OREGON AT THE LAND SHOW

Cities and Communities Endorse the Big Enterprise.

BOOST FOR "BACK TO THE FARM"

People Are Beginning to Realize the Greater Wealth and Happiness to Be Gained by Farm Life.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—One of the important questions to come before the Oregon Development league convention, which convened at Salem yesterday, will be to what extent the state is to be represented at the Western Land Products exhibit in Omaha January 18-25, next year.

It was deemed best to place the proposition before the big convention so that every one of the communities represented may have opportunity to participate.

President Theodore B. Wilcox, chairman, probably the state's foremost business man, is very enthusiastic over the state's future, saying that the next five years will be the greatest development era of the state's history and that right now marks the beginning of a new awakening in this state.

Next summer the Hill and Harriman railroads into central Oregon will be ready for traffic and thousands of settlers will follow these roads into districts heretofore practically unoccupied because of the lack of transportation facilities.

Inviting Climate.

"Oregon's wonderful development and the rapid increase in population in the last year has not been due in a very material measure to railroad construction," said Mr. Wilcox. "The people have come here because of the inviting climate and excellent opportunities in many ways, but from now on the opening up of new districts by the railroads will be one of the strong drawing cards. It will mean distribution of people all over the state, and, while in the last five years Oregon has shown a wonderful increase in population, the great increase during the next five years will be noted more particularly in the country. And with the country populated the big cities will take care of themselves. The natural trend of population is towards the city, so that when it really needs is a larger rural population."

"I believe and venture to say that there will be more railroad construction in Oregon during the next five years than in any other state in the union, with the exception, perhaps, of Montana, and this is true advertising the state less than the truth should be told so that the newcomer will find more than he expects. We need not exaggerate; the unvarnished facts are enough to invite anyone, and then when they do come and see things as they have been told, they will prove the best boosters for the state. On the other hand, the dissatisfied newcomer proves the most effective knocker."

It will be in line with the above ideas

An immense implement show has been arranged in the Coliseum. The report of Secretary Arpkiecht will show the association to have gained in size and importance and members come from nearly every trade center of the state.

Forger Concludes to End Fight for Freedom

M. Dwight Fortner, Convicted in St. Louis, Dismisses His Appeal and Goes to Prison.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 29.—M. Dwight Fortner of St. Louis, under two years' sentence to the penitentiary for forging a name to a $12,000 check, appeared in the supreme court with his lawyer today, dismissed his appeal and went to the penitentiary to begin serving his sentence. The judges of the court remanded Fortner to the custody of Marshal Finks, who took him to the penitentiary. For good behavior Fortner will get one-fourth off, so he may have to serve only eighteen months.

Since his conviction a year ago, Fortner has been managing a hotel in Eldorado, Ark. Speaking for Fortner, his attorney said: "Fortner concluded the best thing was for him to quit fighting the case and take his medicine."

Fortner was arrested in Paris after a chase through Central America. Mrs. Fortner, who was Katherine Handlan, a member of a wealthy St. Louis family, has been helping her husband run the Eldorado hotel.

will meet the approval of the president and at its first meeting tomorrow the committee will have before it the estimates of the war department and the general plan of action to which the president is favorable. This is the first bill to be prepared under the plan for an annual river and harbor bill. Members of the committee have not had an opportunity to examine the estimates carefully, but it is expected the bill will be much smaller than any of those of recent years. Estimates of appropriations needed for continuing contracts amount to about $7,000,000, while the war department has recommended four appropriations of about $2,000,000.

clared, would be borne by all the traffic, not by part of it. Solicitor Brown of the New York Central said the $27,000,000 estimated revenue increase under the proposed advance included both interstate and state traffic. Answering a question of Commissioner Prouty, Mr. Brown denied that the roads had considered maintaining the state, but not the interstate advances.

MAN WITHOUT DIME ARRESTED

Wealthy Sociological Worker Poised as Trump Taken Into Custody in Houston.

HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 29.—Posing as "the man without a dime," Irwin A. Brown, wealthy clubman and sociological worker of Denver, Colo., was arrested last night at an establishment which furnishes cheap lodging. He had gone there in pursuit of his sociological investigations and was arrested as a tramp. His only offense, he declares was to ask for a bed, explaining that he was penniless. He was released when he was identified by a local newspaper man.

SUIT FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

Miss Lulu Lloyd of Nebraska City Asks Big Sum of $5,000.

NEBRASKA CITY, Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Miss Lulu Lloyd, through her attorney, John C. Watson, filed a suit in the district court against George W. Justice Monday, asking for $5,000 damages for a breach of promise. The plaintiff is one of the best known women in this city and the daughter of the late L. W. Lloyd, one of the pioneer merchants of this city, and is quite popular. The defendant is a wealthy bachelor and a retired farmer about 50 years of age. He resides in this city with his maiden sister and is secretary of the Otse county corn show. Both were born and reared in this vicinity and are prominent members of the Methodist church and active workers. The suit was a surprise to not only their friends but to all. In her petition Miss Lloyd states that on June 11, 1905, the defendant promised to marry her and a reasonable time has elapsed and he has failed to comply with his promise and she feels humiliated and aggrieved to the amount named above.

