MULLEN TO RESCUE OF LAW

Democrat in Attorney General's Office to Defend Guaranty Act.

MAKES JUNKET TO WASHINGTON

No Referee Yet Named to Take Evidence in Donahue Case—Governor, on Return, to Whip Message Into Shape.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Arthur Mullen, attorney general, has gone to Washington, where he will appear in defense of the guaranty bank law, which was the climax of the work of the late democratic legislature, which was largely controlled by Mr. Mullen, then an oil inspector. Mr. Mullen did not appear as attorney of record in this case until after he had become attorney general a few days ago, but the argument for the state was made by Judge L. L. Albert of Columbus, C. O., Whedon of Lincoln and Attorney General W. T. Thompson. Mr. Thompson is now in Washington, having a position in the Treasury department, and it is understood he could present the case for the state; Judge Albert could represent the state, but so important is the case from the standpoint of the democratic legislature that Mr. Mullen felt that he ought to be present to look after the constitutionalality of the law. Besides, these other attorneys mentioned, lost the case in the lower court.

The state will pay for the junket.

The Donahue Case.

It may be some time before Chief of Police Donahue of Omaha is hailed before the supreme court on the charge of permitting the liquor laws of the state to be violated. Arthur Mullen, the attorney general who will be taking the case to the state, which he thinks is the aggrieved party, will not return to Lincoln from Washington before December 7. The court has not yet named its referee, and so by the time the referee and stenographer are selected, Mr. Mullen may be practicing law back in O'Neill or accepting a commission to be special prosecutor of the attorney general to look after the corporation cases he is to start December 7. Mr. Mullen made this statement just before leaving for the east today.

The court has not appointed a referee to take the evidence. Nothing can be done until this appointment is made. I expect to be back from Washington about December 7 or 8, and then the Donahue case and other litigation connected with and growing out of it will receive attention.

An Insurance Case.

A State Auditor Barton listened to a complaint of Dr. Myers of Howells this afternoon, who alleged he bought something he thought was something else from the Security Mutual Life Insurance company. Dr. Myers said he thought he was buying a twenty-year paid up life insurance policy and when it was delivered to him it turned out to be a twenty-year ordinary life. He had given his note for $200 for the premium and he did not want to have to pay that note. Dr. Atkinson, the agent who sold the insurance, presented the application as his defense that Myers had got what he bargained for. The application was for a twenty-year ordinary life policy. The auditor has the case under advisement.

Suggestions to Governor.

Those who have suggestions to make to Governor Shallenberger for the guidance of legislation would do well to file them now during his absence, for when the governor returns from his trip to Chicago and Kentucky he will at once get his messengers in shape for the inspection of the lawmakers. It is a certainty almost that the governor will recommend the open primary be closed at once, and he will wish perhaps to repeal the repeal of the law, though he may not say so.

Douglas Returns Wednesday.

County Clerk Haverly telephoned to the secretary of state today that it would be impossible for the canvassing board of Douglas county to finish its work in time to send the Douglas county returns down today. Mr. Haverly said it would be midnight before the work was completed. The returns will get here Wednesday, he said.

CHICAGO POLICE CENTER "MARY GARDEN'S SALOME" She Refuses to Cut Out Objectionable Parts and Friday's Performance is Cancelled.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Following official criticism from the Chicago police department, through Chief of Police Stewart, the production of "Salome" in which Mary Garden had twice appeared here, was withdrawn from the grand opera program for Friday night.

The chief of police informed the management that offensive features, particularly the "head" scene, should be toned down. Miss Garden strenuously objected to eliminating any of her lines or poses and accordingly the production for that evening was withdrawn.

The flat of the chief of police was given by Police Constable O'Donnell to the opera company management last night, but was not communicated to Miss Garden until today.

"If they touch it or try to cut any of my performance they can get some one else to dance it, I won't," said Miss Garden. "I won't do anything by halves. I suppose they want me to stand behind a screen and timidly speak the lines."

After the announcement that "Salome" would not be presented Friday night it was further declared by the grand opera management that the artist had refused to substitute their productions for the withdrawn opera and in consequence the stage would be dark that night.

BUILDING WRECKED BY A BOMB

Thickly Populated Block in New York Shaken by Explosion.

ECHO OF THE PETROSINO MURDER Detective Was Hunting Kidnapers of Child of Owner of Wrecked Structure When He Was Killed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The kidnaping case originating five years ago in which the late Lieutenant Petrosino, who was murdered in Italy, played the part of investigator, is believed to have led indirectly to a bomb explosion in the early hours today, which shook up one of the most thickly populated blocks in New York, did extensive damage and created a panic in the neighborhood.

The bomb exploded in the doorway of the Bella Trionfante saloon, in the heart of the Sicilian section of Elizabeth street. It completely wrecked the saloon, the front of which was blown inward, badly damaged adjacent stores, hurled sleepers in the tenements above from their beds and cracked windows for blocks away. The police reserves had their hands full quieting the panic-stricken foreigners, who flocked to the streets by hundreds.

Francisco Le Barbera is the owner of the saloon. He had left the place about half an hour before the explosion. Today he gave the police his theory of the animus behind the outrage. About five years ago, he said, his son, Pietro, six years old at the time, was kidnapped and he has never heard from him. The police were notified and Lieutenant Petrosino worked on the case. Le Barbera received many letters threatening his life if a large sum of money was not paid for the return of the boy, but paid no attention to them and it is believed by him that the kidnapers are now starting in their revenge.

When Your Hair Is Dull and Dusty

(From the Montreal Tribune.) "Washing the head requires time, and when one is catching cold, and when all is done it is a question if you have helped the appearance of your hair. Too much water will injure the hair. The powder is sprinkled on the head, then brushed thoroughly through the hair. That is all there is to it. It takes out all the dust, oil and dandruff, and leaves the scalp refreshed and refreshed."

"The best dry shampoo powder is a mixture of four ounces of orris root with four ounces of theriac. Theriac is a natural hair grower and makes the hair glossy, brilliant and fluffy. Use this dry shampoo once a week, and if your hair is inclined to be harsh, dry or faded it soon will become soft, lustrous and silky."—Adv.
