Facts About the Peerless "Kimball" Pianos

Over 215,000 "Kimball" Pianos have been manufactured since the establishing of the factory, 56 years ago. 20,000 are produced yearly. The A. Hospe Co. has handled the make for 36 years; several scores of the world's foremost musicians and singers use the make to the exclusion of all others; hundreds upon hundreds of colleges, conservatories, catholic academies, etc., attest to the inimitable "Kimball" quality, (names on application) gold medals and highest honors awarded at a dozen world wide expositions; the exquisite scale and tonal features and the grandeur of the cases has excited comment the country over. One cannot imagine a better value at even the regular prices, but with the $75 "Concession Check" offered you, the make is simply irresistible.

Why Kimballs Offer This

The W. W. Kimball Co., of Chicago, admitted largest manufacturers of high grade pianos in the world, are about to make a radical change in their advertising plans and are "trying out" an entirely new publicity idea, with the assistance of their largest western distributors, the A. Hospe Co. of Omaha, Nebraska. The Kimball Co. has an idea that the money until now spent in magazine advertising costing as much as $7,000 per page, would be better spent DIRECT on the prospective piano buyers, by means of a $75 price concession for a limited space of time, and in this announcement you are made acquainted with the new plan. Better read every word; it means thrusting $75 into your very pockets if you are about to buy a new high grade piano.

Hundreds of Kimballs Used in Omaha

It Means Buying the Established $300 Grade Piano at $225

The $75 "Concession Check" will be honored on ANY new Kimball Piano or Player Piano; making the $300 instruments cost you $225; the $350 ones, $275; the $400 ones, $325; the $425 ones, $350; the $450 ones, $375; the $475 ones, $400; the $500 ones, $425; the $750 "grands" $675; the $825 "grands", $750; the $900 "grands" $825 and the $550 Player Pianos $475. $75 off ANY style.

The Terms and Guarantee

While the questions of price and "concession" have been arranged by the W. W. Kimball Co., the "terms" are up to the A. Hospe Co., and one may rest assured that the greatest piano selling event of the year will not be made less attractive by unsuitable terms. The lower prices instruments may be purchased at $6 per month; the next higher grades at $7 monthly, and the still higher grades at $8 per month. Out of town folks have the same advantages and may send in the "concession check" as a $75 payment. All instruments are RIGIDLY guaranteed by the Kimball factories as well as by the A. Hospe Co.

The Saving is Clean Cut

The $75 concession offered you because of the coupon, is shouldered by the W. W. Kimball Co., and NOT by the A. Hospe Co. The "Concession Check" when used, is filled out and attested to at this store and immediately sent in to the Chicago offices of the Kimball Co., where the amounts are credited to the accounts of the A. Hospe Co. And the PRICES on the instruments are NOT raised one iota because of the "concession"; this has rigidly been insisted upon by the Kimball Co., and the figures quoted on their pianos and piano players NOW are the same that have been in force for years. The W. W. Kimball Co. further stipulates that the newspaper coupons MUST be presented if concessions are expected, and that all concession privileges cease on January 1st, 1911.

Player Pianos are Included

The Kimball Co. has also been persuaded to include their magnificent Player Pianos in the "Concession" privilege, and one may purchase their standard priced, every-where-known $550 player at $475 if the accompanying "Concession Check" is used. The same $75 may be taken off the regular prices of any Player Piano made by this concern if the deal is made before Jan. 1, 1911. Rest assured that the Kimball Co. knows HOW to produce perfect players, for they have an experience founded upon the building of over 215,000 qualified pianos. Buy a marvelous Player Piano as a Christmas gift; this is a "now or never" chance.

PLAN FOR STATE BAR MEETING

Leading Speaker Will Not Come, but Substitutes Are Provided.

NATIONAL SECRETARY WILL COME

George Whitlock of Baltimore to Speak on Subject of "Uniform Laws"—Lawyers of State Invited.

E. H. Farrar, president of the American Bar Association has written here his regrets at being unable to come as promised to the annual meeting of the Nebraska Bar Association. The death of a daughter in Paris, in peculiarly tragic circumstances, has almost prostrated Mr. Farrar and his wife.

Mr. Farrar is a New Orleans man, and it was at the Chattanooga national convention that he promised Ralph W. Breckinridge of Omaha to deliver an address at the meeting of the state association here, the dates of which are December 27-28.

Mr. Breckinridge, who is a member of the executive committee of the American Bar Association, also secured the promise of Lynn Helm, fellow member of the executive committee. Mr. Helm has now written renewing his pledge. He will deliver an address upon "Nationalism: A Study of the American Union."

In Mr. Farrar's place probably will be heard a talk by the national association's secretary, George Whitlock of Baltimore. Mr. Whitlock is to talk, if he comes, upon "Uniform Laws." He is due in Chicago December 30 to attend a meeting of the officers and executive committee, so that his presence here is deemed probable.

The Commercial club has sent out 1,000 cards to Nebraska attorneys giving them the privileges of the club during the meeting. The annual dinner will be held at the home the evening of December 28.

