Omaha bowlers came out far ahead of Morse of St. Joseph. other cities in the number of places won in the Mid-West tournament just finished. Omaha took thirty winning places in the prize list. The nearest competitor was Chicago with fifteen winners. However, in point of money won the Omaha bowlers came in second, Chicago men having taken in $785 to the Omaha rollers $650.

Omaha won four team places, ten doubles and sixteen singles and so far as has been calculated has no all events places. Chicago has two team places, three doubles and eight singles, and at present holds two 'all events' places. The figures in the "all events" have not all been totaled and this is still uncertain.

The Omaha men took second, tenth, eleventh and thirteenth in the five-men and fourth and fifth in the doubles, with other doubles winners down the line. In singles the Omaha high men were Martin in eighth place and Belmar in ninth, both members of the Pete Loch team.

Other cities taking places in the tournament were: St. Louis, thirteen places; four doubles, three team and four single events and one all events. Kansas City took ten bles and one all events. Sloux City had Andy's Colts... places; two team, four singles, three douone team, two doubles, two singles. St. Joseph had two doubles and two singles. Des Moines had one team, one doubles and one singles. Columbus, Neb., took four singles, with only one team entered.

The tournament was a success in every way. The alleys were in good condition and every bowler was enthusiastic over ine tournament and the treatment he received in Omana. As for the scores, every record but one was beaten and that one, the flys-men teem, was tied.

As a Middle West bowling event it was entirely representative, with bowlers from all over the west present. Nebraska, Iowa, Jetters Illinois ad Missouri were represented and

MCCOOK, Neb., Dec. 5.—(Special.)—Unquestionably the grittlest game of foot hall ever played on the local gridiron was that played in McCook Satorday afterneon between the McCook and the Beaver City High school teams. The score was 39 to it in favor of the visitors. The Beaver City boys were much heavier than the locals, but the home boys gave them a race for their mones, which fairly set the onlockers wild with enthusiasm Last night the visitors were the guests of the McCook High School Athletic association in the high school building in a "laffy pull."

Woman Loses Watch. The snow also caused one of the young women appearing at the Gayety this week to lose a valuable gold watch, which had been handed down to her as an heirloom of the family. It was a small Swiss movement English watch and had the initials A. E. M. As a bevy of the young women of the Knickerbockers were enroute from their hotel to the theater they engaged in a snowballing contest and this is the sport which cost the young woman her watch. Even at this early day Nero exhibited many evidences that he would make a good Roman emperor. Besides playing the fiddle he combined a taste for Greek art and murder that held forth great promise of future usefulness to the state. Agrippina's training had not been in vain, as Nero showed by attempting to drown the old lady as soon as he found himself on the throne. Although he failed in his first attempt, the earnest preparations he had made indicated that the failure was not made indicated that the failure was not the fault of carelessness. He was deeply mortified at the slip, however, and for several days couldn't look his mother in the face, conscious that he deserved reproach for his clumsiness after all her patient lessons. Many and many a night had the noble widow sat up with her fatherless boy-at her knee, teaching him his murder primer, and now at the very first attempt to carry out her precepts he had made a coarse bungle of it. THE ONLY PERMANENT CURE No case of Rhenmatism was ever cured except by a thorough purifica-tion of the blood; just as long as the
