongly in favor of it and we think we may be able to accomplish it this year."

GENERAL JAMES OAKES DEAD

Officer Who Saw Active Service in Mexican and Civil Wars Dies in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—General James Oakes, who was retired in 1879, after thirty years of active service in the Mexican and Indian wars, as well as Indian uprisings in the southwest, sank unconscious to the pavement today near his home and died twenty minutes later at a local hospital. Death was caused by heart trouble.

General Oakes was 85 years old and was well known in New York, Pittsburgh and Washington, being a member of several clubs in each city, as well as a leading figure in military circles.

He was born near Limestone, Pa., April 4, 1828, and was educated at the University of Pennsylvania and the United States military academy. He served for a time in the faculty of the academy, but at the outbreak of the war with Mexico accompanied General Zachary Taylor and was brevetted first lieutenant.

He was later assigned to frontier duty against the Indians in northern Arizona and in 1861 reached the rank of lieutenant colonel, being assigned to the 27th cavalry. He became a member of the Sixth cavalry that same year and after distinguished service in the Tennessee and Mississippi campaigns he was made brigadier general brevet March 30, 1865.

At the close of the war he was head of the freedmen's bureau at Austin, Tex., and later acted as the military agent for the Indians of the southwest. He was retired at his own request on April 29, 1878, and had spent most of his time since in New York, Pittsburgh and Washington.

Income of Corporations.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The net income of the 32,490 corporations of the United States which are subject to tax under the corporation tax law was $115,470,000 for the year which ended June 30. According to returns made to the internal revenue bureau the capital of the corporations was $27,148,712 and their bonded and other indebtedness was $21,133,922.00.

OVERHEATED STOVEPIPE IS CAUSE

F Street Viaduct's Strength Plays Important Part in Street Railway Controversy—Joe Badius' Condition is Improved.

Desk Sergeant William Corrigan sustained a serious loss yesterday evening, when his home, with all its contents, was practically destroyed by fire. The only article of furniture that escaped some description of damage was the piano. The loss will amount to about $500. The house, which was a four-room cottage, stood at Thirteenth and Q streets. Neither Sergeant nor Corrigan was at home at the time. In fact, he had just reported for duty at the police station. He had scarcely taken his seat at his desk when the telephone message came in that his home was burning. With a number to comrades he hastened to the scene in the patrol wagon and the fire department got there about the same time.

The structure of the building was saved from destruction, but it is so charred as to be seemingly of no further use as a habitation. The fire was apparently caused by an overheated stovepipe and its presence was discovered by some neighbors through the smoke coming out of the windows. Sergeant Corrigan has not only the sympathy of his comrades on the force, but of the citizens generally, as his financial disposition has made him very popular.

The Viaduct at F Street.
South Omaha merchants are inquiring as to the veracity of the rumor that the viaduct over the Union Pacific and stock yards tracks at F street may not be constructed of sufficient strength to support street car traffic. This viaduct has formed a hot topic at election times for several years, and in the opinion of both past and present city attorneys it must be erected at this point.

If it is true that an arrangement has been arrived at by which the street railway company would build a line into the stock yards district by extending the line south from Thirteenth-second and B streets. This line would cross the viaduct that spans the Union Pacific cut-off from that point westward into the stock yards. The Northwestern railroad passes over and then under the Burlington tracks at Thirteenth street boulevard. Such a line, Omaha merchants say, would divert traffic from the city and would militate against the business interests of the city. The rumor has intensified the feeling aroused over the action of the street car company in declining to issue any more transfers at N street on the cross-town line.

Boy's Condition Improved.
The condition of the boy, Joe Badius, who was shot Thanksgiving evening, was reported last night by Dr. John Koutsky to be somewhat improved. He is not sufficiently well, however, to permit another operation to locate the bullet, which entered the right hip and is believed to be in the abdomen. So far the police have been unable to discover the whereabouts of the Italian laborer, Tony Vone, who fired the shot which struck the child. Several friends of the three other men concerned in the affair tried yesterday to get them out on bail, but did not succeed.

Sermon on Tolstoi.
In the death of Tolstoi the human race has lost a benefactor and the poor of his country a true friend" was the statement of Rev. E. A. Jordan, pastor of the First Christian church, preaching yesterday morning on the subject of "A Prince Has Fallen." "Recognizing no distinction due to creed, wealth or burning Tolstoi ought to destroy the many evils found in homes, societies or government." After pointing out that the Russian philosopher everywhere sought to uplift the lowly the preacher said, "Tolstoi was not a perfect man; he had his faults the same as others. Great men like Tolstoi are not always to be taken literally nor followed blindly, but their function is to break down idols that stand in the way of God's kingdom and to be free. We may differ with him in regard to his theories of religion, of sociology, of economics and of government, but one who had the courage and whose sense of duty caused him to defy the odds of the church, education and governmental authority will be numbered with the immortals and stand as one of the commanding figures of the twentieth century."