Army of Business Men to Hear Adams

Twelve Hundred Have Been Invited to the Ad Club Dinner Next Tuesday.

Twelve hundred men are invited to the Ad club dinner to be given in honor of Charles Frederick Adams of Brooklyn, who will speak at the home next Tuesday evening. Inasmuch as the accommodations are limited to 400 it will behoove those wishing to go, to file their return postal cards of acceptance at once. Reservations will be made says the Ad club, in the order of reception of cards.

The Ad club is asking Commercial club and Real Estate exchange members to the dinner. Mr. Adams will speak on the "Commission Form of Government."

On the same topic will be heard another authority, John Macvicar of Des Moines. Mr. Macvicar is former mayor of the Hawkeye capital, and has served two terms as a commissioner under the new plan. He was one of the hard fighters to get the commission form of government established there. He has long been secretary of the League of American Municipalities and was last in Omaha at the league's convention in September, 1908.

Mr. Adams will speak at the Commercial club following luncheon the next day, Wednesday. The Real Estate exchange will also hear him that day.

Omaha Building Record is Strong

Report of Building Inspector Shows that Much Work Has Been Done.

This year will probably be the biggest for new buildings in the history of the city except for the record breaking 1909. The City National and the Douglas county court house were two of the biggest items on the list last year, which helped to swell the total. If the Woodmen of the World get their new skyscraper far enough along this year the record may be broken yet. This year there have been built in the first eleven months 1,182 buildings at a cost of $5,140,728. In 1909 there were 1,563 buildings for $7,284,670 and in 1908 1,534 for $4,112,928. In the month of November alone this year there have been 190 permits let, calling for buildings costing $481,300. In 1909 there were 96 at $333,026 and in 1908 96 at $429,125.

LAWYER AND MINISTER MEET

Attorney Tells Parson that for Every Divorce He Secures Latter Gets Two Chances.

John O. Yeiser, lawyer, and Rev. Charles W. Savidge, the marrying parson, met. As usual, the minister was on his way to perform a marriage ceremony. "That must be about No. 219 now," remarked the lawyer. "No, sir," exclaimed Rev. Savidge, "it is 214."

"Do they all stay tied?" inquired Mr. Yeiser. "Oh, no, no chance for you, John," said the minister. "Oh, now don't assume that attitude," the lawyer retorted. "Every time I try a divorce case it gives you two more chances."

SOLOMON CASE FOR ESTELLE

But "Fathers," Not Mothers Claimants of This Child.

ONE REAL, ONE ADOPTED SIRE

Court Must First Rule Whether Heas Corpus Shall Be Heard by Him or by Judge at Broken Bow.

Judge Lee Estelle wishes that he had the wisdom of a Solomon to aid him in settling an involved fight between the father and foster-father of a boy of nine years. The court may keep the case here for himself to decide or send it to Broken Bow. If he decides to keep the case here, then he will have a tough little problem to rule upon; just to decide upon keeping it is itself a nice question.

If the boy, whose sister is also involved in the fight, is following his foster-mother's advice he is praying indignantly that he be restored to his foster-mother, who is his aunt. This advice to pray to be returned was given this boy, who is the son of T. A. Miller of Broken Bow when Sheriff Bralley went out with a habeas corpus writ and brought the children to this judicial jurisdiction.

Miller asserts that when his wife died at the Coulters home the Coulters took the children. He says they later secured a decree of adoption for the children in the county court of Custer county, taking advantage of the fact that he was too poor to contest for a father's right.

Attorney H. M. Sullivan of Broken Bow said he wished Judge Estelle to rule that if Miller wishes to start a proceeding to regain custody of his children he start it in the Custer county court.

"We have no fear of the decision you would make if you heard this case on its merits," said the attorney; "but we want it tried there because we would be put to great expense coming here to fight. We can show that Mrs. Miller before she died made an affidavit that Mr. Miller was unfit to care for the children, and that he abandoned her and them and expressed her wish that Mr. and Mrs. Coulters care for them. They are children themselves and they love these children. Our town was all excited when the sheriff came there and in many instances took the children. The children are in a good home. Their foster parents take them to church and Sabbath school every Sabbath. When they were about to be taken away that poor mother, with tears in her eyes, when the boy was crying, too, told him to pray God in his prayers that he might come back to them. They have 600 acres of land that they would like to give him, too, after their death.

Judge Estelle took the matter under advisement and said he will rule Friday morning. Read This if You Want the Benefit. J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., writes with a severe case of lumbago. The pains were so intense I was forced to hypodermic injections for relief. These attacks started with a pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy lumbago. Sold by all druggists.

Attorneys Had No Standing in Court

Queer Mess Developed in Connection with the Nebraska Bank Guaranty Law Appeal.