State Executives

Guests of Kentucky

Automobile Placed at Disposal of Each Governor During His Stay in Frankfort.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 29.—The third conference of governors began here today. Governor Whitson of Kentucky and Mayor Polsgrove of Frankfort welcomed the visitors. Governor Aram J. Fother of Rhode Island responded and Governor-elect Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey spoke of the possibilities of the conference.

As the governors are to be at Frankfort only today, guests crowded all the hospitality and entertainment into the short time as possible. Aside from the entertainment between sessions Governor Wilson will let nothing interfere with the program, particularly in a political way. The visitors will be received as governors, not as politicians. Neither will the time of any one of them be taken up by making a speech at any function if the requests of Kentucky's governor are heeded.

Each governor was met this morning by a personal escort and taken in an automobile which was at his disposal during his stay here to the home of some prominent Frankfort man.

At noon a luncheon was given and shortly after 3 o'clock the first session was held at Kentucky's new state capitol.

PLANS FOR THE CONSECRATION

munion at 7 a. m. This is followed by reading of morning prayer at 8:30, and the consecration service begins at 9. The great religious procession will leave the parish house on Dodge street a few minutes before the stroke of the hour.

Procession Impoving. Hundreds and perhaps thousands will witness this procession who will be unable to attend church. It is certain that some who hold cards of admission to the church will be unable to find seats, but for this admittedly unfortunate condition there is no remedy. More people are entitled to these cards and more have obtained them than the church will hold.

Those gaining admission to the church will be seated by one of the other nine well known young men, whose services as ushers were arranged for by S. D. Barkislow of the vestry. The ushers will be C. E. Reynolds, H. K. Eason, W. H. Powell, Frederic Thomas, LeRoy Barkislow, H. W. Yates, Jr., Herbert French, Cedric Porter, T. L. Davis and Lee Mitchell. The service will begin and end with two valiant old hymns of the church militant, the procession being "Onward Christian Soldier" and the recessional being the even better liked, "The Son of God Goes Forth to War."

Other music will include a Gregorian chant, to which Psalm cxxi will be intoned, Stainer's three-fold Kyrie and Gloria, the hymn 23 of the church hymnal, "Our Day of Redemtion." The anthem will be from Haydn's "The Creation" and the Gloria in Excelsis will be sung to Gounod's setting.

In arranging for the consecration a great amount of work has been done by the committee in charge, of which C. H. Thummel is chairman and F. L. Haller and Philip Patter the other members. The ecclesiastical details have been settled by Bishop Williams and Rev. F. D. Tyner, who is master of ceremonies.

EIGHT BISHOPS TO BE HERE

Some Have Arrived and Are Guests of Friends in Omaha.

Four bishops and one bishop-elect of the Episcopal church were in Omaha yesterday. Three more bishops will arrive this morning and by the time the consecration service at Trinity is over there will be eight of these prelates in the diocese. This is believed to be the largest number of bishops ever assembled in Omaha.

Bishop Tuttle of Missouri, who is the ranking bishop of them all, was the first one in having come early Tuesday morning. He is the guest of C. W. Lyman.

Bishop A. C. Garrett of Dallas arrived a little later. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Yates.

Bishop and Mrs. Graves of Kearney arrived yesterday afternoon. They are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Potter.

The fourth bishop in the city is Bishop Williams himself. Bishop and Mrs. Morrison of Iowa arrive today before the services begin. They will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Barkislow.

Bishop Thomas of Wyoming comes about the same hour as the Davenport prelate. Mrs. Thomas is not well enough to accompany him. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. French will have Bishop Thomas as their guests.

Bishop and Mrs. Millepaugh of Kansas also come in this morning, and, after the services, will go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Davis.

The visiting prelates and their wives will be the guests of honor together with Bishop General of Iowa, arrive today before the afternoon from 3 to 5 in the Lindner Art gallery, the host and hostesses being Mrs. F. L. Haller, Mrs. Haller and Mrs. George Lindner.

In the evening, the visiting bishops and Bishops Williams and Beecher, the vestrymen of Trinity cathedral and the wives of all these will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Yates at dinner.

Boston Attorney Says He Will Point Out to Magnates How Big Saving Can Be Effected.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—In reply to the offer of several western railroads to employ him at his own salary if he could show them, as he claimed, he could, how American railroads could save $10,000,000 a day, Louis D. Brandeis of Boston today telegraphed that without any charge to them he would be glad to meet and point out to a conference or conference of eastern and western railroad presidents how such a saving could be effected.

Mr. Brandeis is here representing certain shipping organizations in the freight rate increase hearing being conducted before the Interstate Commerce commission.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—The north shore branch of the sanitary district drainage canal, the largest project undertaken by the present Board of Trustees, was flooded today. The canal is expected to provide a flowage of 40,000 gallons a minute. It has expected it would not be filled until next fall.
