ELKS' MEMORIAL IN BLUFFS

Judge O. D. Wheeler Talks on "Spirit of Brotherhood."

MANKIND FROM THE SAME FAMILY

Religious Have Common Origin—Deeply Religious Stages of Evolution Were Periods of Fanaticism and Intolerance.

The Council Bluffs lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks yesterday honored its dead. An audience that filled every seat in the Bohannon theater witnessed the service. The faults of our brothers were written upon the sands where the first returning wave will obliterate them and leave the beach strewn with pearls of shells; their virtues we inscribe upon the tablets of love and memory. The service was the sentiment reflected by every act and every word.

The theater was decorated with the emblems of mourning, the black being combined with spotless white and royal purple. In the center of the stage stood the large cross used at many previous memorial services. Only a few years ago the cross was large enough to permit the names of all the departed brothers to be inscribed upon it. In letters of light which disappeared as each name was called, until the last faded away. But the roll has grown too long now, and the beautiful ceremony had to be modified. As the roll called proceeded each name appeared in electric letters in the center of the cross, to give way an instant later for another, until the whole long list of fifty-one had appeared. The cross was partly hidden by climbing vines and bending palms, emblematic of the life that triumphs over death.

Program of Ceremonies.
The program was fully carried out with the exception of the address by former Congressman Wade of Iowa City, who sent a telegram late Saturday night announcing the serious illness of his daughter from typhoid fever and his regrets that it was thus impossible for him to be present. H. W. Binder, exalted ruler, was master of ceremonies, but no announcement was made of those taking part in the program. In impressive silence each came forward at the proper moment. The violin solos by Henry Cox and the vocal solos by Mrs. Harry C. Paul, both of Omaha, were features. The Elks quartet, J. R. Gerke, W. S. Rigdon, Claude P. Lewis and C. S. Haverstock, sang "The Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "The Rosary."

The address of Judge O. D. Wheeler of Council Bluffs portrayed the growth and development of the spirit of brotherhood. He sketched the great achievements of civilization that have given man his present mastery of the forces of nature, but showing that the splendid flower that is bursting into fragrance all over the world, the bloom of civilization, is the growth and development of the brotherhood idea. The history of civilization shows that the errors of the churches and the misdeeds of mankind have been prompted by the selfishness of men. All mankind are from the same family and the wants of all are closely connected. Religions all have a common origin, but the deeply religious stages of human evolution were the periods of fanaticism and intolerance. It was a deeply religious people who chained their brothers to the stake and lighted the torturing fires. It was a deeply religious community that hanged the Quakers. Russia today is a deeply religious country, but its people have not reached the medieval age of civilization. It is the black night of bigotry, intolerance and selfishness with which fraternity and brotherhood are incompatible.

Judge Wheeler's address with eulogies upon the lives of Charles M. Harl, John T. Oliver, A. S. Mack and Myers Hansen, all of whom have died since last memorial services, three of them in 1910.

"Dr. Miles' Nervine Completely Cured Our Little Boy of Fits."

A family can suffer no greater affliction than to have a child subject to fits or epilepsy. Many a father or mother would give their all to restore such a child to health.

"I am heartily glad to tell you of our little boy who was completely cured of fits. He commenced having them at the age of two years and had them for four years. I tried three doctors and one specialist but they said he could not be cured, but Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills made a complete cure. He is now hale, hearty and gay. It has been three years since he had the last spell. I shall give Dr. Miles' Nervine and Liver Pills to every child I know of who is afflicted with fits or epilepsy. Upon an information filed by W. T. O'Neil of O'Neil Bros., coal dealers, John Easton, a negro, has been sent to the county jail for ten days by Judge W. Easton pleaded guilty to stealing coal from the yards at Second avenue and Tenth street.

A large audience witnessed the dedication yesterday of the new building erected by the parish of St. Francis Xavier's. The ceremony began at 10 o'clock and continued for an hour and a half, ending at 1:30 in the evening by a lecture on the Rev. Father J. F. Nugent of Des Moines.

A new petition of consent to secure the approval of voters in all parts of the county of Council Bluffs, to amend the existing laws of the incorporated villages and towns is now being circulated. The old petition expires on July 1 and if the requisite number of voters is not secured before that time it will be impossible for the dispensers to do business.

The executive committee of the National Horticultural congress held a meeting Saturday night for the purpose of working on the unfinished business in connection with the third annual exposition and the first corn show. Many people having claims against the association have failed to send in their bills, and thus it was impossible to determine the financial standing in relation to the size of the deficit.

The funeral of Lloyd Musselman, the 15-year-old son and last of the family of seven children of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Musselman, was held yesterday afternoon at the residence on Frank street. It was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Williams, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church. The young man died after an illness of less than one day from hemorrhage of the brain induced, his friends say, by a sunstroke suffered last summer while working in the harvest field in Nebraska.