The appearance of Nebraska before the supreme court of the United States shows a quality of democratic administration that is somewhat remarkable. Under the management of the enthusiastic advocates of the Bryanite doctrine several "amici curiae" were listed to assist the attorney general in the presentation of the case before the supreme court. Among these were C. O. Whedon of Lincoln, late aspirant for position in the United States senate; Judge Alberts and Arthur Mullen, late oil inspector and now attorney general for Nebraska. Each of these distinguished gentlemen filed a brief with the clerk of the United States supreme court at Washington, and each of these briefs was turned down by the clerk because the gentlemen filing them had no standing with the highest court in the land.

After some investigation and inquiry it was determined that the brief filed by Mr. Whedon might be accepted by the supreme court, but the briefs filed by Messrs. Mullen and Alberts were returned to them. This left the state of Nebraska in the position of having an attorney general who was not recognized by the supreme court before which he sought to practice to defend a law of the state found incompetent by a lower court. At this juncture Attorney John L. Webster, who represents the other side, with that urbane courtesy, which is such a marked characteristic of the man, undertook to smooth away the path. Mr. Webster will present Mr. Mullen and Mr. Alberts to the United States supreme court and undertake to secure for them the right to practice law.

New Toll Lines to Fremont Now Open

Telephone Company Has Completed Large Trunk Line to the West.

New lines of the Nebraska Telephone company between Omaha and Fremont are now in use and fifteen conversations between the two cities can be carried on at the same time. Ultimate capacity will be thirty-five synchronous conversations.

The completion of these lines, on which construction has been going on for a month, means the removal of all toll lines and poles from the West Farnam district, because the new lines run west on Cass street through the north part of Dundee and thence directly to Fremont.

Service demands in the past have not exceeded capacity, but during the last year the limit has been often so closely approached that the company decided to anticipate future growth. A number of lines have been installed adequate to meet all demands for years. The new service will accommodate not only Fremont and adjacent towns, but will add greatly in connections between Omaha and towns in the western part of the state.

OFFICE OF CLERK IS PRAISED

R. C. Hoyt Complimented by His Office Being Taken as a Model of System.

Compliment to the office system and the work of R. C. Hoyt, clerk of United States court here, was paid by the recent visit of Clerk Sears of Scranton, Pa., who journeyed to Omaha to learn how to straighten out the tangles of his own office.

The visit of Mr. Sears was made at the suggestion of the United States inspectors who have highly commended the work Mr. Hoyt and his office force are doing.

DUNDEE SHOWS BIG GROWTH

Reports Show Sixty New Homes Built This Year.

MANY OTHER IMPROVEMENTS

Miles of Streets Curbed and Some Paved. While Others Will Be Paved During the Coming Spring.

Seven hundred thousand dollars has been spent this year in the village of Dundee in erection of residences and other improvements. On residences alone $200,000 will have been spent by January 1, 1911. Official building permits show that sixty new homes have been built in Dundee and Sunset addition and nearly all these will have been erected within the comparatively narrow rectangle between Forty-eighth and Fifty-second streets and Farnam and Cumine.

No other section of Omaha and its environs can make anything like so good a showing as this, extent of territory considered. The handsomest of these residences, nearly all of which are now completed, is that of C. C. Crowell, the grain magnate, who moved into his $15,000 home last week. The other houses run from $2,000 up and will average about $4,000 to $5,000.

Besides the sums spent for residences, contracts have been let for paving and curbing improvements, which total $250,000. Then The Dundee Realty company has spent $20,000 in laying out Happy Hollow Circle, or Happy Hollow, as the addition is technically called. A part of this $20,000 was used in extending an eighty-foot thoroughfare from Dundee to Fairacres.

The paving contracted for is nearly all asphalt, and although a good part is done, some yet remains to be finished. When this work is consummated, Dundee will be more desirable as a residence spot for men of means sufficient to build and live in houses worth the sums indicated above. The curbing on all these streets is what is known as the "park curb" or "boulevard curb"—and this, while better than stone setting, is also cheaper of construction.

Dundee has no need of public buildings other than the town hall, and expenditures along this line will go into churches. One of such, the Dundee Presbyterian, was built during the year at a cost of $15,000.

CHILDREN'S FACES AWFUL WITH RASH

Ran Over Bodies, Too. Dry and Very Crusty—Used Cuticura and Did No More Scratching, Eczema Disappeared in 6 Weeks.

Now More Than Two Years Ago and No Sign of Trouble Has Returned.

"My two children suffered from an affection of the face and hands. It started first with little red spots which afterwards got bigger until they were the size of five-cent pieces. The outside became dry and very crusty. The rash on their faces was awful and it ran over the body, too.

"I had a doctor for them but he could not help. Then I read of the Cuticura Remedies. As I am a chemist, having served my apprenticeship in Germany, I did not have much confidence in them. Yet I was soon convinced that they were better, for after I used Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent the first time the children felt very well, and did no more scratching. There the ointment became dry and crusty and disappeared after about six weeks' treatment. This is now more than two years ago and no sign of the trouble has returned, therefore I can recommend the Cuticura Remedies without reserve to all people who are suffering with eczema." William Greisk, 74 Douglas St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Mar. 19, 1910.