School Basement Flooded.
The basement of the school house was discovered flooded yesterday afternoon. Some one went away and left the water tap running and it took a fire engine several hours before the building was cleared. It is not known whether the structure has been materially damaged, but an architectural inspection will be made today.

Eight for Stout's Insurance.
Fifteen witnesses will be examined at the inquest Tuesday on the body of the colored man, Joe Stout, who died Friday morning in South Omaha hospital. He had been stabbed in a fight among colored people November 17. Why so many witnesses will be called is to try and save Stout's insurance with the Swift Packing

Missouri Sweeps High Stock Honors

Iowa and Nebraska Well Represented in First Ten Honor Students of International Stock Show.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—The University of Missouri drew chief honors when the twelve judges of the agricultural students' contest announced their official figures and the number of points scored by the rival colleges here today. The competition is held annually in connection with Chicago's international live stock exhibition.

Missouri won the team trophy and had the additional honor of taking the first four places on the honor list. Forty-five students from nine colleges competed.

The ten ranking students are:
W. R. Hechler, University of Missouri, 1,089 points.
Walter S. Williams, University of Missouri, 1,078 points.
T. E. Dunnington, University of Missouri, 1,074 points.

QUIET REIGNS IN MARKET

Common Effort Continues to Do Dry Goods Business on Small Stocks.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—With a holiday intervening, trading in cotton goods last week was quiet. The export inquiries from China have not materialized into orders, as mills are firm in holding for a basis of 7 1/2 cents for three-year sheeting and buyers have not yet increased their bids. Other miscellaneous export trade has ruled quiet.

While the higher prices on cotton have influenced mills in holding values steadier, buyers of goods have not been bidding on a basis commensurate with the higher cost. Brown sheetings are quiet and, while firmness is maintained on contract goods, spots can be had at slightly lower values than contracts. Print cloths and convertibles were firmer and a shade higher at the close of the week. Printed goods and ginghams are selling moderately.

General lines of domestic hold firm and are in moderate request. Fall River sold but 45,000 pieces of print cloths in the week and mill managers there are not increasing their production. In fact, among mill managers generally who handle gray cloths there is a growing inclination to limit the output until prices improve.

General buying in the dry goods market continues of a hand-to-mouth character at first hands and the common effort is to do business on as small stocks as possible.

THE PURE FOOD LAW—A MAGNIFICENT VICTORY

Never was such a law more needed than in this country, nor more welcome than to us, who have suffered enormously from the fraudulent imitation of popular labels. This law, some years ago, would have saved us hundreds of thousands of dollars. Yet, to our amazement, a law designed to protect honest manufacturers no less than the public, was immediately made the pretext for an attack upon our world-wide and previously unimpached reputation. After a costly contest, lasting four years, we have gained a signal and complete victory: in doing which, we have also shown that the law is the just measure it was intended to be.

We have not, as the public has been led to believe, obstructed the PURE FOOD LAW nor opposed the views of the GOVERNMENT. We have simply resisted a mere Bureau's usurpation of authority, and its novel and preposterous theories, submission to which would have driven us out of the American market.

The story is almost incredible, and difficult to tell briefly; yet, in justice to ourselves, and to the patrons who have remained so splendidly loyal to us, we must outline the facts.

For generations, the one universally recognized impurity of Whisky has been FUSEL OIL, which we have always removed by distillation. The Bureau referred to, as late as 1904, insisted that to be "good for consumption" Whisky must have practically no FUSEL OIL.

Kentucky "Straight Whisky," when new, is rank with FUSEL OIL, but the makers always assured consumers that this noxious impurity was transformed by age into delightful ethers, etc. A few years ago it was found that age makes no change in the FUSEL OIL, except to remove its vile odor. The Kentucky distillers, knowing well the aversion to FUSEL OIL, were in desperate straits; so they boldly declared that REAL Whisky new or old, must contain all the FUSEL OIL, and denounced all REFINED Whisky as a base imitation. And the Bureau backed them up.

This is no pleasantry, but sober fact. CANADIAN CLUB Whisky was condemned, solely because it contains practically no FUSEL OIL.

Some months ago, President Taft, after a searching investigation by the Solicitor-General, overruled the Bureau completely. Now the Attorney-General has decided that the PURE FOOD LAW does not require our label to be changed by a single letter.

At the WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION in 1893, Dr. H. W. Wiley, then, as now, Chief of the Bureau referred to, reported CANADIAN CLUB to be "pure and fully up to the examination required," and, by authority of Congress, it received an award for "Fine aroma, very pleasant taste, thorough maturity, purity and absence of alien matter," which expresses every excellence any whisky can possess. CANADIAN CLUB is the same now as then.

If any consumers really want FUSEL OIL in their whisky, they should use Kentucky "Straight Whisky." CANADIAN CLUB will not suit them. All who desire that the PURE FOOD LAW shall be rationally administered, and not as the weapon of any one man, should send for our History of this remarkable case. Please name this paper.