Upon demand of some of the property owners who have recently acquired homes on Scott street, the city council has permitted the taxes assessed for a brick sidewalk laid more than ten years ago. By a singular oversight the sidewalk contract was overlooked and forgotten and for all these years the contractor has been minus about $800. The council was detected last spring and the city council entered the assessment against the property. There was no objection from the residents who had long held their property and received the benefits of the improvements, but the new owners, who were not aware of the such liens, objected and refused to pay without suits. The council decided to rescind the assessment demanded under these circumstances.

Engineer Has Narrow Escape from Bullet

Iowa Man Injured in His Own Room by Shattered Glass of Window.

MASON CITY, Ia., Dec. 4.—(Special Telegram.)—Bert Moore, a locomotive engineer, was fired upon by an unidentified assailant while reading in his room this afternoon. He was injured by the shattered glass of the window near which he was sitting. The telephone wires leading to the house were cut before the shooting.

The officers suspect two men in connection with the affair. No arrests have been made.

Iowa News Notes.
IOWA CITY.—The city council of Iowa City, following rumors of threatened tuberculosis and typhoid, has passed an ordinance providing for a milk inspector in this city.

NEW SHARON.—Gerrit Boerlin, a Holaband living near Peoria, this county, committed suicide today by hanging himself in the barn with a strap. He leaves a widow and five children.

GREENE.—Harvey Behnke, a young man of this place, is in a serious condition at German. He went there to press hay and while engaged in this work he scalded and got his leg into the press and it was so badly smashed that amputation was necessary.

MARSHALLTOWN.—Lawrence, the 11-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. McCord, was probably fatally scalded Saturday morning when he overturned on himself the boiling contents of a cocoa pot. The child's face, neck and head were fearfully burned.

HARLAN.—Henry Prenter, the democratic candidate for county treasurer of Shelby county, who was elected by one vote, according to the unofficial returns, and who was defeated by two votes by his republican opponent, George H. Miller, on official returns, has filed notice of his intent to contest the election.

KLEMMER.—A large barn, all of it contents, including nine head of cattle, and a pig, filled with embers, on the Charles F. Busch farm near here, was completely destroyed by fire Friday night. Mr. Busch had purchased the cattle and brought them to the barn only a few hours before the fire broke out. The loss is $4,000, partly insured.

JEFFERSON.—George H. Jones, a young man, was instantly killed here in a peculiar manner. He was going to shell corn and had fixed the sheller and was in the act of setting the engine. The sheller, and while he was fixing the engine, the sheller came running down and before he could escape his head was caught and crushed flat.

EAGLE GROVE.—Mrs. Almira Ley wants a divorce from her husband after living with him forty-three years. They were married in Chicago in 1867 and now she says he has left her. She also asks alimony of $25,000. Mr. Ley is wealthy and Mrs. Ley believes that she helped to earn it and is justly entitled to her share of it. Judge Wright will hear the case during the term, which sets next Monday at Clarion.

MARSHALLTOWN.—At a meeting of the principals of the high schools of this city, Waterloo and Fort Dodge, held in Waterloo today, arrangements were made for the triangular debate, in which two teams from each school will participate on a date in January that is yet to be chosen. The question to be debated is to be "Resolved: That a graduated income tax would be a desirable modification of our federal system of taxation, constitutional and granted."

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Mrs. Lucie Hayden Dies at Son's Home

Conference of Those Interested in Y. M. C. A. Work in City.

BAILEY OUTLINES THE POLICY

State Secretary Will Have General Charge—Goldsmith Will Start Classes in Gymnastic Work of Once.

A conference of those interested in the work of the South Omaha Young Men's Christian association was held yesterday afternoon in the institution building. In spite of the storm there was a good attendance. State Secretary Bailey was present and outlined the policy and plan of working the association in the future. The policy will be to work with the boys in every feasible way. Expenses will be kept as low as possible. A board of directors to take the place of those who resigned last September was partly named. State Secretary Bailey is to continue as head of the organization and will have general charge of the work for the present. Secretary Ernest Simpson spoke of his experience in dealing with boys and said he looked forward to a season of very successful work.

Alfred Goldsmith, a graduate of the Springfield, Ill., training school, takes charge of the gymnastic work today and will start classes immediately. He comes with an excellent reputation as an instructor. The new board of directors will be elected at a meeting of the members to be called later.

Gillie Looks Up Balance.
The city of South Omaha has at the present time in the hands of Kountze Bros. of New York City, fiscal agents for the state and city, a balance to its credit of $125,000, which represents the amount of uncalled for bonds and coupons unliquidated for a period of several years. City Treasurer Gillie has written the city council recommending that a resolution be passed directing him to call upon the bankers to return at least $100,000 of the balance. This amount, he states, can be placed to the credit of the interest and sinking fund of the city, where it will always be available for the purpose for which it was originally intended and until it is called for the city can have the use of the money.

Want Sale of Park Bonds.
It is stated that a deputation of citizens living in the southeast section of the city, as well as members of the park board, will appear before the city council Monday night to request that body to make arrangements for selling the $15,000 bonds, the proceeds of which the board desires to use for the improvement of Mandan park. The board has several times brought the matter before the council, but no action has been taken so far. It is understood that the council may do something Monday night.

Mandan park, which is situated in the southeast part of the city, comprises eleven acres, acquired four years ago, during the mayoralty of Thomas Hoctor. It is probably the finest park in the city, well wooded and of good elevation, but there is no approach to it except through private property. The intention of the board is to purchase an additional tract of five acres of timber land adjoining, throw this into the park and construct a boulevard to connect with the Thirtieth street boulevard. If arrangements are made for selling the bonds now everything will be in readiness for proceeding with the work early in the spring.

Snow fell steadily all day from 11 o'clock in the morning. To enable the street cars to maintain their schedule the sweeper had to be used during the afternoon.

The women of the English Lutheran church will hold a church fair in the Ritchie building next Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Dinner will be served each day.
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jewell, 902 North Twenty-second street, gave a reception Friday evening in honor of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry McKell, who were recently married. The newly wedded couple, who will make their home in South Omaha, were the recipients of numerous presents.

It is stated that the county attorney has decided to hold only Ed Flowers and Fred Harris in connection with the death of the colored man, Joe Stout, following a free-of-night trial at the coroner's inquest on the night of November 16. Six prisoners were held after the coroner's jury, and all will have a preliminary hearing today.

WENDLING WANTS NEW TRIAL

Attorneys Will File Motion Based on Affidavits Asserting Juror Had Expressed Opinion.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 4.—Attorneys for Joseph Wendling, convicted last night of the murder of 8-year-old Alma Kellner, and sentenced to life imprisonment, will file, probably tomorrow, a motion for a new trial. Mrs. Lucie Hayden Dies at Son's Home

Mother of Head of Hayden Bros. Firm Passes Away Sunday Night.

Mrs. Lucie Hayden, mother of Joseph and L. W. Hayden, proprietors of the Hayden Bros. department store, died last night at the home of her son, Joseph Hayden, 328 Farnham street, after an illness of more than a month.

Had she lived Mrs. Hayden would have been 51 years old in May. She was born near Dublin, Ireland, and remained at her birthplace until after her marriage. She was educated in Dublin.

A few years after her marriage to John Hayden she came to the United States and went to live at Columbus, Wis.

Mr. Hayden died at that place in 1874, leaving her with eleven children. She followed her sons to Omaha nineteen years ago and had made her home with her son, Joseph, since that time. The Hayden Bros. department store was established by her sons several years before her arrival here.

All her life Mrs. Hayden interested herself solely in her home. She took no active part in the business or social life that brought her sons and daughters distinction.

Mrs. Hayden is survived by seven children, Joseph and L. W. Hayden; James R. Hayden, a land and lumber dealer of Virginia, whose home is at Charlottesville; William Hayden of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Thomas Flynn, Mrs. John Sweeney and Sadie L. Hayden of Omaha.

Burial will be at Columbus, Wis. The body will be taken on a train leaving Omaha at 6 o'clock tonight.

Insurrectos Still Are Active in Mexico

Peace Commission Hampered by Soldiers Who Interrupt Conference.

CHIHUAHUA, Mexico, Dec. 4.—The peace commission returned to this city today and reported that their work was greatly embarrassed by the fact that soldiers followed at their heels. At Guerrero, just as they were beginning to talk with the insurgents, a party arrived with word that the soldiers were on the way, whereupon the meeting promptly came to an end.

At Guerrero and also at San Antonio the commissioners were told that the main grievance is against the state government, rather than against Diaz. Today telegrams were exchanged with the capital with reference to the proposals and that the government forces be held pending another conference between the commission and the insurgents.

Seemingly authentic reports tonight state that Guerrero has been taken by the revolutionists with some loss of life. Details are lacking. It is reported that General Plata, commanding this military zone, is to be succeeded immediately by General Hernandez.

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 4.—A message from Presidio, Tex., this morning states that the town of Ojinaga, Mexico, across the river from Presidio, is being attacked by insurrectos. Heavy firing can be heard in the Mexican town and the residents are crossing the river in a terror stricken condition.

If This is a Biscuit

What is This—

ANSWER

One—the flat, sad, sickly looking one—was baked with poor baking powder; possibly the high-priced kind—possibly the cheap, big can kind. It denotes a lack of leavening gas, or an uneven distribution of same—or both. The other—the large, light, fluffy one—was prepared with Calumet Baking Powder, and denotes the never-failing, delicious baking that always results from its use.

Calumet does not cost as much as the high price baking powder, but it is very much superior in every way—it is purer—more reliable—more healthful. Here are the reasons:

All baking powders undergo a chemical change in the process of baking. You do not take it into the stomach in the same form as it is in the can. For example: When you use Cream of Tartar Baking Powder you get Rochelle Salts in your food, because the Cream of Tartar during this reaction turns into Rochelle Salts. This, as you know, is a drug, and should be taken only under doctor's orders.

Calumet is so carefully and scientifically prepared that the neutralization of the ingredients is absolutely perfect.

That it is absolutely pure and of highest quality is proven by the fact that
